Acceptable Wireless Network User Agreement

Users of the Woodridge Public Library's wireless connectivity must agree to the following:

Terms of Use

Failure to follow the terms of use listed below may result in the patron being asked to sever his/her connections and leave the building.

1. Wireless users must not attempt to access or damage the library's network.
2. While using the Woodridge Library connection, wireless users may not use the Internet in any way that violates a Federal or State Law.
3. Wireless users must not behave in a manner that is disruptive to other library patrons or library staff. This includes--but is not limited to--loud talking, inappropriate use of furniture, and rudeness to library staff.
4. Earphones must be used if sound is to be activated through a wireless unit.
5. Wireless users may not use the library's Internet services to display or disseminate sexually explicit materials.
6. Wireless users must not impersonate another person online.
7. Printing is not available from wireless units.
8. Access to the Library's databases through the wireless connection is not guaranteed without a Woodridge Public Library card.

Disclaimers

- Library staff members cannot provide technical assistance.
- The Library cannot guarantee that users will be able to connect to the wireless network.
- The Library assumes no responsibility for any loss or damages done directly or indirectly to personal data or equipment, or for any damage or injury arising from loss of privacy while using the wireless connection.
- The wireless network is not secure. Exercise caution when sending or receiving personal data over wireless connections.
