HIGH SCHOOL BOND ISSUE PASSES

The voters of Downers Grove High School District 99 voted 4,212 to 1,392 (unofficial) in favor of the proposal for a $125,000 bond issue to purchase 48 acres at 63rd and Dunham rd. as a site for eventual expansion of Downers Grove Community High School.

Woodridge Count

The unofficial vote count at the Woodridge School precinct was 246 for and 27 against. One ballot was spoiled, and six were objected to.

School Superintendent Glenn E. Pickrel stated at the Board of Education on Jan. 15 that the acquisition of this land would not increase school taxes.

Serving as judges of election at the Woodridge School precinct 7 were: Mrs. E. B. Dollmeyer, 6457 Route 53, Downers Grove; Mrs. Emilie Weinfeld, 2636 S. Crest, Downers Grove and Mrs. Marge Martin, 7652 Catalpa, Woodridge.

Men's Basketball Tonight

The Woodridge School gym will be available tonight, Feb. 22, for men's basketball. This is a district wide project. Any man, 17 years of age or older, living in School District 68 is welcome. The organizational meeting will be from 7:40 to 8:00 p.m. There is a fixed gym rental, and a fee per person will be charged to cover this. (Individuals have guaranteed the fee will not exceed 40 cents a person this Thursday only.) Basketball playing for all from 8:00 - 10:00. (Gym shoes or stocking feet only.) A good turn out will insure future games.

Joe Shroka has been appointed temporary chairman for organizational purposes. Thursday night is the only night reasonably available. Apologies to those who cannot make it that night.

FINAL INSPECTION MADE ON WOODRIDGE SCHOOL

The final inspection of Woodridge School was conducted Sun. Feb. 18, by the Village Building Commissioner, Horace Thoresen, and an occupancy permit was issued. Final approval had been withheld since Sept. 16, 1961 when the village board made a final inspection of the school and found items which did not conform to the specifications.

Problems arose on Feb. 15 when Wil-Freds, Inc., the contractor for the 8-room addition, started construction without a building permit. Wil-Freds, Inc. had applied for a building permit, but the permit was withheld by the village because they had not given final approval on the original structure.

The school board had given Wil-Freds, Inc. notice to start construction, because they felt as a local governing body they did not need permission from the village to build on school property.

The village board felt they did have authority over school construction in accordance with building ordinance #59-1.

The basic issue is still not settled but both boards agreed that the controversy should not impede the construction of the badly needed addition. However, there was to be no construction Mon., Feb. 19, pending the review of the entire building permit application by the village board at a special meeting to be held that evening.

The village board will also decide at that meeting whether to waive the building permit fee as they had done for the original 12 rooms.

Open House At Lisle Fire Dept. Feb. 25

The new home of the Lisle Fire Protection Dist. at the corner of Main & Front sts., Lisle.

Open house for the new fire house in Lisle is set for Sun., Feb. 25. The fire house is located at the corner of Main and Front sts. in Lisle.

A $90,000 bond issue was passed by the voters in the Lisle Fire Protection District (which includes Woodridge) to purchase the property, existing structure and to refurbish the building. The work is now completed except for very minor items says Mr. Henry VanKampen of the Lisle Firemen's Association.

The Lisle Firemen's Association and the Lisle Fire Protection District are sponsoring this open house which will be from 1 to 5 p.m. Coffee, sandwiches, cake and donuts are to be served.

The firemen will serve as guides, and a fireman will be stationed at each piece of equipment to explain the use of the equipment and to answer questions.

The trustees of the L. F. P. D. will be on hand. An invitation is extended to everyone.

REMODELING OF VFW POST CONTINUES

Many things are happening to an old farm house located on the east side of Jane's road these days. Men armed with tools of all descriptions can be seen scurrying in and out in the evenings and weekends, busily transforming the interior of the old house into the new home of the Woodridge VFW.

The men of the VFW, now 34 strong, are steadily repairing and making improvements in the house they have been renting from Surety Builders since last November.

Bud Guernsey, commander of the post, says that much work in the interior still remains to be done, including decorating. He says they also hope to paint the outside of the house in the fall. Furniture has been added to many of the rooms, including a newly purchased TV set.

Although much of their time is now spent in remodeling, the VFW is planning many other activities. The national VFW rules require that each post participate in three community projects every year. They have already posted street safety signs in parts of Woodridge, and they sponsor the Woodridge boy scout troop. Plans are being made for a visit to a VA hospital and also to hold a poppy day sometime in the spring.

The business meetings of the Post are held on the first Tuesday of each month. A social night is held on the third Friday of the month. The Post is looking for new members, and anyone interested can contact Bud Guernsey, WO-9-0873, or Tom Przybylski, WO-9-0939, for information.

Village Board To Decide On Filling Police Vacancies

Village President William Roberts was contacted by the WNR as to what the plans are to fill the vacancies on the police department. He said, "I don't know as that there are any vacancies. The board has to decide whether we need more men. The department is being re-evaluated and there has been no decision as yet."

School To Sell Tax Anticipation Warrants

At the Feb. 5 school board meeting John Dahlberg, of the finance committee, announced that school district 68 had a bank balance of only $15,445. Tax money will not be available until May. In view of this, a motion was made and approved to authorize the attorney to draw up the necessary legal documents to begin selling tax anticipation warrants. The 1961/62 budget shows a total of $44,000 in T.A.W. issued. These are to be sold in $5,000 units as needed, with the final unit amounting to $4,000.

Mrs. Crane stated that the Village Library Committee has requested permission for use of the school gym to present a play, the proceeds of which will be used for the proposed library. Marvin Wiggins, board member, who has had one meeting with the library committee chairman, asked that the board withhold a decision until the next regular meeting, at which time he expects to have had a second meeting with the committee.

Al Olsen, building and grounds, reported that certain improvements are to be made in the Woodridge heating system, which proved troublesome during the extreme cold of the past two months. These improvements were recommended by the architects and will be installed at their expense.

Mr. Wassen, of Wight & Associates, displayed to the board samples of two windows. One is the window now used in the school building; the second window, identical except for one or two minor points, may be purchased and delivered from a Pennsylvania manufacturer for a saving of over $300.00. Since the new window looks identical to those now used, and there are no major structural differences, Mr. Wassen recommended that the board take advantage of this saving, to which they agreed.

Marvin Wiggins informed the board that, in his opinion, the community was expanding more rapidly than ex-

County To Act On Road Situation

A meeting of the road committee of the county board of supervisors and the township road commissioners was held Feb. 6 because of the controversy this past winter over the responsibility for maintenance of subdivision roads which have not yet been accepted by the local road commissioners.

Jean Burton, the Lisle township road commissioner, is holding the bonds in the amount of $220,000 on the roads in units 1 and 2 which were built under county jurisdiction. Burton has said that he does not intend to release the bonds until spring and that he will probably have test borings made before their release.

At the Feb. 6 meeting, it was agreed by those present that certain revisions and amendments be made to the existing county subdivision regulations and be presented to the county board.

The new resolutions provide that a contractor, at the time of filing of the final plat, also enter an agreement whereby he agrees "to maintain, repair, and service all street surfacing during the period prior to final acceptance by the highway commissioner in such a manner that means of ingress and egress shall be afforded to emergency vehicles and residents at all times during said period." It will further be necessary for the contractor to post a maintenance bond, in the form of cash or certified check, with the highway commissioner which will be conditioned upon the faithful performance of the above agreement. The amount of this bond will be based upon the number of miles of roadway to be constructed and will be equal to the average cost to the township of maintaining a like number of miles of roadway within the township over a like period of time. Failure of performance will entitle the highway commissioner to perform the necessary servicing, and the cost will be deducted from the cash bond.

Further, it has come to the attention of the board of supervisors that roads are being constructed in new subdivisions which do not comply with the standards set forth by the county. It has been deemed necessary to curtail such practices by requiring more thorough inspection of roads. Hereafter, the contractor must furnish, at his own expense, proof of compliance with the standards set forth - when the resolution is passed by the county board of supervisors.

The test borings are to be made at points in the roads designated by the highway commissioner. The borings are to be submitted to a qualified engineer or testing laboratory designated by the county board.

He and his wife are active in their church. Ed teaches a high school Confraternity of Christian Doctrine class.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

In the last issue of the W.N.R. the names of two people appeared in the same column. These people are representing the same political party and are competing against each other for the Precinct Committeemanship.

Their issues may be uninteresting and dull and perhaps used many times but their main concern is getting publicity to help them in their election campaign.

I too represent a political party, known as the Democratic Party. I am the Precinct Committeeman of the Woodridge area. I am not looking for publicity for myself as I have no opposition in the coming election due to the withdrawal of my opponent.

The purpose of my letter is to inform the many new homeowners in Woodridge, that DuPage County is no longer a one Party County. Lisle Township, which includes the Woodridge area is one of the strongest Democratic Townships in DuPage County and Woodridge will carry a very heavy Democratic vote in April.

I recently had the opportunity to participate on a DuPage County Screening Committee to select our Democratic County Candidates and never before in the history of the Democratic Party did we have so many prominent and capable people seeking endorsements for their respective offices.

The candidates endorsed by this Committee are all new and able to step into office at once and do a commendable job.

The Democrats do not present the same names year after year.

In closing, I would like to remind all of the people who are not registered to watch for the Registration dates which will be printed in this paper. Do not give up your right to vote. Thank you.

Respectfully yours,

Joseph R. Rende

Wiggins, expressing a wish to avoid a repetition of the unpleasantness last fall, suggested that the board write a letter to the builder requesting that prospective buyers be informed of the situation. Since the board was not in possession of any definite figures, it was decided not to take any action until after further investigation.

The second annual "Trojan Week" for D.G.H.S. was from Feb. 13-16. The 1st day was kick-off day. The Student Council President gave a short talk explaining "Trojan Week". The 2nd day was Academic Day. Students were allowed to teach? classes, with permission of their teachers. Dress-Up Day came next. Guess what everyone did today? Yep! They dressed up. The last, Spirit Day was the best. Most of the students wore purple and white clothes. (Those are the school colors), also "back the Trojans" tags. After school there was a pep rally, and later a basket-ball game. Finally after the game was a "mixer".

One Friday after school Judy Provo flew to Oklahoma. (Wait a minute, that doesn't sound right). . . oh. . . flew in an airplane. She said she had a real nice time and the weather was beautiful.

Anita Sanchez will be "sweet Sixteen" (and never been kissed???) on Feb. 26th. She is going to celebrate her birthday by having a party Feb. 23. Well, So Long!

Building Commissioner Thoresen Explains Inspection Procedure

The building code of a community is basically important to every individual - his protection that his home and all others in the community conform to a specified code. The enforcement of this law is the responsibility of the building commissioner and his inspectors.

Horace Thoresen, 7627 Westview, has been building commissioner since Sept. 16, 1961. He explained that the procedure, as he now has it set up, should provide this protection. However, at this time he has just two men working in his department, himself and one inspector, Wayne Ford, 2918 Westridge. He said that it is essential that men volunteer to help so that when the building increases in the spring and summer, the increased work load can be handled in the way in which it should be handled.

Thoresen explained the paper work of the department is a job in itself - a record is kept of each lot showing a record of the contractors and a record of each inspection: footings, foundation, framing, electrical, plumbing, basement and sub-floor, final inspection and issuance of a certificate of occupancy.

He added that when a violation is found, a complaint is filed; one copy to the builder and one copy to the file. Thoresen then follows up on these. He said he would like to emphasize that the builder has been very cooperative. He said further that in the last seven inspections as of Feb. 13, no violations were found.

A change that has taken place since he became building commissioner is that the building permit fees have been raised from $45 to $70 on the average house.

To serve as an inspector, Thoresen said, it would be necessary to have done some work in the building trades and to have at least three hours a week to spend on this work.

However, he added, the inspector can work at his own convenience - week-ends, nights - anytime that suits the individual. He emphasized at this point that it is essential that volunteers offer their help. His telephone number is Wo 9-4354, and he can be reached evenings.

Thoresen is obtaining special help on the inspection of the school additions. Phillip Munson, 2920 76th st. will assist in the inspection of the concrete work.

OPINIONS of the PEOPLE

by Ramona Kinser

How can the inactive members of the community be encouraged to participate?

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Litavsky

The Warren Litavskys, 7636 Catalpa, are very active in their church's affairs. They put in much time working on dances and picnic committees, fund raising campaigns and are presently members of the St. Joan of Arc Christian Family Movement which meets bi-weekly in members' homes. This, coupled with the fact that until recently Mr. Litavsky worked long hours, has left them little time to engage to any extent in community affairs, although both worked at the first Woodridge 4th of July picnic even though at the time their home here was not yet completed.

Mrs. Litavsky believes it is not lack of interest that keeps people from participating. She said among her circle of friends the Woodridge newspaper is eagerly awaited because people are interested in the news, which is entirely about the village. Her husband disagreed somewhat adding that people are interested but not enough to put forth the effort to attend meetings or contribute their talents. He noted that in parish affairs, there is very little turn over among workers. The majority are content to enjoy what a few work hard to plan and carry out.

Mr. Litavsky maintains a "personal touch" is very important to any project. He cited the success of the recent fund raising campaign for a parish convent as a prime example. If a general announcement had been made in church that pledges were being asked, he doubts there would have been much response. Instead, the men (and even newcomers to the village proved eager to help) visited within homes. He reports that people appeared happy to be recognized and needed even though they were being asked to donate money.

This same approach, he feels, could be carried over into community affairs.

The Litavskys recommended that a special committee be set up within the organizations to make random calls through the community inviting people to attend meetings. Since those invited would in most cases not wish to come alone, they would bring a friend or two. It would be the committee's responsibility to see that introductions are made. It is the Litavskys' contention that most people feel ill at ease about attending any function where they know no one else, and most new residents are acquainted only with their immediate neighbors.

They believe there are enough people in Woodridge to make every organization - whether political, school, scouting or athletic - a good one, if peoples' interest can be aroused. If they are made to feel needed, this will be the result.

They advised that people seek out the organization which best suits their interests or talents, since it is obvious one person can't possibly join in every activity. They cautioned that getting "too carried away" could ruin one's home life, and that is something to be avoided.

Voters Registration Notice

All residents who are not registered and have lived in the District 30 days, 90 days in the County and one year in the State can register on Sat., Feb. 24, from 12:00 p.m. - 6:00 P.M. at the residence of:

EIGHTH GRADE MOTHERS TO SPONSOR FASHION SHOW

A fashion show and hat sale is planned for Tues., Mar. 6, at 8 p.m. in the Woodridge School. There will be prizes and refreshments.

Peterson's Rambler and Kay Howard are the participating shops.

Tickets are $1. The 8th grade mothers are planning this affair to raise money for the Springfield trip for the 8th grade students.

Mr. & Mrs. John Narducci

"Getting people out of their homes to attend meetings is one of the biggest problems we have had to face," replied Mr. John Narducci of 7820 Jonquil Ct. He and Mrs. Narducci are active in the Woodridge Athletic Association, and both feel the problem is shared by all the organizations in the village.

Mr. Narducci believes that sometimes "just plain laziness" keeps people away. Most people work all day, he said, and would prefer to sit home and relax in the evening, but if everyone did, nothing would be accomplished for the community, children or adults.

If these inactive people would attend at least some of the meetings conducted by the school or village boards, Home Owner's Association, W.A.A., Mothers Club, or other activities, they would discover that most people are friendly and eager to become acquainted. They could then choose the organization they are most interested in and lend it their help and support. The W.A.A.'s meetings usually wind up in a funfest, with ping pong, or other enjoyable activities and refreshments, said the Narduccis.

They would remind people that their children's activities should not be left to a few to supervise - that parents should contribute time and assistance to the success of any venture.

Mrs. Narducci sympathized with new members of the community who feel strange about attending meetings for the first time. She suggested that established members might personally invite several new people, escort them to the meeting, and introduce them to the others in attendance. The next time they would feel at ease about coming alone, or they could be encouraged to bring a friend or neighbor along in the same manner.

They both agree that some men's irregular working hours preclude their participating. In that case, they say, the wife should be the active party.

If baby-sitting is a problem, Mrs. Narducci recommends that the many teen-agers in the community be organized to donate their services so that mothers (or even both members of the family) could attend meetings. In this way, everyone would be accepting their responsibility to the community.

Mr. Narducci pointed out that the average man has nothing to say about what is done in the city. "Here at meetings you can ask questions, voice your opinions, and really appreciate what being an American citizen means," he said.

Registration Deadline Nears

All residents who are not registered in Du Page county must register by Mar. 12 to be eligible to vote in the April 10 primary election. Voters must have lived in the state 1 year, in the county 90 days, and in the precinct 30 days as of election day. They must also be citizens of the U.S. and at least 21 years old.

Anyone previously registered in the county, but not in this precinct, may have his registration transferred.

Village Clerk, Eleanor Murphy, announced she will hold a special registration day, Sat., Mar. 3, from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the village hall to accommodate non-registered residents. However, she urged residents not to wait until that time. She will be available during regular hours 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Sat., Feb. 24, and Deputy Clerk, Shirley Manges, will be at the village hall from 1 to 4 p.m. on Wednesdays to accept registrations.

"Those who are not free during the day may call Mrs. Murphy for an evening appointment to register in her home. The number is WO 9-6585."

SCHOOL PERSONALITIES-

A veteran of 27 years of teaching and now one of the three first grade teachers at Woodridge School, Mrs. Anna Fagan began her career in a one-room rural school. As teacher and pupils had to do most of the custodial chores, she found it a great lesson in cooperation. She spent 12 of the 27 years teaching in Cook county and 15 in DuPage including this her second year at Woodridge.

Mrs. Fagan, who was reared in Minnesota, came to Illinois to work during the summer in her author-uncle's office. He persuaded her to stay. She attended a normal school in her home state and since then has gone to the University of Chicago, Lewis Institute, and the University of Colorado.

Both she and her husband, John, are fond of the out-of-doors. She said choosing their home on Timber Trails road in Downers Grove township has allowed them to enjoy the woods, the birds and nature.

Mrs. Fagan enjoys history as a hobby and also likes to write poetry and songs for her own amusement.
