March 27 marked the graduation of the first class from the DuPage Police Academy. The class, over 90 strong, included men of the Woodridge police department. This is to be the beginning of what the DuPage Police Chief's Association hopes is a long line of well-trained officers graduating from the academy. The association, itself an infant organization, was formed to promote and foster better police service to residents of the various villages in the county, officials said.

Village Board Rescinds Action On Plat

At a special meeting of the village board Mar. 21, the village trustees voted to rescind the motion approving the plat for Woodridge Woods #2. Trustee Robert Murphy moved that the plat be rescinded because it appeared that it was not in agreement with Woodridge's subdivision control ordinance. Trustee Robert Manges seconded the motion, and four points were brought out as being considered possible discrepancies. The points concerned a half street, the storm drainage system, the clerk's certification and the sub-divider's agreement to install improvements.

The main point of discussion was the storm drainage system. The point made by Trustee Murphy was that the storm drainage system on lots of less than 25,000 sq. ft. should be underground according to the subdivision control ordinance. He added that a public hearing can be held to grant a variation if an underground system would cause an engineering impracticality for the developer, but that the board could not approve the plat unless a variation is granted. Mr. Webster of Webster Engineering, the engineer for Surety Development Corp. stated that all storm drainage in Woodridge connects to an approved outfall which is in agreement with the subdivision control ordinance.

Brought out in this discussion was the fact that the entire drainage system was not reviewed by the village engineer in the letter referred to by President William Roberts at the Mar. 7 board meeting, part of the basis on which the plat was approved at that meeting.

John Trask, Woodridge superintendent of public works, said that he had discussed this with Mr. Hunter of Consoer & Townsend, the village engineers, and that Hunter agreed it could be classified as an outfall.

Robert Wendt, former chairman of the plan commission, said that as he read the ordinance the entire system should be underground to an approved outfall. The difference of opinion on the definition of the word outfall (as to whether it is a point of final outlet from the subdivided area or may include a section of drainage ditch within the subdivided area) was unresolved.

Trustee Manges asked if the plan commission members had reviewed the engineers report on the plat. Wayne Bryant, temporary chairman of the plan commission said, "I don't believe so".

On the half street, Trustee Leon Werch

Village Election

CAP Restates Platform

"During the first week in February CAP distributed its platform to the people of Woodridge so that they would have sufficient time to discuss it and form their opinions.

"The community center has been the subject of much discussion. The second plank in our platform is particularly pertinent when considering the recent move towards annexation of the Winston-Muss development. In this, the last edition of the paper prior to the election, we represent our platform to the people of the village.

"The Citizen's Action Party has been created for the purpose of establishing sound, progressive and fiscally responsible government. To this end, we offer you, the citizens of Woodridge, our platform.

1. We will build a community center. Our village needs proper facilities to house its protection agencies and its governmental activities. We need space for recreational activities for our youth. We must accomplish these

Arnouil Issues Statement

Robert Arnouil, the independent candidate for village trustee, has issued the following statement.

"If elected village trustee, I promise you independent thinking. I have some knowledge and experience concerning village affairs which I received as building commissioner for the village in '59-'60 and feel that this would help me consider village problems logically and independently.

WIP Reviews Record

The following was received from WIP: "Since some criticism has been levied against the WIP for not making more concrete promises in its platform, the party feels the best answer is its record of past accomplishments which will best speak for its intentions in the years to come. WIP does not take credit or accept blame for the period preceding November '61 when the term of office of its oldest member began.

"Most notable is the enacting of a zoning ordinance and establishing of a zoning board of appeals. Coupled with this action, was the passage of the subdivision control ordinance. These two ordinances, along with the BOCA building code just adopted, will enable the village to exercise strict control over the present builder or any future developers.

"For the first time the village has an effective, well-run police force. With the hiring of Chief Joel Kagann last July, an entire reorganization of the force was begun. F. B. ### Candidates State Goals

The candidates for the Apr. 13 school board election to be held in school district 68 have issued the following statements for publication in the WNR.

All but Smeeth, who is unopposed since he is running for an unexpired one-year term, are candidates for three-year terms of office.

ROBERT A. ALBEE
School boards spend hundreds of thousands of dollars annually. The dollars they spend come from taxpayers in the school district.

Taxpayers are hopeful that the elected members of the board will get full value for every dollar spent.

Taxpayers should see to it that at least one member of their school board has financial and accounting training and experience to help get what they expect for what they are willing to pay.

I have the necessary training and experience; and if elected, I will use it for the sole good of the taxpayer.

JOHN O. DAHLBERG
I wish to be re-elected to the school board to continue the job already begun--that of expanding a country school district to one of a size approaching that of some of our neighboring towns. I offer: 1). My time. Those who have followed our board

$85,000 Pledged in Catholic Fund Drive

"Exemplifying the fine spirit of cooperation that has been present since the founding of St. Scholastica parish in June of 1962, the Parishioners have once again 'gone over the top,'" said Father John Kloepfer, pastor of St. Scholastica's. The parish has been in the process of conducting a capital fund drive in order to begin a building program. The drive was held on Sun., Mar. 24. Prior to this the workers on the drive had made their pledges at a meeting held on Sun., Mar. 17. The total pledges to date amount to over $85,000.

Father Kloepfer stated that this was a tremendous effort on the part of many people who did much preliminary work in preparation for the drive in addition to the almost 100 workers who canvassed the parish on Sun., Mar. 24. He expressed his most sincere gratitude to the chairmen,

Editorial

In the Dec. 27, '62 edition of the WNR we made the following editorial comment about the then-coming election campaign: "the village will be in the hands of the voters. With new developers coming into the community, Woodridge will be at the crossroads; no longer an infant, the village government will be expected to fully exert itself in the enforcement of its ordinances and in the overall development of the community. Top-notch people will be needed to do the job - people who will persevere until the job is done."

We are reprinting this as the village election campaign draws to a close because the events of the past few months have underscored the significance of this statement. It has been a spirited campaign, and the candidates have been very active in bringing their messages to the people through pamphlets, coffees and this newspaper. We hope those elected will continue to communicate with the public after they are in office. We gave them equal opportunity to present their views in this newspaper during the campaign, and we will continue to do so after the election.

The village is now in the hands of the people - those who vote.

The candidates have done their job; now it is up to the voters to do theirs.

said that the subdivision control ordinance had provisions for half streets. There was some difference of opinion on the matter of terminology as to just what a half street is. The ownership of the property where the other half of this particular street should be entered into the difficulty.

Trustee Ralph Kennell moved that the clerk's certification of the subdivision control ordinance be amended to read as it did on the submitted plat. Both Manges and Murphy said they did not intend to vote on this without legal advice. Mrs. Faye Hoffman asked if it were the usual procedure to pass an ordinance without legal counsel. President Roberts said that sometimes we do and sometimes we don't.

Further discussion on the discrepancy concerning the clerk's certificate resulted in a decision that the attorney be directed to amend it.

At this point Albert Kaufman, president of Surety Development Corp., said that the plat was submitted a year ago come May, and that after all that they've gone through they're right back where they started. "We have never been accorded this kind of treatment," said Kaufman. He said further that they have always been accorded the good will to discuss the plat at the time of action on it. "We've reached the end of the road." "We plan to withdraw our plat for Woodridge unit #5 and file to disannex all our properties from this village."

The WNR was informed that the entire matter was being referred to the village engineers.

division leaders, captains, workers, and behind the scenes workers as well as to the whole parish for this fine and most generous expression of support.

The chairmen of the drive, John Subat, Edward Schreck, Phil Amoruso, Mrs. Frank DiDonna, Richard Roman, George Kujawa, and Martin Kloefer were most edified by the spirit of cooperation and smooth operation of the drive which was conducted by the parishioners themselves.

The present building plans call for the erection of an eight or ten room school building and a gymnasium on an 8.8 acre site donated by Surety Builders. The property is located on Janes avenue, just to the south of Crabtree ave.

The St. Scholastica Men's Club and Women's Society have each pledged $7,500 to the building fund. The pledges are to be paid over a period of three years.

created rather than actual present problems being faced. For one example, I feel the issue of park areas and recreational facilities is very important. But I think the management of parks shouldn't become an added responsibility and burden to the village board, but should be considered separately in the form of a park board which would be a negotiating and taxing body governed by its own officials.

Regarding annexation of new areas, I feel it is favorable for the village. It is important to the proper growth of the village to have more than one builder since it would create healthy competition."

TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

A "letter to the editor", if directed to a group or person, always expects an answer. I was glad to see an answer from the WIP Candidates, but feel they missed the point in relation to a party platform. As previously stated: "How else can the people judge them when in office or seeking re-election but through their ability to keep their campaign commitments. CAP through its presentation of a positive platform, has shown its willingness to be responsible to the people now and in the future.

WIP speaks of our platform plank concerning the building of a community center. I would like to bring this into proper perspective. CAP feels that this village needs its own facilities to house its governmental bodies and to provide recreational facilities for its youth. We are hard pressed to find an established community that does not have such a structure.

CAP has passed a three page brochure to the people showing one way in which a community center could be established in Woodridge. Our opposition will certainly agree that this was not an indication of a promise that couldn't be kept. In this same brochure we showed a method for financing this structure that would require our going to the people for approval. Contrary to what was implied by our opposition, we know that the people in Woodridge voted favorably for the recent educational tax increase which indicates their willingness to be prepared for the future.

It appears that the difference between CAP and its opposition is that we have more faith in the people of the village and do not just want to "help", but to provide leadership in establishing this as a vigorous, well planned community.

Bob Waters

Dear Editor,

In the past few weeks statements have been made publicly and in writing by both CAP and WIP aspirants to village offices that they are "not politicians". These aspirants to civic office might do well to reflect further before making such flat statements. Merely by filing as candidates on the slate of a political party of their own creation, they are taking advantage of the most basic of political tools.

The word politician has a Greek origin meaning one involved in the management of the affairs of a city. Over the years, the word has had many meanings. Politics is the activity of government or government in action, and politicians of the right kind with the interest of the citizens as their primary motivation, are the wherewithall of good government. Those who are running for political office should not be ashamed of stating that they are involved in politics--they are. To state otherwise is foolish. To be the right kind of politician as well as a good citizen should be their aim, so that they may actively participate in the creation of good, sound, forward looking government.

Sincerely,

Gene C. O'Connell

Dear Editor:

As does Mrs. Watson, I live so far from the BARN that it does not bother me or lower the value of my property, so I don't care if it stays there forever either. Only if in our family we decide to get the new car or the fancy clothes, each and every member of the family must sacrifice to have them. So if the Woodridge area must have its firehouse, we must all pay for it. Let us move the fire truck back to Lisle, or let us build a firehouse.

Lora A. Henk

Dear Sir:

A startling inaccuracy in Mrs. Gloria Watson's recent letter to the editor both surprised and disturbed me. It surprised me that anyone with knowledge of school affairs or arithmetic--could conclude that a proposed tax increase of 21¢ per $100 assessed valuation would amount to 18¢ per month, when in reality at the Woodridge average of $10,000 assessed valuation, it would cost the taxpayer $21 per year or $1.75 per month.

Because Woodridge-ites have approved every school referendum to date, indicating they are forward-looking, responsible citizens, it disturbed me that the writer felt impelled to imply that they rejected the increase. In reality, the tax referendum passed here 136 to 124, while a 53-yes to 87-no tally at Goodrich caused its failure. This is not to condemn the good people outside Woodridge who are also paying for Woodridge school although few of their children use the facility.

It disturbed me that Mrs. Watson inferred C. A. P. has no interest in school problems, when in fact one of the party's candidates served on the school board for almost two years, another is a teacher, and all are parents, who appreciate the importance of their children's education, and taxpayers, who know the bulk of their taxes goes to schools.

Where is your sense of values, Mrs. Watson? Text books and classrooms do not comprise a child's whole education. Every facet of life contributes to education, and anyone who stops learning while living is already "dead". Apparently your opinion about a community center has changed radically since March 8, 1962, when you wrote to the editor of the WNR complaining that buried on the last page was - "The exciting possibility that we may be able to erect a community center with facilities for village meetings, town socials and a place to house our fire truck (down with the barn!)." Because of their forward-looking attitude, I believe Woodridge-ites do not consider a community center a luxury. Supporting this belief are the results of a poll conducted by the WNR and published in the December 14 issue. Of 25 families picked at random from every area of the village, 15 said they would "definitely" approve a center, and only one of the remainder felt it was not needed. Those who approved would, on the average, agree to $10 per year for this purpose. C. A. P. estimated that a less than 50¢ per month per family overall increase would give Woodridge a center of which it could be proud--a stabilizing influence on the community--a fine place for children's activities--and a clean, decent atmosphere for village officials to protect our health, morals, safety and welfare.

Very truly yours,

Ramona Kinser

Mr. Editor:

Before I begin my letter I would like to state that I am not a member of any political party in Woodridge but since all this talk of annexation has come up there are a few questions I would like to direct to members of the village board.

My questions begin with why, after four years, there still isn't a park in Woodridge? Why isn't the shopping center, which has been coming soon for the last four years, here? I would also like to know why the property which was promised as a park on Everglade Ave., has been turned over to a builder without the Village being asked or told about it until after it was settled.

The village board has spent a lot of time on the Winston-Muss proposed annexation. I think if they spent less time on it and more time on the above questions the village would be in a much better state.

Once the village board can answer the above questions to the satisfaction of the villagers then I think it is time enough for any talk of annexation.

Gerald DeFrank

Dear Sir,

An apology is due---from J. Trask, village zoning enforcement officer---to every individual in attendance at the regular March village board meeting held in the Woodridge school auditorium (citizens, village officials, representatives of Surety Builders, representatives of Winston-Muss corp. and members of the press) as well as to every resident of Woodridge in attendance at the meeting or not, whom he so verbally attacked.

With pointed finger he accused "everyone" in the audience and village of being an authority and expert on city planning and zoning. Is he? He questioned what right any individual had to comment on the matter before the village board (that of a pre-annex agreement between Woodridge and the Winston-Muss Corporation). He mistakenly forgot that this meeting was open for public discussion. His remarks reflected resentment to the fact that the meeting was open to the floor allowing the public to express their ideas or to question the village board regarding the annexation. He made it clear that he expected an Iron-Curtain to separate himself along with others who sat at the officials tables, from the attending public. He should know that he cannot take away the right of free speech, nor should he be permitted to reflect any radicalism upon our village board.

As he holds an appointed position and we cannot express a vote in this case, I hope the village board has already taken hold of this unhealthy situation to protect our rights as well as the future possibilities of having appointees with such radical views and expressions within the village framework of government. Such a circumstance reflects on the other members of the village governing staff. To ignore or disregard such a condition must not be done. History has shown us this folly with dire consequences to freedom seeking people.

Mr. J. Trask should know that we all have the same right as he--to speak openly at a public board meeting!! There is no excuse for any appointed official to belittle "everyone" by verbal attack and childish outbursts.

I ask for the removal from public office of such an individual who does not have interests or respect for the community he is obliged to serve!

Sincerely,

Arthur M. Berg

Dear Editor:

The Woodridge Independent Party had, in the last issue of your paper, announced that we would hold an open forum on April 10 in the Woodridge school gym. It was intended that all the candidates from both the WIP party, the CAP party and the independent would attend and avail themselves to the public to answer questions about the village government and the issues of this election. Because the CAP has refused to attend this forum and allow the people to judge for themselves their qualifications, the Woodridge Independent Party has no recourse but to cancel the forum. Instead we will hold an open house in the school gym on April 10 at 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend and ask any questions of the WIP candidates.

It is unfortunate that the CAP feels it cannot attend and give the citizens of Woodridge a chance to compare their candidates with the others. In a reply to our invitation to the forum by CAP signed by their campaign manager, it was stated that the CAP was too busy studying the village government and presenting issues to attend. What better way would there be for the citizens to find out what they have learned and to question the issues than at an open forum? One can only draw the conclusion that they fear the WIP candidates have more experience and knowledge and would show them up.

They also stated this type of forum would only lead to political sharpshooting. In an earlier release they stated it was a historic fact that politicians make campaign promises and therefore they were promising various things. Why don't they come out to a forum and let the people question these promises before the election? If they are well versed on their subjects, they should be able to answer any sharpshooter's questions.

The people of Woodridge, on April 16, have the responsibility to select the persons who will run the village government for the next few years. The WIP candidates have made no rash promises, but in this issue of the paper have stated their accomplishments since they have been in office. They feel continual improvement and progress along these lines is far better than making promises they don't know if they can keep. We hope all the voters of Woodridge will turn out to vote on April 16, and to the WIP open house on April 10. All the WIP candidates will be there to answer the public's questions to the best of their ability.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas A. Church, Campaign Manager
Woodridge Independent Party

Dear Editor,

If Mr. Thuerk wants to crawl, he better look out, he'll get stampeded. Woodridge must acquire low cost land today as contrasted to high priced land tomorrow.

The independent candidates and Mrs. Gloria Watson brought up the last educational tax increase. Please tell the whole story! In essence, Woodridge area people passed the referendum, 136-yes votes to 124-no votes. The Goodrich area defeated it by an 87 to 53 vote.

Since CAP has been organized, intermingling pressures have been developed which have promoted a number of situations. 1). More information about more candidates has evolved. 2). We have a two party system instead of a dominating administration. 3). Questions and answers at board meetings are more favorable as to length and content. 4). Annexations and other proposals are discussed in public more fully before they come to pass. 5). The village board will even see fit to rescind the approval of a plat.

This area has been and will continue to be in a period of frantic, erratic, rampant and unmanageable growth. Let us put some sense into it. While we are here, we must make some small contribution to Woodridge and leave a favorable heritage. At least we must provide and support candidates and vote for them intelligently.

Sincerely,

Dick and Colette Marushak

Voting Procedures

(In an effort to assist Woodridge residents in the forthcoming village election, April 16, the office of the village clerk has issued the following instructions for correct voting procedure.)

A ballot is properly marked when there is a cross consisting of two lines which intersect within the circle or square. The voter should be particularly careful to avoid two of the most common errors in marking a ballot: a check mark or the word "YES". Ballots so marked are considered spoiled and are not counted.

An elector may vote either a straight or a split ticket. In the April 16 election, because of the nature of the offices to be filled, the simplest procedure will be to place a cross in the circle at the head of a party column only if voting a straight party ticket; that is, if voting for all one party's candidates and only those candidates. If a voter wishes to split his ticket, voting for some candidates in one party and some in another or for an independent candidate, he should, to be perfectly safe, mark a cross in the square opposite the name of each individual candidate he is selecting.

When a voter marks the names of more candidates than there are offices to be filled, the ballot will not be counted for any candidate for that office. It is important, therefore, to check the instructions on the ballot which explain how many candidates are to be elected for any particular office. The voter may vote for fewer than the number of candidates to be elected but not more than that number. This means, in the April 16 election, he may select only one candidate for clerk, one, two or three candidates for trustee, 4-year term, and one or two candidates for trustee, 2-year term. In this election, voting for only one candidate where two or three are to be elected does not result in extra votes for that candidate.

If a voter will be unable to visit the polls on election day because of being out of town or incapacitated or because of a religious holiday, he may apply to the village clerk for an absentee ballot any time before April 13.

To be eligible to vote in the village election, you must have resided one year in the state of Ill., 90 days in DuPage county and 30 days in the village of Woodridge. The polls will be open from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m.

WIP Open House Apr. 10

The Woodridge Independent Party has announced that it intends to have an open house at the Woodridge school gym, Apr. 10, at 8 p.m. While it was originally hoped that all candidates for election would be present for a forum, the decline on the part of CAP has made this impossible. The Woodridge Independent Party expressed their regret at the loss of this excellent opportunity for the public to meet and question all of the candidates for office in the forthcoming election. However, WIP feels it should offer the people the opportunity to meet their candidates. Questions on all subjects will be welcomed from the audience. It is hoped that as many people as possible will attend.

Brownies

During spring vacation, the Woodridge Brownie troops will visit the Cock Robin Ice Cream Company, Naperville, on Mon., Apr. 15.

Rummage Sale

St. Scholastica Women's Society will have a rummage and bake sale on Sat., Apr. 6, in the basement of the school, Crabtree and Janes ave. from 1 to 5 p.m. Everyone is invited to drop in and browse around.

Police News

Complaints signed by Jim's Shell Service, 75th st. and Lemont rd., led to the arrest Mar. 27 of two village residents. They are charged with passing fraudulent checks. A hearing was scheduled for April 1 at 2:00 p.m.

Bond was set at $200 for Angelo D. Barbella of Cicero following charges of speeding, reckless driving and disorderly conduct. Mr. Barbella was taken to the Wheaton county jail.

Another case of moving traffic violations was that of William F. Sumey of Wheaton who was arrested Mar. 23 by Officers Timko and Wankowski on charges of driving while intoxicated and driving on the wrong side of the road. Police magistrate Walter Larson set bond at $500. Sumey's case was to be tried on Apr. 1.

On Mar. 25 Woodridge police assisted the Westmont police department in handling a call for a burglary in progress at the Jewel food store on Cass ave.

Police investigated a prowler call at the home of Reverend Savage on Mar. 18. A plaster cast taken of a footprint left by the prowler was sent to the F. B. I. in Washington for examination. Another call concerning a suspected prowler was investigated in the 7600 block of Catalpa ave. on Mar. 26.

cial rules and regulations governing the police force were adopted by the board. Of primary importance was the beginning of payment for part time police officers who previously had served many months with no remuneration. A radar unit is being rented to control speeding on 75th st. This step not only provides additional safety, but also pays for itself in revenue obtained from fines. A five year bicycle safety education program was begun last October with bicycle registration.

"Board action a little over a year ago made it possible, for the first time, for the village to obtain funds from the state for the maintenance and improvement of streets. This motor fuel tax fund provides the money for snow plowing and street sweeping. This is at no additional cost to the taxpayers. To insure that Woodridge receives its fair share of motor fuel tax revenue, which is based on population, a special federal census was ordered by the board. This census was conducted during February. The increase in the official population will quadruple the money received from the state.

"Building permit fees were reviewed and raised twice in keeping with fees charged by surrounding communities. This is a substantial source of revenue and permits village property taxes to be held to a minimum. Amendments were made to the building code for better control over the building of garages assuring those who build a garage of good construction.

"During the last year, the board annexed land west of route 53 and zoned it M1 to encourage light industry to come into the village. Industry is needed in a community to relieve the individual homeowner of excessive property taxes.

"Just this January, the first step in a street lighting program was instituted with four lights along 75th st. at the entrances of the village.

"Other action taken by the board includes the passage of a weed control ordinance to protect home-owners living next to empty lots, a curfew ordinance for the protection of our children, an ordinance calling for annexation and plat filing fees to offset any expenses incurred by the village for legal and engineering fees. "While it is not yet official, the board has been informed by the Illinois Inspection Bureau that a reduction in fire ratings from 9 to 8 will be approved shortly. This will afford an annual saving in fire insurance for the average home-owner of $7 to $10.

"Steps were taken during this administration to completely reorganize the village government. In particular, the purchasing department, the public works department and the clerk's office. Under the direction of the village clerk and her deputies, the clerk's office has provided additional services for better correlation between the different departments. The mimeographing of the minutes and treasurer's reports and the typing of voucher lists and agenda sheet help to maintain an efficient board meeting. Other services of the clerk's office are a complete form file for all departments, a readily available list of rules and regulations for solicitors and peddlers which has been compiled from our Village Ordinances, a complete form file for car licenses, driver's licenses, etc. and voter registration service. The clerk and her deputies maintain a complete and up to date census report, a resident file card system, both alphabetically and by street, provide a notary public service and are qualified, licensed police radio operators. WIP feels that the government of Woodridge is now running smoothly and at a minimum cost. The members of the party are dedicating themselves to continually improving methods and facilities for the people of Woodridge."

activities know that this is considerable; 2). My experience. Three years on the school board and two years on the citizens advisory council have given me a background to better understand and handle the problems that are yet to face us; 3). Honest sincere efforts. I believe this has been evident in the past three years in my attempts to satisfy the different groups in the community and still provide the best school system we can with the financial resources we have.

I stand on my record to continue to provide the facilities and teachers to give our children a sound elementary education and to do this economically and with the least strain on the taxpayer and the parents of the district.

ALFRED S. OLSEN

It has been a pleasure for me to serve you as a school board member for the past three years.

Three outstanding areas that we have worked on are: 1). Educational opportunities - which rest wholly upon the shoulders of the staff. We as a board can give direction to the program by providing a good staff. We have expanded the staff and administration so that the three basic areas of child development--mind, body and attitude--can be met. This will continue to be one of my primary considerations. 2). Educational facilities - have been provided for the district at a reasonable cost as the need arose. District 68 is one which is expanding at an increasingly rapid rate. It will be necessary to provide new facilities for the influx of children in the future. These facilities should not be just convenient filing cabinets for students' bodies, but useful vehicles for enhancing the educational processes of the students. Being a graduate electrical engineer and chairman of the building committee of the school board has given me experience in this area. 3). Financial stability - and ability of the district is the key to the entire educational program. The proper balance of the area's willingness to support--and the highest standards attainable--is a delicate one.

During the last three years the educational tax rate has risen at a much slower rate than the enrollment rate. I will continue to make sure that each dollar spent is spent wisely.

PROCOPIO RICO, JR.

The children of Woodridge are our best investment in the future. I am prepared to devote the necessary time and energy to see that our investment is well protected. The best way is to insure the children of Woodridge the finest education possible. I will do all in my power to see that the school tax dollar is allocated as wisely as possible.

I think the annexation of Winston-Muss is an excellent idea. More teachers and classrooms can be added with the proposed funds given to the school district as part payment for the annexation. Therefore, the increase in the number of students will not impose a tax burden on the taxpayers.

CHARLES M. SMEETH

The prime responsibility of our school board is to assure that our children receive a sound, basic education.

This involves attention to all matters relating to education--classrooms, teachers, curriculum, text books, etc.--and can only be achieved by working closely with the school administrators and teachers.

Each individual board member should be informed of our educational needs and should be willing to work to maintain and improve the educational program of our district.

ARTHUR R. THUERK

My primary goal as a member of the school board would be to upgrade district 68 and to provide the best possible education for your children and mine.

Since public education is my life's work, I feel that I am in a better position to know its needs than any other segment of the population.

As an employee of the Chicago board of education, I have access to all the latest methods in operating the schools, plus up-to-the-minute information on legislation pending before the general assembly affecting the schools.

Mothers Hear Fresh Ideas on Cooking

Two home service advisors from Northern Illinois Gas Company provided fresh ideas in the fine art of cooking to 100 members of the Mothers club at their meeting March 19. Mrs. Shirley McCann and Miss Marilyn Aggepopoulos prepared the gourmet dishes which were presented to several delighted homemakers at the close of the program.

During the business meeting which followed, the nominating committee presented its candidates for next year's officers. Since there were no nominations from the floor, the slate stands as follows: For president, Mrs. Dorothy Provo and Mrs. Helga Scudder; for vice-president, Mrs. Ruth Vondrasek and Mrs. Barbara Willis; for recording secretary, Mrs. Dorie Keller and Mrs. Joyce Diaz; for corresponding secretary, Mrs. Nan Davis and Mrs. Rose Kolody; for treasurer, Mrs. Geane Modersohn and Mrs. Bobbie Brisentine. Election of officers will be held at the club's next regular meeting which will fall on the second Tuesday of the month, April 9, because of Easter vacation. Program for this meeting will be Mrs. Jahnke's book review of "The Sound of Music", with costumed soloists in the roles of the Captain and Maria. Woodridge children who will take part in musical excerpts from the show are: Ronna Thomas, Debbie Rojic, Kathy Bullock, Virginia Mabrey, Debbie Carter, Mike Hill and Ricky Swanson. This will be an open meeting, and husbands are cordially invited.

things now--keeping in mind that the cost of land rises rapidly in a growing community.

2. We believe in realistic relations with the building community. Developers must be encouraged to build in Woodridge. However, they should know that we are conscious of future tax costs and will enforce sound land development and building ordinances. Those desiring annexation will know that we feel fair compensation should be received for this privilege.

3. We will actively work toward the lowering of fire insurance rates. We pay too much for fire insurance. The writing of a fire ordinance and proper direction could bring a saving of between $7.00 and $7.50 a year per family.

It is our belief that sound relations with the building community, progressive direction toward a community center and fiscal responsibility will attract the business community. Real interest will then be shown in a shopping center and the establishment of light industry. Of greater importance, these programs will make our village a better place in which to live.

IT'S ELEMENTARY

WOODRIDGE SCHOOL

by Amy Hill

In Mrs. Miley's room the children recently finished their "courtesy contest", and they received keys with words of courtesy on them.

Mrs. Woodin's room has been making modern designs with tiles. Their room is also starting a project on soap carving.

The children are all anxiously awaiting the soon coming spring vacation, but are not looking forward to the report cards that come out on April 5. Everyone has just completed their achievement tests for their grade level.

Mark April 9 on your calendar as a special night for entertainment. Under the direction of Mrs. Mason, several of the school children from various grades and Mr. and Mrs. Jones are presenting special selections from "The Sound of Music" to the Mothers' club.

Shamrocks!

Americans gain an Irish flavor in March with the wearin' o' the green and the boastin' of a shamrock. A dance became an opportunity to celebrate Ireland's favorite holiday as the Woodridge Athletic Association's 3rd annual St. Patrick's day dance lured many Irishmen and other fun loving friends together March 23 at the Downers Grove American Legion Post.

The dancers twisted and danced to the tunes of Jo Sanders' 5 piece jazz combo from 9 p.m. 'til 1 a.m. when the leprechauns vanished leaving behind the pot o' gold necessary for the purchase of some of this coming season's baseball equipment.

His services will be without charge or obligation.

Fire Dep't Notes

The fire sirens heard last week were caused by the installation of a new alarm system which was being installed by the Illinois Bell Telephone company. The work required for the changeover of lines resulted in occasional wire connections which tripped the alarm.

The Lisle Fire department, the Naperville department and Woodridge department all answered the call to a fire on Hobson rd., which resulted in total loss of a barn on the Harold Vial farm. Also destroyed were a corn-picker, a combine, elevator, 100 bales of straw and oats.

FIREMEN'S AUXILIARY

The annual candy sale of the Firemen's Auxiliary will be held the week of Apr. 7. Featured will be chocolate creams and pecan goodies.

Proceeds from sales will be used in purchasing equipment for the firemen.

2 Car Collision at Hobson & Rt 53

The intersection at Hobson rd. and rt. 53 was the scene of an accident covered by county police, Sun., Mar. 24, at 2:06 p.m.

A 16 year old Lisle boy driving his father's '49 Cadillac was arrested after the accident in which Charles E. Randolph, 22, a dock worker for Gordon's Transport of Chicago received an 8" forehead laceration and a laceration of the left knee.
