ROBERTS ASKS CENSURE

A board censure of Trustee Marvin Wiggins was sought by village President William Roberts at a special village board meeting Monday night.

Roberts charged that Wiggins publicly made a statement to officers of Surety Development that was unethical and irresponsible. Wiggins' statement regarded a re-evaluation of Surety's plats for units 5 and 6 if the Winston-Muss annexation failed.

In explaining his action to Wiggins, Roberts pointed out that all plats are judged on their conformance to village laws.

There was no second to the motion made by Trustee Leon Werch to censure Wiggins for his statement.

Wiggins then spoke saying that Roberts had exceeded his authority as village president in that the conversation was not during a board meeting. Wiggins said further that Roberts was "grandstanding" and that this was just further evidence of the harassment of the junior members of the board.

Wiggins denied that these statements were as represented. He explained that he was referring to the availability of public land in the undeveloped area Surety owns in the event the referendum was defeated.

the worst of Larchwood in Woodridge. The 4.3 acre parcel will be fully improved with streets on two sides.

Prince of Peace Lutheran church, under the leadership of Pastor John E. Swanson, has been serving the Woodridge-Lisle area for two years as of Oct. 15. They are presently using the facilities of the Woodridge school and the parsonage located at 2735-75th st.

With this land purchase comes the opportunity to erect a church building. Because the program is detailed and complex, the congregation will begin this January with the first major step toward a building program hoping that a structure will exist at the earliest possible time.

The Church Council and the Lutheran Church Men are now working on a date for the dedication of the site and the erection of a sign. This date will be announced shortly.

Nurses View Childbirth Movie

Gloria Watson, R.N., 7649 Woodridge dr., reports that a record crowd of 48 persons viewed the color and sound childbirth movie, "Relax, Here's Your Baby," Sept. 25 at her home. The movie was shown as part of the Childbirth Training League's program. In attendance were 10 nurses from Hinsdale hospital, 15 fathers, 1 grandmother and 22 mothers. One nurse who came because she "didn't believe in natural childbirth" said, "I haven't seen a thing here that is controversial--this is really educated childbirth."

Plans are being made to show the film to a group of doctors. The Childbirth Training League's purpose is to prepare the mother for labor and delivery so that, in addition to accomplishing a more comfortable labor and delivery for the mother and a safe delivery for the baby, the entire family unit experiences a greater satisfaction and joy. Anyone interested in attending classes may call Gloria Watson, Wo 8-8447.

Station Delayed

Peat bog is the reason for the delay in the construction of the Marathon gas station on the southeast corner of 75th st. and Janes ave. Plans must be changed to continue with construction since the requirements for building on peat bog are different and more expensive. Completion had been expected in the early spring.

Woodridge voters favored the Winston-Muss annexation by a 3 to 1 margin. At the polls Saturday 444 voted to annex; 152 voted against; and there were 18 spoiled ballots for a total vote of 614.

Claims Covenant Prohibits Shopping

On election eve last Friday at an informal meeting at Woodridge school, Trustee Marvin Wiggins announced that there was a protective covenant on the proposed shopping center site at Janes ave. and 75th st. which prohibits placing a shopping center there until 1984. He said that the zoning of this site had been checked earlier in the day at the county court house and that it had been discovered that there was a covenant which prohibits the construction of anything other than residences, churches and schools on this site.

The property is owned by the Surety Development Corp. and is zoned B-3 under the Woodridge zoning code which does allow shopping center construction.

Jack Kaufman of Surety told the WNR Saturday that Webster Engineering was checking the covenant and that no definite information would be available for a day or two.

16 Permits Issued In Sept.

According to Horace Thoresen, building commissioner, the village has issued 12 building permits for homes and 4 permits for the construction of garages for the month of September.

Roberts Offers Apology

President William Roberts offered a public apology to the residents of Woodridge in a statement issued to the WNR last Saturday. He said that at last Thursday's village board meeting he mistakenly referred to the property owned by Surety Builders on the north and south west corners of Janes ave. and 75th st. as being zoned B-2 (business). He said that the original plat he checked showed this proposed shopping center property as B-2. After the meeting, he added, he reviewed the final plat for the area and realized it was zoned B-3.

After over a year of negotiations by two village boards, Winston-Muss, Carleton Nadelhoffer and in spite of recent opposition, citizens of Woodridge turned out and expressed their desire to annex the Winston-Muss and Nadelhoffer property north of 75th st. to the village of Woodridge.

Saturday's addition of property is the largest single annexation to the village to date, more than doubling the size of the village.

Election judges were Mrs. Barbara Bonk, Mrs. Elaine Waters and Mrs. Collette Marushak.

Discuss Annexation At Village Meeting

A crowd at the Oct. 3 village board meeting at the village hall exceeding the 20 maximum stipulated by the state fire marshal resulted in a move to the St. Scholastica school basement. About 35 citizens attended.

Prior to the recess to move the meeting, two Woodridge men were appointed police reserve officers. They are Richard Kleven and George Zima.

It was stated that routine village business would be kept to a minimum because of the importance of and interest in the Winston-Muss annexation referendum.

The floor was opened to the public during the new business portion of the meeting. Most of those who spoke at this meeting were not in favor of the referendum. The dissatisfaction with the annexation centered on the B-3 (business) zoning to be granted the Nadelhoffer property north of 75th st.

President William Roberts gave a speech favoring the referendum which pointed out the advantages to be gained for Woodridge.

Suggestions from the audience on the B-3 zoning involved hiring an architectural firm to determine if B-3 is the correct zoning for that area, and re-negotiating with Nadelhoffer to determine if there were a possibility that he would accept B-2 or B-1.

The discussion was climaxed by Albert Kaufman of Surety Development Corp. who opposed the B-3 zoning as it

Dusting For Evidence

Officer Jack Trask, Woodridge detective, with Officer Pasquinelli from the Westmont Police department dusting for fingerprints.

Answering a call from Father Kloepfer at 3:30 p.m. Sun. Oct. 6, Officer Edward Arndt of the Woodridge Police department arrived at St. Scholastica school, Janes rd. and Crabtree ave., Woodridge to find that the school had been broken in to.

Officer Jack Trask was contacted by Officer Arndt. Trask contacted the Westmont Police Department for finger print equipment. Officer Pasquinelli of the Westmont police arrived with the equipment and with his assistance prints were lifted from within the school premises.

The breaking and entering is still under investigation. An inventory will be taken to determine what, if anything, is missing from the school premises.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The Woodridge News Review has at all times sought to improve the community and will cooperate with any individual or group that is striving to do the same.

We will give the builders, the village, the various citizen's groups, or any individual full opportunity to be heard, in a fair and equitable manner, on any subject of community interest.

United At Last

It is fitting that the people of Woodridge expressed their overwhelming approval for the annexation of the Winston Hills subdivision last Saturday. To us, this is an indication that Woodridge citizens can unite when the welfare of the village is at stake.

We hope they will respond in a similar manner when called upon again to support needed community endeavors.

was planned, Kaufman suggested that the plan commission of the Chicago real estate board be hired to make a determination as to whether or not the B-3 zoning is correct. He said if he were wrong, he would pay the bill. He thought Muss should pay the bill if Muss was wrong and that the board should abide by the decision.

The board made arrangements to contact Nadelhoffer last Friday to see if he would consider any change in the zoning.

Screening Planned For 75th

In response to a question from the audience about the B3 property and 75th st. in particular, a letter from Carleton Nadelhoffer was read by village clerk, Faye Hoffman. In the letter Nadelhoffer agreed to screen the 75th st. area with ornamental plantings. Trustee Marvin Wiggins explained further that there will be a set-back of approximately 300 feet between 75th st. and the actual business buildings.

Scout News

Boy Scout troop 109 attended the Illinois District Pioneer Camporee at Thunderbird Scout Reservation, Sept. 27, 28 and 29. As is customary, each patrol pitched their own tent, planned and cooked their own meals. One of the unusual items on the menu was pizza (the frozen kind), but the story goes that one of the boys traded his pizza for a hot dog. (Come on fella, be brave and next time give it a try.)

Once again the campers were besieged by strong winds and drenching rain. One of the scout mottos is "Be Prepared", and the boys did an excellent job of living up to that motto. Only one tent was cap-sized.

The week-end wasn't all play. Several of the boys earned credits toward an advancement in rank. The boys also competed in a skills test with patrols from scout troops of neighboring villages. Some of the skills required were: compass degree reading, rope tying, pitching

8th Graders Sponsor Car Wash

Starting this Sat., the Woodridge 8th graders will sponsor a car wash. Room mothers, Pauline McPherson, Arlyle Roberts and Delores Zuccaro are encouraging the project in order that the class raise funds for their class trip in the spring.

The car wash will be open for business at 10:30 a. m. and will be available for service throughout the day each Sat.

EXPLORERS by Bob Manges, Jr.

Two Woodridge boys, Charles Kraut and Bob Manges, Jr., who just this summer completed the national Junior Leader Instructor Training Course (JLIT) at Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico, put their training to use for two Saturdays in September. They helped in the instruction of over 50 scout patrol leaders in the Indian Trails District. Lasting four days, the training course included instruction in the organization of the Boy Scouts and many camping skills.

The Junior Leader Training Course was climaxed at the district Camporee held at Camp Tomo-Chi-Chi-Knolls where Kraut and Manges received the JLIT patch for their help.

a new-type tent and then rolling it up again, packing a knap sack correctly, throwing a rubber ball through a tire tube, deciphering a Morse code message, and choosing the correct material to use in building a fire.

Each patrol followed a prepared trail, testing their skills along the way. At the end they were required to draw a map of the trail. The Raven patrol won first place in the Woodridge troop.

Scoutmaster Joe Shroka, with assistants Bill Knight and Lewis York, accompanied the boys on the outing.

TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

When you talk of excessive spending by the government, just what does it mean? When the government spends money it means the government - local - state - or federal is spending your money and mine. The government has nothing to spend.

Your national government is spending money as though it is about to go out of style. It is like a convict who is about to lose his life because of his misdeeds, who is given his choice of a meal, his last one. You would imagine that the prospect of no future would spoil his appetite. Usually the last meal is hearty, even though it will not be digested. What a horrible thought!

The people of Woodridge must expect to be heard. They must insist on being heard! There can be no other way.

In my last letter I said there must be law and order. If there isn't law and order there is chaos.

Woodridge is a community which has just been born. All its people are burdened by debts incurred by Home Ownership. You are all in the same boat. If you overload the boat, or rock it, you will be drowned.

But as a young community you can make the future whatever you want it to be. The fact that you settled here is because, for the most part, you disliked Chicago and city living. Woodridge must be, therefore, a community of neighbors - good neighbors. Be friendly and be neighborly, and may those who govern carry just that spirit and be a friend among friends. Govern wisely and well. You can't get the community to support you when you suppress your supporters. In any factory in the land, if a worker has ideas, management has an open ear at all times.

You cannot close the door on your fellow citizens. It won't work, and you will be in trouble.

I've seen it happen, and the results of a closed-door policy can be disastrous. You step on the feet of your neighbors and someone is going to holler, loud and long!

If there are those who attend your Village meetings who are out-and-out trouble makers, the law will have to handle it. Even the National Guard can be asked to be on hand, if the trustees are being abused. But keep the doors and the floor open.

So I say to the Woodridge community, as I would say to any friend about to take a journey, "God speed and the best of luck."

Looking at your troubles from another angle, nothing has been solved by hiding. The man who meets his problems face-to-face usually finds that the problems disappear. The man and wife who frankly discuss their troubles, real or fancied, usually have few difficulties. That is the pattern of life and applies even to Woodridge.

Have a lot of apples and don't know what to do with them? Make apple slices and freeze them for your next get-together. They're inexpensive and go far.

These are different and quite popular with most people. The crust is easy to roll and handle. I hope you enjoy them. They've always been a favorite with my family.

FRENCH APPLE SLICES

Crust

- 2 c. flour
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 3/4 c. lard
- 1 tbl. lemon juice
- 6 tbl. cold water
- 2 egg yolks

Sift flour with salt, cut lard into flour until it is a course meal. Beat egg yolks, water and lemon juice and add to the dough. Roll half the dough--1/8" thick and place in a 6" by 12" pan.

Filling

- 8 cooking apples or 3 cans of apples
- 1/2 c. brown sugar
- 1/2 c. white sugar
- 1/2 tsp. nutmeg
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- 3/4 c. raisins (optional)
- 2 tbl. flour or cornstarch

Peel and slice apples. Combine sugar, salt, spices, flour and raisins. Toss to coat apples well. Place in crust lined pan; cover with remaining dough. Cut steam vents, bake one hour in a 350° oven. When cool, spread with confectioners icing.

Icing

- 1 c. confectioners sugar
- 1 tsp. liquid (milk, water or lemon juice)

A few drops vanilla

Add liquid slowly to sugar and blend well until thickness desired. Dribble on apple slices from a fork while apple slices are still hot.

Your New Teachers

If you walk into Room #107 any afternoon, you will find Mrs. Carol Moravec in charge of this second grade classroom at Woodridge school.

Mrs. Moravec is tall and attractive with short curly hair. She began her education for the teaching profession by attending the University of Miami at Coral Gables, Fla.. Later she attended North Central College in Naperville.

Although this is the first year at Woodridge for Mrs. Moravec, she is no stranger to the western suburbs. She previously taught the youngsters at Holmes Elementary in Clarendon Hills.

Besides her formal education, Mrs. Moravec has had some personal experience with four children of her own. They are: Carrie, 11, Michael, 10, Andy, 7, and Danny, 6. Her husband, Jack, is a plasterer with the Bob Johnson Co. of Elmhurst.

As you glance around the classroom you will notice a monthly chart of temperatures. The children suggested this and each day they match the previous

by Marion Coty
and Nan Davis

"Homecoming dance was absolutely beautiful," quoth Mary Ellen Dopp of 7822 Jonquil In. So. The gym was decorated in a medieval theme and Mary Ellen assures us that the music and the gowns were splendid. Congratulations to our own Edward Redmond who teaches at Downers Grove high school and was co-chairman of the council of teachers and students who planned and executed the details with such success.

A belated welcome into the world to Jonathan Edward Nadle who was born Aug. 31 at MacNeill hospital. The happy parents are Mr. and Mrs. David Nadle of 3035 Crabtree. The Nadle's have two other children, David, Jr. and Jane.

At this writing there is a lot of excitement in the Przybylski household at 7852 Butternut. Susan Przybylski, a member of the teens club, was a bridesmaid and her sister Donna was a flower girl at the wedding of their cousin, Sandra Olinski in Chicago.

Kenneth Tucker of 2940 Forest Glen entered Edwards hospital Oct. 3 when he sustained a leg injury on the football field. Your going to sound like an old pro now, Ken, when you refer to "my old football injury".

The recruiting office in Wheaton will lose a good man when Harry Goulding of 6 Willow ct. retired on Oct. 31. Master Sergeant Harry Goulding will become Mr. after 20 years with the U.S. Army. Harry will then work for the Equitable Life Ins. Co. out of the Owens Agency in Chicago.

It was a surprise to us, but we missed the surprise baby shower at the home of Karen Ketterer, 7836 Chestnut. Attending were: Gail Peto, Jackie Smith, Corlyn Chappel, Sheila Jarsonbeck, and Loretta Walton. The party was held last month in honor of Timothy Jones who weighed in at 8 lbs. at Hinsdale hospital on Sept. 28. Baby Timothy is the newborn son of Gardner and Corrine Jones of 7842 Chestnut. The proud parents have another son, Jerry, and a daughter, Jeanne. Gardner Jones is the fifth grade teacher at Woodridge school.

Fred and Dorothy Fritz of 7650 Deerfield welcomed a new baby girl, Mary Theresa at St. Anne's in Chicago on Sept. 15. She weighed 6 lbs. 3 ozs. There are two other children, Freddie and Dale.

Marie DiDonna held a surprise birthday party recently in her home at 7660 Walnut in honor of Emily Szczepaniak of 2819 Crabtree.

Congratulations to Gunther and Hilda Englander of 7649 Butternut ct. who welcomed the new baby girl, Corinne, at Edward hospital. Corinne weighed in at 7 lbs. 4 oz.

A group of friends and neighbors honored Mrs. Bette Smale, 7819 Deerfield at a baby shower on Fri., Sept. 27, at 7628 Catalpa ave. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Sue Aufmann and Mrs. Joan McGovern. Betty received many lovely gifts for the baby-to-be, and the guests enjoyed the lovely decorations and refreshments. To add to the festivities, the guests played charades.

Another shower on Catalpa ave. took place on Oct. 4 to honor newly arrived Sherry Lee Mullins, daughter of Evelyn and Bud Mullins. Mrs. Betty Fritz and Mrs. Peggy Bailey were hostesses at

The 15 year old Woodridge youth, shot twice while resisting arrest by Berwyn police in an early morning stolen car chase on Sept. 22, was ordered committed to the Illinois Youth Commission by Judge Alfred J. Cillela of the Cook County Family Court on Oct. 1.

The second order for commitment came as a result of a hearing on a writ served by Cook county officials after Judge William J. Guild of the County Court of Du Page county decreed that the boy should be sent to the IYC for rehabilitation following a hearing in DuPage county on Sept. 30.

Fire News

The fire department reported one inhalator call. Three tanks of oxygen were used to revive a Woodridge woman. Chief Henry Wilgus extends thanks to the police department for their assistance.

First aid classes are still being held at the fire barn on Tuesday evenings at 7:30 p.m.

The firemen are required to take refresher courses every two years in order to maintain their Red Cross cards qualifying them to administer first aid. The classes are specializing in inhalator treatment, but there is also instruction in the use of new medicines and techniques in administering first aid.

Boy Breaks Leg

"Arnouil was the best pass receiver of the freshman class," the coach was heard to remark as Danny Arnouil, 2935-75th st., Woodridge, was carried off the football field last Thursday.

Danny is wearing a cast on the left leg as a result of a broken bone suffered during scrimmage in preparation of the freshman game that Downers Grove high school won last Sat.

Arnouil is not alone in football fractures however. Other Woodridge boys have also suffered football injuries. Kenny Tucker is in the hospital with a blood clot in his leg. Randy Sarlo suffered a displaced shoulder some time ago.

---ABOUT OUR CHURCHES---

Methodist

Members of the Woodridge Methodist Church are making preparations in anticipation of the big Charter and Organization day to be held Oct. 20.

On that day there will be a sacrament of baptism administered at the regular 11 a.m. services at Goodrich school. At 3 p.m. there will be a worship service at the First Methodist Church, Maple ave. Downers Grove, and also an organization and charter service. A smorgasbord and social hour will climax the afternoon. More information on this day will be available next week.

Sat., Oct. 19, the youth group will begin their first project to earn money for their organization. Although it is only a small area clean-up job, it is a good start.

Mr. Siple was pleased to note that the vote on the purchase of the new church property was unanimous.

The Church is observing lay Sunday Oct. 13. James Blatchley will deliver the lay sermon and Alfred Schirmacher will be in charge of the Worship service.

Trinity Lutheran

The Lutheran Hour, worldwide radio ministry of Trinity Lutheran Church of 5839 rte. 53 and associated congregations, this month brings another year of bringing Christ to nations. On Sept. 22, it opened its 31st broadcasting season, Rev. Ehlers reports. It is heard here every Sun. at 12:30 p.m. over WMAQ.

The Lutheran Hour speaker is Dr. Oswald Hoffman, who recently returned from a life mission to U.S. Air Force bases in Japan, the Philippines and Hawaii.

The Lutheran Hour is produced by the Lutheran Layman's League, an affiliate of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod, also producers of TV's "This Is the Life."

The same spiritual blessings offered on these programs are offered each Sun. at Trinity Church in services at 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. and in Sun. school and Bible classes at 9:15 a.m.

No problem we face is as big as the one we dodge.

Prince Of Peace

The Prince of Peace Luther League will meet Sun., Oct. 13, 7 p.m. at the Lutheran parsonage, 2735-75th st., to work on a service project for the Salem Old People's Home in Joliet.

The Prince of Peace Lutheran church women units meet on Wed., Oct. 16, The Ruth Unit, 9:30 a.m., will be at the home of Mrs. Dorsie Young, 2926-76th st., Woodridge. The Mary Unit, 8 p.m., will be at Mrs. Marcia Eggen's, 7608 Catalpa, Woodridge.

Village Baptist

Rally Sunday was held on Sept. 29. Children were promoted to their new classes. Mr. Bruce from Aurora gave an illustrated talk on Creation. Later he played his English concertina, similar to an accordion, with Mrs. Bruce accompanying him. New classes have already started for children and adults. All are welcome to come.

Men have been busily redecorating the church on Saturdays. The outside still needs painting and the doors repairing. Anyone free on Saturdays during Oct., please contact Ralph Demmin.

The young people are having a Progressive Party Sat., Oct. 12. They will be going to five different homes for five different courses of a dinner.

William Gothard will speak for both services this Sunday. He is associate pastor of the Faith Methodist Church, Lisle, and is active in Campus Teams working with teenagers.

A CALL FOR CLOTHING

Underprivileged children, in a Chicago area, are in need of warm clothing for the coming winter.

If you have usable items for children size 10 and under, please call 964-2474 for pick-up

Business took me to New York last week where I was privileged to witness the SIGHTS AND SOUNDS OF THE WORLD SERIES IN NEW YORK CITY.

Commander Bob Elson, the radio voice of the White Sox, hurrying through the airport complete with sun glasses and turned up coat collar.

A sign in the window of a Chock-Full-O'Nuts restaurant, one of a chain owned by retired Dodger great Jackie Robinson, admonishing their favorites to "Go-Go Dodgers".

A small colored boy, bouncing and skipping crazily around pedestrians, and telling no one in particular, "Looka me, I Maury Wills!"

Early birds lined up at the bleacher windows of Yankee Stadium, faced with a 48-hour wait for tickets.

A tourist guide jokingly pointing out Yankee Stadium as the "home of the Chicago White Sox".

The New York papers virtually ignoring the impending series. Two papers with articles deep in their sports section, the New York Times with a small squib buried in the last section.

The dinner crowd at Jack Dempsey's restaurant eagerly scanning the face of each newcomer in hopes of recognizing a celebrity or ball player in town for the series.

A sign in the fly-specked window of a side-street hash-house, "World Series Special--deluxe kosher hot dog--20¢".

The strange apathy of most native New Yorkers, who yawningly decline any interest in whether the Yanks win or lose.

The blue and orange Polo Grounds, standing forlornly across the Harlem river from Yankee Stadium, in the shadow of Coogan's Bluff, never again to hear the roar of a baseball crowd.

Prominent sign displayed in every ticket agency in town, "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying and World Series--No Tickets."

Police News

"OVER HILL, OVER DALE"

An automobile parked on Everglade ave. rolled down hill, traveled over 500 ft and jumped a flagstone fence. On route the auto hit the back of a house, breaking a concrete stoop and springing a door off its hinges.

Several children who generally play in the sand-box were out of the yard at the time, and no injuries resulted from the mishap.

The Police Department has announced that the parents of children apprehended damaging property under construction will be liable for resulting damages.

A broken window was reported at Woodridge school, Sunday Oct. 6. The damage appears to be a hole made from an air rifle or a CO₂ gun.

Yankee Stadium proudly displaying red, white, and blue banners, and signs proclaiming, "World Series today - 1 p.m."

A cab driver turning down a fan who wanted transportation to the game. His mercenary outlook -- "Ya tink I'm gonna get mixed up in dat jam when my fare is on miles? 'Not me, bud!"

Two other fans disappearing into the bowels of the New York subway system, one insisting that this is the only way to "But we'll get lost!"

A Wednesday afternoon meeting, strangely deserted by comparison with attendance at the morning session, and the chairman biting complaining that those missing were unaware of the importance of the proceedings.

The moving news sign in Times Square gloomily flashing the news of an early 4-0 Dodger lead.

Many New Yorkers hurrying about their business with a transistor radio glued to their ears.

A colored porter, relaxing for a moment with his radio, gleefully telling a companion, "They's still our bums, boy, they's still our bums."

A throng of over 200 travellers crushed about a color TV set at the airport watching Sandy Koufax mow down the Bronx Bombers. Roars of approval when Harry Bright becomes the record-making 15th strikeout.

One disconsolate Yankee fan, slumping away and shaking his head in disbelief.
