

Appeals Board Hears B-4 Rezoning Request

The B-4 rezoning request to allow the construction and operation of a motor vehicle and equipment and sales lot was heard by the DuPage county zoning board of appeals last Thursday. About a dozen people from the Woodridge area attended the hearing, which was held at the Lisle Community high school.

The property being considered is 300' long and 200' deep, and is located on the south side of 75th st. about 300' east of Janes ave. It is presently zoned R-2, single family residence, under the county code. This land is a part of the 30 acres owned by Andrew Ocenas on the southeast corner of Janes ave. and 75th. Ocenas plans to lease the property to Steve Goldberg, 7537 Woodridge dr., Woodridge, for use as a used car lot.

Goldberg, in presenting his plans to the board, pointed out that at present there is virtually no business in the area, which forces the residents to go at least 5 miles to shop. He also emphasized that the property is located next to property presently zoned B-4 upon which a gasoline station is to be constructed. When asked about the type of building he planned, he answered that his present plan was to construct a small building which would house 1 or 2 vehicles. He said he hoped to begin the lot with a stock of about 20 cars. He added that state law requires that a string of lights be installed across the front of the property. He intends to operate the lot with people who are known to the Woodridge residents and added that he plans to make the property as appealing as possible.

After Goldberg's presentation, the

Lutheran Site Dedicated

Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, Lutheran Church in America, Woodridge, dedicated the land of its future church and erected a sign at a service on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 3, at the site on the north side of 75th st. between Larchwood ln. and Walnut ave. Pastor John E. Swanson preached the sermon, and the Junior and Senior choirs sang. The sign was designed and painted by Mr. Fred Vallarta, 2640 Forest Glen pky., Woodridge, who also created the symbol for the church. Erecting the sign during the service were: Walter Henk, chairman of the service; John Dacy, Delmer Lundstrom, and Larry Lundstrom. The ladies of the church served refreshments after the service at the Lutheran Parsonage, 2735-75 st.

Long Arm of the Law

Plan Completion of Woodridge, Goodrich Schools

Authorization has been given to Wight and Associates, architects, Downers Grove, to finalize plans for completion of both Woodridge and Goodrich elementary schools to accommodate anticipated increased enrollment of children. Expected development of Woodridge's Winston Hills, Woodridge Woods, Woodridge Highlands (Surety's unit 6), and the Country Club addition (Surety's unit 5) prompted the district 68 school board to unanimously approve the resolution proposed by Al Olsen, chairman of the building and grounds committee. Woodridge students will need 4 additional classrooms, a nurse's office, speech area and library. Completion of Goodrich school to a 20 classroom building with

Party Plenty Peppy

The Halloween party at Woodridge school Thursday afternoon was a delight to everyone and laughter rang through the halls as all the little people dressed in gay (or scary) costumes paraded in and out of the classrooms.

The many clever and ingenious costumes presented the judges with a tough decision. The winners were: Lana Hnat, Mrs. Michel's fourth grade, funniest; Kenny Collins, Mrs. Nesbitt's third grade, scariest; and Karen Smith, Miss Demos' third grade, prettiest.

Everyone won a Halloween decorated donut and an ice cream cup.

Headless Spook Treats Trickers

The Ham Radio Club was responsible for an unusual experience for several "trick or treaters" last Thursday.

Some of the casual youngsters who sauntered in front of 2635 Forest Glen, the Frank Campana home, were spooked by a talking dummy with his pumpkin head setting on his lap.

Son, Tom, talking of it later, commented that some of the youngsters even ran around the corn stalks, traced the wire from the intercom in the pumpkin head to the one in the darkened house. As always in interesting ventures like this, it's hard to determine who had more fun, the Radio Club--Chuck Groth, Ted Goetz, Willard Bredfield and Tom Campana--or the youngsters who had a chance to talk to a headless pumpkin.

library, principal's office, teacher's room and additional washroom facilities, as well as the completion of the all purpose room, is considered necessary.

Plans are to be completed and submitted for bids not later than Feb. 1, 1964. The bids will be opened at the regular March, 1964 school board meeting and construction on the schools is to begin April 1, 1964. The resolution states that both schools are to be completed on one contract with one general contractor. The board will establish priority dates for completion of particular work by the 1964 school opening date.

$75,000 FROM W-M TO GO TOWARD GOODRICH COSTS

In accordance with the agreement dated June 13, 1963, between Winston Park Estates and the district 68 school board, Winston Park Estates will donate $75,000 for construction purposes at Goodrich school (or for school facilities at the other two sites to be donated by W-M to the school district).

Village Board Approves Plats

At a special village board meeting Oct. 29, the board took action to approve Surety's unit 6 (Woodridge Highlands) and Winston-Muss Corporation's unit one.

With this approval on the Muss unit one, will come the issuance of building permits for the five models to be constructed in that unit. A permit has also been requested for a house to be used as a sales office. This permit will be withheld, however, until the Winston-Muss Corporation has arranged for water and sanitary facilities in accordance with village and county regulations.

There were two variations with village ordinances accepted with the engineering plans for W-M unit one. One pertains to the width of a right-of-way, which while conflicting with a village ordinance, conforms with state law, said Joshua Muss. The other variation involves the length of a jog in one road which was accepted since this jog was apparent in plans previously approved by the board.

A private meeting was held by the board with the parties involved to discuss details of the engineering plans which were later approved at the public meeting held at 9:30 of the same evening.

H.S. Board Reviews Financial Status

Voicing concern over the serious effect of the proposed slashes in the educational program at Downers Grove high school, the district 99 board of education Monday night took another close look at the critical financial situation.

Mentioned briefly was the possibility of submitting again the question of an increase in the educational tax rate. Defeat of a requested 21¢ hike last September is back of the present study on possible eliminations. Approval of the issue would have provided sufficient funds for next year's operation and continuance of the present basic program for the community's young people.

School officials noted that while voters had turned down the request for additional operating funds, the community might not have realized the alternatives.

And as one board member put it: "Within two years these slashes in the program would bring a loss in property values through a downgraded school system which would be more than the cost of maintaining the present program."

Under consideration are elimination of

"Turkey Trot" Dance Nov. 23

Tickets will go on sale Nov. 9 and 10 for the "Turkey Trot" social dance scheduled for Nov. 23. Sponsored by the St. Scholastica Men's Club, the dance will be held at the Laborer's Union Hall at Cass and Ogden at 8:30 p. m. The donation will be $1. Featured for the evening's dancing pleasure will be a 5-piece combo.

Room Mothers Selected

The room mothers for Woodridge school have been selected and an organization meeting held. Mrs. Shirley Manges was appointed chairman and Mrs. Tam Furnish, co-chairman.

Mothers assist the teachers on party days and on field trips and contact members of the class if the need arises. It was decided that the room mothers would work more closely with the Mother's Club with the chairman attending the Mother's Club board meetings.

Editorial

The people of Woodridge have been waiting over four years now for a shopping center, and it appears it will be some time yet before a shopping area in the village becomes a reality. For this reason it is tempting to allow any type of business to come into the area just to get the ball rolling.

The county zoning board of appeals heard a request by a Woodridge resident last Thursday to rezone an area outside of the proposed shopping center sites to allow the establishment of a used car lot. While we admire enterprising citizens who have enough ambition to go into business for themselves, we feel in this case the disadvantages (potential lower property values) far outweigh any advantages that might accrue by having this type of business in the proposed location.

In a residential subdivision such as Woodridge, we think it is desirable that business be confined in centralized areas designated for such purposes. If this rezoning is granted it will pave the way for businesses to spring up all along 75th st. 75th st. would soon look like some of the areas along Ogden ave. which certainly would not enhance the property values in this area.

In addition there is no guarantee that once this property is rezoned it would always be used as a used car lot. County B-4 zoning allows the development of many businesses such as live bait stores or poultry slaughtering houses which would be considered highly undesirable to have next to residential property. If the area is rezoned B-4 we would then have no way to prevent their establishment.

It should be remembered also that this property is outside of the village limits and therefore the village would not be able to control it nor would the village be able to tax the business property.

We would rather wait for shopping a little while longer knowing that when it comes, it will enhance the area and not detract from it.

For these reasons we urge the village board to act with the best interests of the community in mind and exercise the village's right to object to this rezoning.

Your New Teachers

Few persons, man or woman, can boast of as varied a background as has Mrs. Mary Nesbitt, a new third grade teacher at Woodridge School.

After graduation from the University of Dubuque in Iowa, Mrs. Nesbitt spent two years as a dietician in a Presbyterian Mission for Navajo Indians in Arizona. It was here that she first experienced the joys of working with children. This sense of fulfillment led her to a year of seminary study where she was to meet her husband and later go on to a position as youth director of a Norwood Park church.

When her husband went into social work, Mrs. Nesbitt decided to become a teacher. She taught two years in Penn school in Chicago, then a year in a Woodale school near Bensenville. It was from there that she came to Woodridge school because of its proximity to the Nesbitt's home in Clarendon Hills.

Mr. Nesbitt, who now works nights, uses his daytime hours to pursue his chosen career as a writer and, to care for their two-year old son, Donald, whose birthday is, coincidentally, on Halloween.

Three Afgan hounds complete the Nesbitt household. The Nesbitts are raising the dogs for show and breeding. It is in this capacity that they do considerable traveling around the country to dog shows. One of the dogs was selected as best puppy of its class at the recent Westminster Dog Show in New York.

TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

On behalf of the Woodridge Police Department, I wish to express our gratitude to the many public-spirited residents of our village that helped make the past Halloween a fun filled one and without acts of vandalism.

I would like to thank Madams: Narducci, Zuccaro, Raymond, Krask, Ortman, Timko, Kleven and Roberts for being chaperons at the teen dance and for baking many of the fine cakes that were served.

I would also like to thank Madams: Montello, Watson, Thuerk, Middleton, Chappel, Graham, Zabin, Furio, Thoresen, Arndt, and Szczepaniak for baking cakes that were served at the dance.

I would also like to thank Mrs. Woody for her time in baking a cake and making the witch that all of the children enjoyed watching burn. Also our thanks to Mrs. Hoffman for baking a cake and making the 400 popcorn balls that were given to the small children. To Mrs. Novello for selecting the gifts that were passed out as costume prizes.

Our thanks to the members of the Public Works Department and to Surety Builders for assembling the wood for the fire, to the members of the Woodridge V.F.W. Post that helped with the crowd control at the fire and for passing out the treats to the children and to the Woodridge Fire Department under the direction of Captain Wilgus for their supervision in the burning of the witch.

I would especially like to thank the children of the village for their help in keeping our village safe from acts of vandalism.

Very truly yours,
Joel A. Kagann
Chief of Police

H.S. Board

all extra-curricular activities including competitive sports, services of the counseling staff, increase in class sizes and reduction of staff and not opening the new high school now under construction.

School board members underscored their reaction that such steps would have a disastrous effect on the instructional program. With larger class sizes and a restricted program (or a 20% cut in salaries of all high school personnel previously listed as an all-inclusive alternate), there would be a mass exodus of teachers, it was pointed out.

Such a situation would have a deteriorating effect on the instructional program and the training offered the community's young people.

Board members reviewed a seven-page administrative report covering the implications of adopting or rejecting the budget reductions for the 1964-65 academic year. Of particular concern was the question of increasing class sizes and its impact on the total educational program.

No decision was reached or contemplated at the discussion session. But it appeared obvious that the cut-backs would be approved only with "greatest reluctance" and if there were no alternative to such a step.

Car Lot

board opened the floor for public discussion. Speaking in favor of the proposal, Woodridge trustee Ed Redmond said he was for the proposal because he thought it would stimulate business. He said he and some of the board members had known about Goldberg's proposal for about six months. These other board members, he added, did not take any strong stand either for or against the proposal. He said that to his knowledge the board had not taken any official position in this matter. When asked if he thought this proposal, if approved, would adversely affect property values in the area, he answered that he didn't think it would be harmful, but that he thought a car lot might look better if other businesses came first. One other village resident spoke in favor of the rezoning.

Tom Church, chairman of the Woodridge plan commission, spoke against the rezoning proposal. He said he was speaking for the plan commission and Mayor Roberts of Woodridge. He objected on the ground that Goldberg did not own the land and if he were to give up the lease, the property could be used for any of the uses provided under B-4 zoning, such as a tavern. He also pointed out that at present the village has 2 other areas already zoned for business purposes with restrictive covenants to prohibit undesirable businesses. He added that the plan commission is opposed and will issue a written objection to the rezoning.

Five other area residents voiced objections to the proposal. The DuPage zoning board is scheduled to rule on the application when it meets on the last Thursday of November. The village board has 30 days from the date of the hearing to file an objection if it desires to do so.

VFW

The Woodridge VFW enjoyed an evening of Polynesian entertainment complete with Muu Muu's, leis, and poi at a luau held for members and their guests, Sat. Nov. 2. The party was held at the home of George Vanik, a member of the group, whose recreation room is decorated in a South Seas motif which added a realistic touch to the party.

First Class

John Tucker, 1., prepares to give the scout handshake to Joe Shroka after receiving his first class pin at the Court of Honor held Oct. 26. John was the only boy in troop 109 to attain the first class rank.

Scout News

Cub Scout pack #14 of Woodridge met on Nov. 26, at Woodridge gym. A brilliant display of homemade costumes was shown as the Cub Scouts began the evening with a costume parade. Prizes were awarded to one Cubber from each den for neatness and construction of costume. The main event of the evening was the induction of new Cub Scouts, as Bobcats and the Webeles graduation into Boy Scouts. New Cub Scouts received Bobcat pins, achievement books, neckerchiefs and slides at the induction.

Two transfers into the Pack were Charles Pogue and Mark Rudningen.

The ceremony was impressive with Indian regalia and campfire. The attendance award was presented to Den 1 and the Hener award to Den 5.

The Cub Scouts will tour Downers Grove Telephone Co. on Nov. 12, 14 and 15. They will be selling Christmas seal packs.

The committee meeting will be on Nov. 17, at 7:30, at 2807 Forest Glen pkwy. Den mothers are welcome. A den mother's meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Schwindy on Nov. 5, at 8 p.m. The theme for November is The World of Sound.

Remember to fly your flag Veteran's day, Nov. 11, which is a national holiday.

The Woodridge Boy Scouts are still selling flags and if you missed the sale last summer and want one, call Scoutmaster Jim Provo who states that there are 5 or 6 left. When those are gone they will order for you. The order takes about two weeks.

The flag, which is 4' x 5' cotton with an aluminum pole topped by a gold knob, sells for $4.50.

Brownies Invested

Brownie troops #157 and #107 held their investiture service on Oct. 29 in the Woodridge school. These troops are under the leadership of Mrs. Clarence Oakes and Mrs. McNeill. Brownies from troop #107 are: Elizabeth Burnetter, Debby Klemm, Cathy Liggett; troop #157 are: Kathy Dubs, Deborah Fisher, Deborah Nivin, Deborah Bailey, Frances DiDonna, Janet Volpe, Karen Watson, Shelly Miller, Susan Cellately, Barbara Jeffrey, Kathy Kline, Christine Mayers, Pauline Kolody, Ronna Thomas, Janice Barkauski, and Patty Bell.

Bridget Kinser of troop #701 also received her wings at this ceremony.

After the service troop #701 taught the brownies new girl scout songs which they enjoyed immensely.

On Oct. 31, Mrs. Oakes had a Halloween party for her troop #157. After their treats the girls made candy apples and put different faces on them.

This Lasagne recipe is an authentic Italian recipe which has been handed down in my family for many generations. We call it Stuffed Lasagne and, as you will notice, is considerably different than the American version most people prepare today.

ITALIAN LASAGNE

1 lb. Lasagne noodles
3 hard cooked eggs
Mozzarella cheese (grated or sliced)
1 cup grated Parmesan cheese
1 lb. Ricotta cheese
Tomato Meat Sauce
Meatballs

Prepare Tomato Sauce.

1/4 c. olive oil
1 medium onion
1 clove garlic

Saute onion and garlic until soft, remove and add:

1/2 lb. beef (chuck or round steak)
1/2 lb. pork shoulder
1/2 lb. veal or lamb

Put meat in a bowl, add 1 egg, salt and pepper, 1 tablespoon Parmesan cheese, sprig of parsley, half cup of bread crumbs. Blend, roll into tiny meatballs, size of a large marble or cook meat loosely.

Add slowly:

1 No. 2 1/2 can Tomatoes or
Tomato Puree

2 cans of Tomato Paste
1 tbs. salt

1 bay leaf or 2 basil leaves (fresh)

Simmer over very low heat about 3 hours, adding water when sauce thickens.

When sauce is partially done ---

Heat to boiling in a large pan:

8 qts. water
1/4 cv. salt
1 tbs. olive oil

Add 1 lb. lasagne noodles, cook uncovered about 12 minutes. Noodles should be firm, not tender. Drain, add a pat of butter to noodles, so that they don't stick.

Grease an 8 x 8 x 2 inch baking dish. Pour about 1 cut of tomato sauce into baking dish, lay noodles, add your meatballs (or loose meat), 1 chopped egg, Mozzarella cheese, grated Parmesan cheese (handful), about 1 cup of Ricotta cheese, salt and pepper, another layer of tomato sauce, noodles, cheeses, egg, meat, etc., repeat 3 layers. Top with Mozzarella cheese and sauce. Bake 350° F about 40 minutes, or until bubbling.

If you want top soft, cover with foil; if hard crust top preferred, leave uncovered. Serve hot. Cut into 2" squares and serve with remaining sauce.

My grandmother made her own dough (or noodles) and measured the length of the noodles by the width of the mouth. Because making lasagne was such a long and involved process, it was served only on special holidays such as Christmas.

Attends Conference

Chief Joel Kagann attended The Illinois Municipal League 50th Annual Convention in Springfield (Ill.) on Oct. 21, a day set aside for police magistrates and other interested officials.

Chief Salen, former chief of Denver (Colo.) and present head of the Northwestern Traffic Institute, spoke on what non-police officials should know about the operation of their police departments, and a panel discussion was held comparing Illinois traffic laws to traffic laws of the nation.

One of the interesting highlights according to Kagann was a statement by a speaker from the National Safety Committee who said that police departments should under no circumstances give more than a 10% leeway on speeding violations. Thus, going 44 mph in a 40 mph zone would result in a ticket for violation of the speed law.

---ABOUT OUR CHURCHES---

Methodist

The Woodridge Methodist church would like to thank the people of Woodridge for the nice reception they gave the Methodist Youth Fellowship youngsters when they went trick or treating recently for the Lake Bluff children's home. Although this is a Methodist sponsored home, it is for orphaned children of all denominations.

The Official Board will meet Thurs., Nov. 7, at 8 p.m. at the parsonage.

Choir rehearsal will be Nov. 14 at 8 p.m. at the Trondsons, 2932-76th st. Anyone high school age and up who is interested in singing will be welcome. For additional information you may call Mrs. Richard Trondsen, Wo 8-2128.

St. Scholastica

The St. Scholastica teen club had a grand time at their Halloween dance last Friday.

Officers of the club were announced during the evening. President is Susie Przybylski and Tony Narducci is vice-president. The secretary is Lillian Maceli and the treasurer is Bill Barkowski. The teens danced to records from 8-10:30 and then enjoyed refreshments.

Village Baptist

A primary church was started Nov. 3 for the first through third grades during the church service at 11 on Sundays. Mrs. Lois Deminin will be in charge. Mr. and Mrs. Berson and Larry Sarlo will be working with her.

The Women's Missionary circle will be meeting on Tues., Nov. 12, at Anne Rico's house, 2819 Forest Glen pkwy. Christine Giraldo, a missionary to Peru, will be speaking and showing slides on the missionary work with the natives. All are welcome.

Prince Of Peace

Mr. Harold Anderson of the stewardship commission of the Lutheran Church in America will be conducting a visitor's training school at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, Woodridge, on Sunday, Nov. 10, 3 p.m. in preparation for the annual stewardship visitation program. Anderson visits all new mission congregations of the LCA throughout the mid-west helping young churches develop a program of Stewardship Education and Christian Giving.

Four special cottage meetings to discuss the stewardship program of the church will be held during this coming week. On Wed., Nov. 13, 8 p.m., Mr. and Mrs. Ingmar Eggen, 7608 Catalpa, Woodridge, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Waller, will host one meeting, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Miller, 7530 Walnut, Woodridge, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Church, will host the other. On Thurs., Nov. 14, 8 p.m., additional meetings will be at Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Carter's, 5700 Elm, Lisle, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Heggeland, and another at Mr. and Mrs. William Bocek's, 2565 Forest Glen, Woodridge, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nyberg.

Local GOP Backs Percy

A group of DuPage county Republicans, headed by Ragnar Benson, noted Chicago-land builder, have formed a DuPage county "Percy for Governor" committee.

William Woody and Gene O'Connell have attended Saturday luncheon committee meetings in Addison. Chairman of the committee is Ragnar Benson; co-chairman is Michael Linz, Naperville precinct committeeman and Lisle twp. clerk; treasurer is Gene O'Connell. O'Connell is the Woodridge Republican precinct committeeman for Lisle 18.

Thomas Church, also of Woodridge, is supporting the "Percy for Governor" campaign.

With the current rash of intelligence quotient and awareness quotient tests in circulation, I thought you might like to find out what your B.Q. is - that's baseball quotient. The following questions are without reference to any record books, so they shouldn't be tough for the average baseball fan.

1. How many times have Chicago teams won world championships?
2. In what park do the San Francisco Giants play?
3. What pitcher holds the record for batters struck out in a single season?
4. Who was known as the "clown prince" of baseball?
5. From what city did the Minnesota Twins move?
6. What ex-Cub pitcher wrote the book, "The Long Season"?
7. What is the official scorer's symbol for a strikeout?
8. Who holds the major league record for RBI's in a single season?
9. What is the record for runs scored in one game by one team?
10. What was the name of the midget sent to bat for the St. Louis Browns by Bill Veeck?
11. What is the locale of the poem, "Casey at the Bat"?
12. What Yankee pitcher came within one out of a no-hitter in the '47 series?
13. What are the colors of the Kansas City Athletics' uniforms?
14. Who pitched a first game shutout for the Sox in the '59 series?
15. Who won the Cy Young award in 1963?
16. What pitcher suffered a broken toe in all-star competition?
17. What team won the only AL pennant playoff in history?
18. Who was the last Cub to win a NL batting title?
19. With what major league team did Babe Ruth begin his baseball career?
20. Where will the N. Y. Mets play ball in 1964?
21. Who was the last major leaguer to hit .400 or better in a single season?
22. How many players are allowed on a winter roster?
23. What pitcher once pitched two no-hitters in succession?
24. What player was known as "the Big Train"?
25. Who holds the record for total bases in a single game?
