

Surety Plat Recording Legality Questioned

By Nancy Wehrman

The village board, without Mayor William Roberts and Trustee Marvin Wiggins, who were absent, refused to approve the disputed plat for Surety's Unit #6 at last Thursday's village board meeting. The board, with Trustee Ed Redmond as pro-tem chairman, felt it could not act on the plat until the question of the plat's legality had been cleared up. The dispute arose from action taken by Surety Builders to have plans for Unit #6, Woodridge Highlands, recorded with the county before they had been approved by the board.

The original plat which had been approved by the board contained land that was not part of the village. When this error was discovered, Surety submitted petitions to annex the necessary property to complete the plat. Since the annexation had not been made Surety submitted the same plat to the county to be recorded by cutting out the area not in the village, but retaining the signatures of the boards members and village officials. No member of the board or planning commission was approached for approval of this action.

A question of the legality of Surety's action in the matter arose. The board felt that they could neither approve nor disapprove the plat until the legal issue was investigated by attorney James McClure. McClure stated that he would require a few days before an opinion could be rendered on the matter.

Jack Siegal, attorney for Surety, said no legal opinion would be required if the board would annex the property involved that night and revert to the original plat. The plat Surety submitted to the county would then be erased from the record. In turn, Mr. Albert Kaufman had in his possession certain deeds and titles he would turn over to the village.

Both Trustees Dave Callahan and Jim Kinsler were emphatic in their refusal to act without legal advice and thereby jeopardize the interests of the people of Woodridge. They also agreed that the board would act on the plat approval early in the following week as soon as McClure rendered his opinion. In regard to the proposed annexation, the trustees stated that it will be treated as a separate matter and acted upon only after McClure had sufficient time to thoroughly examine the annexation agreements given him last Monday.

Pro-tem chairman Redmond stated that if Surety Builders had any property

The Lighter Side

Male Dogs Win Hassle

A dispute similar in content as the age old which came first, the chicken or the egg question was launched by the board at Thursday night's meeting. The problem arose in the setting of dog license fees for 1964. Previously the fees have been $3 for a male, $3 for a spayed female and $5 for an unspayed female. Certain members of the board were dubious as to which was more at fault for dogs running loose in the village, the unspayed female or the males who chase her. After much discussion, the male dog was apparently cleared of blame and, in fact, repaid for past injustice by his rate being reduced to $2, which the fee for the unspayed female remained at $5. In spite of the board's unanimous agreement on the new fees, they failed to pass a motion to have attorney James McClure change the ordinance to agree with the new fees. It appears some trustees had last minute doubts about alienating the unspayed female population of the village.

they wished to donate or turn over to the village, the board would be glad to accept it. Redmond said that he and other village officials and trustees had no intention of continuing to accept gifts of public land tied up with annexation agreements on conditions set forth by Surety. He asserted that former agreements between Surety and the village had put unpleasant pressures both on the board and on the builders. Redmond went further to say he did not "feel that Surety was operating within the framework expected of a developer."

Since a stalemate was reached, settlement on the issue was postponed until Monday night at 8 p.m. when the board would reconvene to act on the matter and complete other business before the board.

Friday evening Clerk Faye Hoffman stated that due to Surety's action on the plat for Unit #6, she felt the clerk's office could not longer deal in good faith with Surety Builders. She added that any requests for documents or information of any sort would be handled in the future through the board.

Other Action

The village has authorized the Dept. of Public Works to purchase ten stop signs to be placed at dangerous corners in the village. The amount for the signs and posts was estimated at $120.

Also approved was the designation of a no parking area on the north side of Crabtree from Deerfield through the cul de sac during school hours.

It was announced by Mr. Trask, Commissioner of Public Works, that it is no longer necessary to acquire permits for trucks weighing under ten tons loaded. However, trucks with tandem or dual axels such as cement trucks, etc. will require a permit.

Council Has 1st Meet.

A preliminary meeting of the Woodridge Intra-fraternal Council on Jan. 15 was attended by delegates representing approximately 14 organizations in an endeavor to strengthen cooperation among local groups.

One of the main purposes of the Council will be to handle a calendar so that any group can check possible dates for recreational, social or fund-raising activities against dates already scheduled by other groups. Although not compulsory, the availability of such a calendar could be helpful in preventing an overlap of dates and help in assuring better support for each function.

A copy of the minutes of the first meeting will be sent to all organizations in the village, together with a request for full cooperation. Joseph Vymetal will act as temporary chairman and Mrs. Olga Barkauski as temporary secretary of the Council through the next meeting which will be held Feb. 19 at 7:30 p.m. in the village hall.

Boosters Club Resumes Meetings

The Trojan Boosters Quarter Back Club resumed meeting on Wed., Jan. 15. Films of frosh-soph and varsity games played a couple nights before the club meets will be shown. Following is a schedule of coming meetings:

Wed., Jan. 22 and 29.

Wed., Feb. 5, Tues., Feb. 11, Wed., Feb. 19 and 26.

All adult basketball fans are cordially invited. There is no charge and free refreshments are always served. Meetings begin at 7:30 in the D. G. high school cafeteria.

WAA To Sponsor Basketball, Ping Pong

The first meeting of the WAA for 1964, held at 8 p.m. on Jan. 14, 1964, at the village hall, revealed an active and heavy schedule of events for the coming months. The most immediate activity is the boys basketball program already under way. This provides supervised basketball for boys from the 7th grade through high school on Monday evenings at the Woodridge school gym. Seventh and eighth graders may participate from 7:30 - 8:30 p.m. and high school students from 8:30 - 9:30 p.m. Plans are being made to try and extend the total time periods to 1 1/2 hours for each group. Any boy in these age groups may participate.

There is a nominal fee of 25¢ to cover the costs of renting the gym and all boys on the floor must wear tennis shoes or sneakers. It is also requested that the no smoking rule of the school be strictly adhered to and all aspects of courtesy and good sportsmanship be observed. Time periods for age groups must also be observed. There is a good possibility that this group could develop into one or more Woodridge teams for league competition in our area.

Further immediate activities are the up-coming ping pong tournaments in February and election of WAA officers Feb. 11.

The annual St. Pat's dance will be held on March 14. Specific details of all activities will be provided well in advance by door to door notices. In this way, the WAA hopes to enlighten the villagers on the program of the association, and interest all members in adding their support and help to your WAA. Anyone who purchased a Booster decal is automatically a member, and decals are readily available through the officers of the WAA.

Late Breaking News

Action Taken On Plat No.6

At Monday's adjourned village meeting, after two closed-door sessions with Surety Builders, the board annexed the part of the Highlands, unit #6, which had previously been approved and platted but had not been in the village limits. An attempt was made to record the original plat #6 but the county could not accept it as submitted because of the unannexed area. Surety then recorded plat #6 but first removed the area in question. This action resulted in the board directing attorney James McClure to prepare an opinion on the legality of the recording. On the advice of McClure the board is not acknowledging this recording by Surety and will ask that it be vacated in the office of the county recorder of deeds.

Efforts are to be made by both the village and Surety to insure that the new plat #6 recording will in no way be clouded by the previous recording.

Plan Commission Stalemate Resolved

At Monday's meeting the board accepted the resignations from the Woodridge plan commission of Rev. John Swanson, Nick Lung and Wayne Bryant.

President William Roberts and the board, long unable to agree on appointments then concurred in the following appointments: Richard Roman, Rev. Jack Siple, Robert Waters and Charles Cronin.

Kennel Decision Delayed

The decree in the Kennel vs. the village trustees civil suit expected Jan. 20 was postponed again. No date has been set for the issuance of the decree.

Tea For Percy

A reception and tea will be held for Charles H. "Chuck" Percy, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor of Illinois, on Thurs., Jan. 23, from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Hinsdale Community House, Madison and 8th sts., Hinsdale, Ill.

Those interested in attending may call Mrs. Louise Church, 964-1493, or Mrs. Gerry Woody, Wo 8-6540.

Arndt Elected Association Head

Edward Arndt

Edward Arndt was elected president of the Woodridge Police Association at their regular meeting on Jan. 6. Arndt was treasurer of the Association last year and is accepting the position of president in addition to his other duties as Commanding Officer of the Detective Division and Administrative Assistant to the Chief.

Other officers elected at the meeting are: First Vice-President, John Loomis; Second Vice-President, Gerald Timko; Secretary, Frances Furio; Treasurer, Alma Thoresen; Sgt. at Arms, Keith Porter.

One of the main purposes of the Police Association is to purchase equipment and uniforms for the Woodridge Police Department and their primary goal at this time is to investigate various types of fund raising activities to get the Association out of a $150. debt.

Kagann Cautions Drivers

"Many skids could be prevented. Motorists have the ability of keeping their autos from going into a skid," Joel A. Kagann, chief of police, advised Woodridge drivers.

Careful driving can prevent the danger of losing control of a car or any other vehicle on winter's ice and snow or wet pavements.

Kagann suggested that drivers heed the advice of the Ill. Division of Traffic Safety by avoiding situations that might throw their cars into skids.

A turn that is too abrupt on a slippery road -- slippery either from snow, ice, or dampness -- will send an auto into a skid or spin.

When drivers start on a pavement they are not sure of, they should first test the pavement while driving at a low speed to determine how slippery the street is and, therefore, adjust their driving accordingly.

"When approaching an intersection, drivers should pump their brakes thus avoiding a sudden jamming that might throw their auto into a skid.

"When the rear end of a car starts to slide or skid, the driver should turn the front wheels in the direction of the skid to bring the car back under control," Kagann continued.

He said the best way to avoid skids, which can be dangerous to the driver or to innocent pedestrians or passengers, is by driving carefully and using proper equipment to reduce skidding to a minimum.

The VFW Story

Part One By Jerry Woody

New members are being sought for Woodridge Post #4739 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Commander Joseph Yymetal would like to take this opportunity to familiarize village citizens with the objectives of the national and local posts and also with requirements for membership.

From its inception in the village in 1961, the path of progress followed by the local V. F. W. Post has not been an easy one as so often occurs with newly formed organizations.

Now, after three years the strong working membership of 28 men feels that the path has turned into a straight road, directed to follow the goals of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States which are promotion of Americanism through education and constructive service to the community; assistance to dependents, widows and orphans of disabled and needy veterans; assistance in rehabilitation of disabled and needy veterans and insurance of national security through maximum military strength.

Three overseas organizations had been organized at the end of the Spanish-American War in 1899 without knowledge of each other and in 1914 they merged to be known as the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States.

Veterans returning from the Spanish-American War, the Philippine Insurrection, the China Relief Expedition and even World War I returned home to find no adequate hospitalization, pensions or compensation available. Through much hard work by the V. F. W. and other groups, legislation was enacted to insure proper benefits, and by World War II, the B. I. Bill of Rights was passed to anticipate the needs of returning servicemen. The same groups that labored so diligently to obtain rights for servicemen continue to work to retain such rights as college, on-the-job training, G.I. Loans for homes and business purposes.

On a more personal level, the V. F. W. maintains a home for children of deceased or totally disabled veterans at Eaton Rapid, Mich. The V. F. W. National Home endeavors to give each child resident a normal, healthy family environment, and family groups of boys and girls live in the more than 30 dwellings under the guidance of "house mothers". Widows and mothers may also accompany their children to the National Home as residents.

Support for this Home is derived mainly from three sources - 1¢ from each Buddy Poppy made and sold by disabled and hospitalized veterans, life membership in the Home, and sale of National Home Christmas Seals.

Still other activities engaged in by members include programs for rehabilitation of veterans, programs to combat Communism and strengthen democracy, sponsorship of youth groups, including summer camps for underprivileged children, and an active membership in the Military Order of the Cootie - the "fun" degree of the V. F. W. which directs its energies to entertainment of veterans in the V. A. hospitals and helps support the National Home.

All work done by the V. F. W. is closely aligned with the Ladies Auxiliary which is made up of mothers, wives, widows, sisters and daughters of men who are eligible to join the V. F. W. The Auxiliary is very active in promoting community services, youth and patriotic programs in addition to their main purpose of aiding disabled and needy veterans and widows and orphans of veterans.

Village Tax Monies To Be Late

At the regular village board meeting of Jan. 16, the monthly treasurer's report presented by Steve Goldberg contained in part an ominous letter from the county in regard to distribution of 1963 personal property and real estate taxes. The county stated that they did not know when in 1964 the taxes for 1963 can be billed, and collected, but were almost certain that the monies would be received much later than in 1963. Changes in the county system of taxation and other red tape were blamed for the delay.

As treasurer Goldberg stated "In a word, this means no money in June." This could represent a severe financial setback to the village until the funds are collected and dispersed.

Lisle Savings Reports Asset Gain

Lisle Savings and Loan Association today reported an increase in total assets to $4,117,956 as of Dec. 31, 1963.

Chester S. Renn, President of Lisle Savings and Loan, said that this figure represents a 29% increase over total assets reported one year ago, and he attributed the institution's growth to continued economic prosperity in the local community.

According to the institution's 1963 Annual Report, net savings gains recorded during the past year total $577,952. Increasing total savings to an all-time high of $3,278,315.

Lisle Savings and Loan also paid a record total dividend to savers of $112,233. during 1963, based on a regular dividend rate of 4 1/4%.

Total mortgage lending volume at Lisle Savings increased to $3,395,436. in 1963 which is approximately 20% above the volume recorded in the previous year.

Renn commented that the strong savings inflow and substantially increased home lending volume at the institution was indicative of the consistently growing demand for savings and loan services in this community and elsewhere in the nation.

"The savings and loan system provides the most efficient employment of real savings toward the investment in long-term real estate lending, particularly in the area of private single-family homes," he said, "we feel that savings and loan institutions have now achieved a critically important place in our total economy and that their influence will continue to expand in the foreseeable future."

The Lisle Savings executive predicted a further increase in housing and home financing activities during 1964.

A couple of pretty young actresses, who "hope to go to Hollywood some day - but after college", provided some lively entertainment for 3rd-grade children of Woodridge school Jan. 15.

Not content with idle dreaming, Kathy Bonk and her friend Lori Slater decided to get a bit of first-hand experience by writing, producing, directing and acting in their own variety show. The girls, both 5th-graders, planned their acts outside of school hours, but gave a sneak preview for school principal Lad Vransy. Vransy cut the show's running time by an act or two, then gave his permission for the third grades to view the finished performance in the school's music room.

Larry McDonough, a classmate of the girls, served as an announcer for the show which included an "ol' soft shoe" routine with canes, an Indian rain song and two clown acts done in pantomime. For a finale the girls sang a rousing version of "America the Beautiful."

"We had 64 children in the audience," said Kathy proudly, "and they really applauded - especially the clown acts. We'd like to do another show as soon as we can."

Just in case their plans for a theatrical future go awry, Kathy and Lori say they will settle for a career as "Olympic ice skating champions."

We don't know whether or not the girls are saving their press clippings, but if so, they may consider this their first "rave notice!"

My name is Brunswick 28. Despite my given name, most persons call me by my family name; I am one of the great family of balls, the bowling branch to be specific. I am usually black, always round, and made of hard rubber. I have two eyes and a nose which look to the uninitiated like holes. My station in life is to lie in a drafty rack at the Mike Ditka Bowling Lanes and await the favor of a temporary user.

Some of my brothers and sisters have permanent owners and homes in snug, warm bags; such is not my lot, however. Some cruel fate long ago decided to cast me in the role of an "alley" ball, and so I shall probably remain. Those of my family who are owned are usually used once a week, and are normally used correctly. Occasionally, if they have been very, very good, they may even get a cleaning. I, however, am forced to lie in perpetual boredom and dust awaiting what usually turns out poorly. Actually, it is the great indignities to which I am subjected when in use that makes me so bitter. I could stomach the dirt, and cold, and lonesomeness, if only at the end of the road there awaited fulfillment.

When we were born, all of us were meticulously trained. We first underwent extensive training to teach us to accept strange fingers stuck in our eyes. Then we underwent anti-dizzy drills which brought us to a state of combat readiness. Finally, we were brainwashed - unmercifully. We were taught to dislike, to despise, to intensively hate bowling pins. Bowling pins became to us like a monogoose is to a rattlesnake, or like a Cub fan is to a Sox fan, or like Superman is to Captain Marvel - arch, natural enemies. Our only mission in life, from the time we learned to roll, was to knock down bowling pins.

Lying here on the rack, however, it seems that all is lost. One cannot predict what rank amateur will stick his dirty thumb in your nose, or sprinkle chalk in your eyes. One cannot tell, after being chosen by some vile child because you were the closest, whether or not you will ever, ever again be used for the goal for which you were created.

Take last Saturday, for instance. I was lying there in the rack, hoping that someone would at least turn me over to prevent rack-sores. Many of my brothers and sisters and cousins were happily, gleefully knocking the stuffings out of those hated bowling pins. It was along about mid-afternoon when a big mob of kids came in. (Ed. note - the Junior MYF group from the Woodridge Methodist church) They came over and poked and prodded and pushed but, luckily, I thought, none of them chose me. Then, the men who were with the kids came over. One of them, with cold, clammy hands, grabbed me and said, "This one's as good as any when you haven't bowled in two years!" Horror of horrors! Two years! Better to be melted down for auto tires than this! When faced with the choice between a 10 year old child who had never bowled and a bumbling adult who doesn't think any more of bowling than to bowl every two years - well, there just is no choice.

But there I was, plopped roughly down on the return ball rack, to await my first encounter with the enemy in some weeks. Universal 137, a big sixteen-pounder whom I had never before met was on one side of me, and Brunswick 45, a small, bluish nine-pounder was on the other side. My rubber heart pounded furiously as I awaited the first contact. Unfortunately, I wasn't the first to go. I watched in awe as one of the men (Ed. note - Herb Gulbrandson) threw one of my second cousins in a beautiful roundhouse hook that scattered the pins in all directions. Such beautiful music. Another man (Ed. note - Jim Mershimer) took the Universal 137 next to me and sent it singing down the alley for another clean sweep. Things were looking up. But then, ominously, my baby-blue friend was, believe it or not, dropped on the approach! I could almost see her blush.

Cub Scouts

Cub Scouts of Woodridge pack #104 will have their monthly pack meeting on Jan. 28, at 7:30 p.m. at Woodridge gym. Boys must be accompanied by a parent. There will be induction and badges awarded. The theme for January is The Family Alert Plan. A combined committee and den mother's meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Blecher on Jan. 16. Plans were discussed and made for the Annual Blue and Gold Dinner to be held in February.

Steam that blows a whistle never turns a wheel. --Anon.

Then it was my turn. I was almost sick with apprehension. Several of my cousins waved me on my way, and wished "Good hunting!" I was held firmly in a sweaty grasp, aimed, rather carelessly I thought, and we were on our way! I hit the alley with a thud, and it took a few moments for me to get my bearings. When things were finally brought in focus, I knew that it had happened - the worst possible catastrophe. I strained and spun and grunted, but could not alter course and landed unceremoniously in the gutter less than halfway down the alley. As I went shooting by the pins they snootily thumbed their noses. As I got back to the rack, I desperately tried to hide my face, but, alas, the barbarian found me again. He was mumbling something about not being able to slide. I could feel all eyes on me as we went through the approach routine again. I wished and wished as I had never wished before as I started down the alley. This time, I had not the energy to try to avert the inevitable - as I dropped into the gutter again, completely unnerved, I did the only possible thing - I fainted!

It is several days later as I write this. It can be told because I will never again belong to the Bowling branch. My transfer has gone through, and I am to spend the rest of my days as several handballs. (Ed. note - The author found another ball, and went on to finish two lines with scores of 123 and 179.)

---ABOUT OUR CHURCHES---

Lutherans Hear Campus Pastor

At a congregational dinner of the Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, LCA, Woodridge, Thursday evening, Jan. 16, in the Fellowship Hall of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church, Naperville, the Rev. Dudley V. Riggle of Carthage College in Kenosha, Wisconsin, challenged the 105 member congregation to "Arise and Build" a living witness in the Woodridge area.

Serving as toastmaster for the evening, Earle H. Brown, Sr., of Lisle, General Chairman, presented the goals and led the congregation in group singing. The Rev. John E. Swanson, pastor of Prince of Peace, delivered the invocation. Greetings were brought by the Rev. Herbert B. Carlmark, pastor of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church. The Proposal Chairman, Bernard Carter, presented the group with a graphic picture of what the future of the Church could be like if the members gave a willing response to the Building Fund effort.

The visiting teams were introduced by Walter Henk who serves as Organizational Chairman. Mrs. Peg Miller, Chief Hostess, thanked the members of her committee and expressed appreciation for the cooperation of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church. Dinner arrangements were under the direction of Mrs. Marcia Eggen.

A Venture Goal of $17,000. was set by Prince of Peace Lutheran Church Council for its building fund program. Through its congregational self-study completed two weeks ago the "must" goal was $11,000. and the Advance Goal, $14,000. During the advance visits phase of the program over $6,000. in commitments were received as of Wed., Jan 15. The congregation was visited on Sun., Jan. 16.

The program is under the direction of Alfred Klimesz of Wildwood, New Jersey, and the Lutheran Laymen's Movement for Stewardship of the Lutheran Church in America.

NOTICE

Mrs. Earl Hartman will accept calls for contributions to the Goodwill Industries. She may be contacted at 969-5658.

Prince Of Peace

At the annual meeting of the Prince of Peace Luther League, Sun., Jan. 12, new officers were elected. The new president is Judy Redfield; vice president, Linda Nyberg; and secretary-treasurer, Phyllis Nyberg. Plans are being made for a full schedule of activities and programs.

Sun., Jan. 26, is Youth Sunday, and the young men of the Church will participate in the Worship Service at 9:30 a.m. at the Woodridge school. The liturgist will be Alan Carter. Reading the lessons will be Kenneth Burns, Mike Hartfield, and Tom Roberts. James Ziemab will acolyte. Ushers are John Carter, head usher, Ronald Cunningham, Tom Goulding, and Dirk Salisbury.

Sun., Jan. 26, the annual congregation meeting will be held at the Lutheran parsonage, 2735-75th St. at 3 p.m.

"Coffee and ..." will be served after the Worship Service Sun., Jan. 26, by the Ruth Unit of the Prince of Peace Lutheran Church Women.

Methodist

Members of the WSCS held a surprise baby shower for Mrs. Flo Benckendorf last Friday evening. They presented her with a play pen and numerous smaller items for the new baby.

The sermon for Sun., Jan. 26, will be "When I Have Time". On this Sunday, there will be five people received into church membership and five Baptisms. There will be a coffee hour immediately following the morning worship service.

The Board of Missions will meet on Jan. 23. Sunday school teachers and the Commission on Education will meet on Jan. 29.

If anyone is interested in a Bible class, please call Rev. Siple, Wo 8-4868.

St. Scholastica

On Tuesday, Jan. 28 at 8 p.m. the St. Scholastica Womans Society will hold their meeting in the St. Scholastica School, Crabtree and Janes Road.

The program for the evening will be a cosmetic demonstration presented by the Merle Norman Studios.

Village Baptist

Mrs. Rico's young people's class enjoyed a scavenger hunt and party at her home last Saturday. Mr. Wally Akers and his wife and Rev. Roop and his wife also enjoyed the evening with the young people.

The Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Darrel Brame last week, and Mrs. Keta Collins led in devotions. Mrs. Carolyn Wiggins gave the missionary report, while Mrs. Roop was the main speaker of the evening. The ladies presented Mrs. Roop with a gift certificate book. Mrs. Rico, the new president outlined the program for the new year. The next meeting will be on Feb. 11.

Sermon topics for Jan 26:

11 a.m. - "The Beginning of Tithing" from Gen. 28.

7 p.m. - "Does it pay to serve God in our modern world?"

The Youth Choir will practice at 10 a.m. each week on Saturday at the church under the direction of Mrs. Phillips.

Annual Church Business meeting, Wed., Jan. 29, at 7:30 p.m. All reports of last year's work must be in for this meeting.

Tattle Tales

By Marian Cotey

Happy Birthday wishes to Danny and Sean O'Connor, 7632 Willow, who combined birthdays and celebrated on Jan. 19, along with 16 of their friends and neighbors. Danny was 5 on Jan. 3 and Sean will be 3 on the 26th.

The last meeting of the Neighborhood Pinochle Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hurst.

An exclusive for the W.N.R. - I thought, as I listened to the serious voice of a man who was calling to give me a birth announcement for Tattle Tales. I became very excited and listened more intently when he told me there were five in all - 3 males and 2 females. I asked if there was any difficulty in choosing names and he replied they were just being numbered 1 through 5 for the present. During our conversation I congratulated the man on being a very proud father - at which he responded he was not the father but had assisted in the delivery. Being a soundbeliever and somewhat over anxious, my thoughts immediately told me I must be talking to an Obstetrician who very soon would become famous as well as Woodridge. Well, to make a long story short - quintuplets were born on Dec. 31. The proud parents are Mr. Bauregard Le Chaviler Noir and Jollie La Belle Noir, French Poodles belonging to Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander, 2613 75th st. You can imagine my surprise yet disappointment that I didn't have an exclusive, but who knows with the growing possibilities of multiple births today. The W.N.R. may someday yet attain that glory. Good luck - Mr. and Mrs. Woodridge-ite, whomever you may be.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Krafchak, 2933 Forest Glen, are the proud parents of a baby boy born on Dec. 29 at Edward Hospital.

Condolences to the "Bud" Graham family, 7824 Deerfield, whose 16 month old son died Jan. 13.

Lori Slater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Slater, 2736 Forest Glen Pkwy., celebrated her 11th birthday Jan. 18 with a theater party for three of her friends - Kathy Bonk, Gail Kennell and Cathy Lincoln. After seeing a matinee at the Tivoli in Downers Grove, the four girls enjoyed cake and games at the Slater home.

Welcome to new Woodridge residents, Richard L and Judith Schmidt, Richard and Gladys Stage, Ross R and Mary Ann Lange and Charles Purcell.

Dixieland Concert Sunday

Lance Schultz, band director at Downers Grove high school, will be the featured clarinetist in a Dixieland Concert to be held at Willowbrook high school on Sunday afternoon on Jan. 26 from 2:00 to 5:30 p.m.

The Willowbrook high school Boosters club is presenting the Steamboat Stompers, who are well known in the western suburbs, having had a long run at the Suburbanite Bowl and at the Red Arrow.

Another well known Stomper is Don English, the famed red-headed drummer who graduated from York high school in 1961 and who played the Wagon Wheel Lodge at Rockton, Illinois, for six months after graduation. After a year and a half of traveling to Labrador, Newfoundland, and the eastern states, Don is now playing with Lance Schultz at the "Plugged Nickel" in Old Town.

Admission to "Jazz on a Sunday Afternoon" is $1.00.

IT'S ELEMENTARY

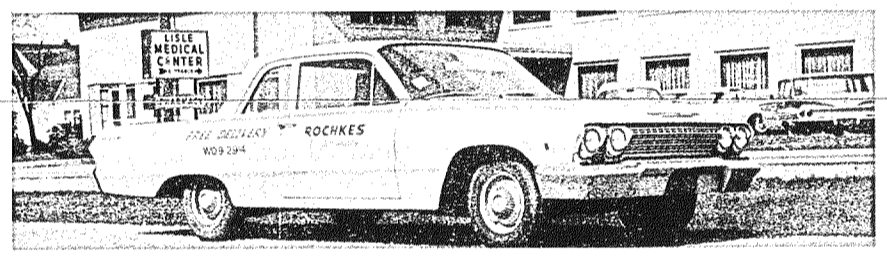

by Mary Jane Clark

It's for the birds! Our newest science club project, that is. We're giving our fine feathered friends a chance to set up housekeeping in some of the bird houses we're building. True, it was a little hard at first for some of the girls to wield a hammer, but of course they learned.

It was a pretty close game Thurs., Jan. 9, between Maercker and Woodridge. The score was 37-36, Maercker's favor, but, golly gee whiz! One more basket by us would have clinched it for sure! Don't worry though, we'll get in our share of victories yet!

Mrs. Michel's fourth grade is making progressive designs in paper. They're also doing something extremely interesting: they're writing to a penpal in Massachusetts, Acton, to be exact. Mrs. Miley's first grade is making a word house. The kids are also trying their hands at making pictures, such as cats, out of geometric paper forms.

Guess that about wraps it up. Be seeing you!
