Muss Annexation Agreement Contested—

Summons to appear in DuPage County Circuit Court were served Feb. 12 to the village of Woodridge, Winston Park Estates, Ltd. and to the president and six trustees on a complaint for declaratory judgment by plaintiffs Charles Corcoran, Ronald Rich, James Wokas and George Hartfield, all residents of Woodridge.

The plaintiffs contend that the annexation agreement between the village and Winston Park Estates is "null and void from its inception by reason of the fact that it was made in reliance upon the constitutionality of Sec. 1, Div. 15.1 of Article II of the Illinois Municipal Code which plaintiffs contend is unconstitutional as it is."

When contacted by the WNR, Kenneth Brundage, 7849 Deerfield, Woodridge, council of the plaintiffs of the Law firm, Brundage & Garr, said that the complaints had been filed to question the constitutionality of the enabling statute that purports to allow a village to accept money or land from a builder in return for granting certain privileges regarding zoning, building and housing.

He stated that there were 2 main reasons for filing the complaint in regard to the annexation agreement which was the basis of the recent annexation of Winston Hills to the village. He stated that the plaintiffs felt that the agreement gave the builder concessions by stabilizing zoning ordinances, building permit fees, building restrictions, etc., for 5 years, binding trustees who will come into office later. In effect, he said, this places the builder on the village board and gives him veto power over these specific areas, therefore lessening the effectiveness of the present board.

In regard to the suit, Mayor Roberts commented: "Someone may have good

H.S. Referendum Fails Second Time

Approved In Woodridge 159 To 121

The district 99 Downers Grove high school board of education's second request for a 21¢ increase in the educational fund tax rate went down in defeat last Saturday for the second time. Although voters at Woodridge school polling place supported the referendum by 159 "yes" votes to 121 "no" votes, the total 7,405 district citizens who showed up at the polls defeated the requested tax rate increase by a margin of 398 votes. "Yes" voters cast 3,495 votes, but were overcome by the 3,893 "no" voters. There were 17 spoiled ballots.

The district will now face the problems inherent in lack of funds necessary for providing what board officials consider an adequate, well-balanced high school educational program. Possible roads to cutting corners previously outlined by the board will need to be put into action. Money from the tax increase was needed to provide teachers salaries, to maintain a high curriculum standard, to continue extracurricular activities and to meet other current bills.

Deficit financing, which is ultimately more expensive to the taxpayer, will undoubtedly be a necessity. Another possible result of the referendum's defeat is that funds will not allow the opening of the new high school and will thus require half-day sessions at the present building.

The defeat will bring another attempt to get voter approval for the needed funds, board officials said.

Board Discusses Civic Center

Tentative plans for a Woodridge civic center were presented to the public by the board of trustees at their adjourned meeting Feb. 12. Trustees Marvin Wiggins, Ed Redmond, Jim Kinser and Walter Hansen opened the floor to an audience of about ten interested citizens for questions and comments regarding the plans. Mayor Roberts and Trustee Werch were absent.

Chairman pro-tem Wiggins explained by means of a chart the probable costs of purchasing land and constructing the center. He stressed the fact that "plans are still nebulous and the figures presented are not to be construed as definite." The board intends to put the question of a bond issue to pay for the center to the voters at a referendum tentatively scheduled for April 4.

Wiggins reported that the location favored by the board is Lot 21, about 2-1/2 acres on the west side of Woodridge dr. between 75th st. and Forest Glen pkwy., which would be purchased from the Surety Development Corp. for $16,000, including improvements. An option on this property has been promised to the village, but does not yet contain a full set of intentions in questioning the constitutionality of the enabling act, but for a final and complete decision the suit would have to be carried through the Illinois State Supreme Court and would bankrupt the village of Woodridge. It would not serve a useful purpose insofar as the village of Woodridge is concerned. The only ones who will gain from this are lawyers."

Justly Proud

Justly proud as they well might be for their efforts on Woodridge's Telephone Directory, Mary Jane Clark whose cover was accepted holds the phone while Betty Balogh who also designed a cover helps hold the directory.

Curtain Time

The Woodridge Mothers Club is again asking the people of Woodridge to help them by saving their pepsi-cola caps and they may either bring them to the regular meeting or contact President Dorothy Provo, WO 9-0810.

The school T-shirts, headscarfs and pennants are always available. Prices range from 50¢ for pennants to $2.25 for the large size sweatshirts. These items are in the school colors and bear the Wildcat emblem. Orders may be placed by contacting Helga Scudder, WO 8-5887 or Grace Kennell, 969-5535.

WAA Elects New Trustees

At their regular monthly meeting Feb. 11, the Woodridge Athletic Association elected Arlyle Roberts, Al Raymond, and William Woody to fill the three vacancies on the Board of Trustees.

Retiring trustees are Phil Zuccaro and Jack Moxley whose terms expired this year. Arlyle Roberts, incumbent trustee, was reelected. The three other trustees whose terms will not expire until next year are Jens Jantzen, John Narducci and Dick McDonough. McDonough was appointed to fill the vacancy created by Ned Hill's recent resignation and he will fill the office until the term expires next February.

President Virgil McPherson, Secretary Bernice Jantzen and Treasurer, Robert Dreveny will hold these offices until next February as the posts are all 2 year terms.

It was announced that the ping pong tournament has been extended through Feb. 29. Players can still get into the competition up to that date if they can find time to make up their games.

The play-offs will be March 7 and 8 from 2 to 4 p.m. The proposed location will be the Woodridge school gym. This location will be verified later.

The 1964 baseball schedule will be announced in the WAA Ad Book which will be out soon. Watch for it.

St. Scholastica Groundbreaking Sun.

The Right Reverend Monsignor Romeo Blanchette, Vicar General of the Diocese of Joliet, will officiate at groundbreaking ceremonies for the new St. Scholastica School and temporary church on Sun., Feb. 23 at 2:30 p.m. at the Parish site. Ceremonies will be brief and all parishoners and villagers are cordially invited to attend. Construction is scheduled to begin as soon as the weather permits work to progress on a regular basis. A very successful bidding was received the latter part of January and contracts have now been signed with the contractors.

Editorial

At one time the filing of a law suit against the village would have rated a banner headline across the top of our front page. But times change, and the events of the past year have somewhat dulled our reactions to such actions. In the latest suit, filed last week, the plaintiffs are questioning the constitutionality of the law which enabled Woodridge to make an annexation agreement with Winston-Muss last September.

This is the agreement that was overwhelmingly approved at the polls by the people of Woodridge.

At this time Woodridge can ill-afford the cost of being used as a testing ground for laws passed by the Illinois legislature. Anyone familiar with the present state of the village finances will verify this.

The attorney for the plaintiffs, in a statement to the WNR, expressed concern that the annexation agreement made with Winston-Muss lessened the effectiveness of the present village board. If the plaintiffs are so concerned about the effectiveness of the board, why are they attempting to negate the most effective action the present board has taken since the election?

We fail to see what Woodridge can gain by this suit; but we can see what it can lose. Woodridge can lose a 12-1/2 acre park, $25,000 which is designated for a village hall or library, tax money which would have to be used for legal fees and about 500 acres of land now in the corporate village limits.

We urge the plaintiffs, who are all Woodridge residents, to drop the suit and save the village much time, expense and further loss of reputation.

IT'S ELEMENTARY

By Susan Poslusny

Goodrich

The Goodrich Panthers shed a tiny tear as they realized that they have (at last) broken their record. But the tear dries quickly, as we have won our first game! The game was against Bomberek and we won 17-12. Actually it was a little ridiculous that we only beat them by 5 points as most of their team was made up of fourth and fifth graders. But at least they didn't beat us.

With that game behind us we looked on toward the future game with our beloved ol' sister school. And it wasn't a very bright outlook, because we had lost our captain, Tom Rietz. The outstanding player has been knocked down a peg or two because of low marks. But life must go on and so must we.

We had our second Candy Day Sale last week hoping it would be as much of a success as was the first one. So give the Mother's Club the old "rah, rah", because the money goes into the eighth grade funds.

Also, I would like to thank the Woodridge kids for coming to our games and cheering us on. It really helped.

So to repay you the eighth grade went to your game with Center Cass. Funny coincidence, you won that game!

Architect Lambert Soucek presented his preliminary sketches for a two-story, $140,000 building which would include an auditorium, offices for village officials, police department offices, a recreation area and a 5-bay garage for fire department equipment. Members of the board have discussed with trustees of the Lisle fire protection district the possibility of renting the fire equipment space to the district for $30 per month per bay, thus recovering for the village some of the cost of building this space.

In addition to the costs of land and building, the board estimates about $100,000 additional expense for housing of the public works equipment, relocation of the ball field, construction of roadways, landscaping, furnishings, architect's fees and legal fees, bringing the total proposal to approximately $250,000.

Under a 17 year bond retirement program, and using the $25,000 Winston-Muss contribution to reduce payments during the first few years, the board estimates a tax increase for the average homeowner of approximately 29¢ per month in 1965, 47¢ in 1966, leveling off at 56¢ in 1970 and thereafter decreasing with the growth in assessed evaluation of the village.

Jaycee Chapter To Be Formed Here

The possibility of organizing a Jaycee (Jr. Chamber of Commerce) Chapter in Woodridge will be aired at an open meeting which has been scheduled by the West Suburban and Naperville Jaycees at the home of John Kujawa, 2837 Jonquil Lane, at 8 p. m., Wed., Feb. 26.

According to the West Suburban Jaycee members, the meeting was set at the request of many village young men who have expressed an interest in forming a Jaycee unit here.

Charles Bueche, extension chairman of the Naperville chapter, has reported that many young men, already contacted, will be present for the meeting.

At the briefing meeting, the combined Jaycees will explain various phases of their own operation, community and membership benefits resulting from Jaycee operations, and chapter and membership requirements.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce is a civic service organization whose membership is open to all young men between the ages of 21 through 35. Jaycees are independently organized - not affiliated with any other service or community group - for the purpose of providing leadership training for their members and for bettering their community.

Jaycee chapters are located in 4,900 communities in the United States and have a total membership of over 220,000. Internationally, Jaycee chapters exist in over 99 countries and territories.

For further information, contact John Kujawa, 969-0462, and come to the meeting on Wed., Feb. 26.

Obituary?

Willard's Hardware, in their second move to a planned aggressive program, lost three games to Woodridge Homes last Friday night. Said a spokesman for Willard's, "It was a streak of phenomenal luck for Woodridge Homes." However, it seems only fair to point out that Woodridge Homes is the second place team in the Woodridge Men's league at Willowbrook Bowling Lanes.

S.S. Womens Society To Hears Lecture

The S.S.W.S. will meet on Tues., Feb. 25, at 8 p. m. in the school, Crabtree and Janes Rd.

A movie and lecture on indecent literature will be presented by Paul Ellwanger, President, DuPage Citizens for Decent Literature. This is a non-sectarian organization whose main purpose is to create interest in the people who in turn will write letters to public officials to see if anything could be done to influence publishers.

This movie and lecture is available to any organization and is for adults only. Anyone interested may contact Mr. Ellwanger in Villa Park, 279-4710.

WAA Plans Women's Volleyball

The WAA has undertaken a tentative program of activities for the fair sex of Woodridge.

The first step is to determine the extent of interest in Womens volley ball. The WAA would like any teenage girls or adult women interested in playing organized volley ball to contact Hester Thuerk at WO 8-7181.

There already exists a group of ladies who have formed a team. They have indicated that they would be willing to work with a group and thus would provide help and supervision.

The WAA feels that there is a lot of interest in such activities by the girls and women. We should be able to start something equal to the new basketball program. Lets try to get this information gathered in time for presentation to the WAA Board of Trustees at their next meeting on March 10.

If the response indicates a strong interest, special efforts will be made to start before next month.

Candlelight Bowling

For all who have signed up for the Candlelight Bowling on Feb. 29 at the Mike Ditka's Willowbrook Bowling Lanes, please pick up and pay for your tickets on or before Feb. 26 from Phil Zuccaro, 3031 Jonquil Lane. Also pre-select your bowling partners as there will be five couples to each pair of lanes. At that time, you will be assigned alleys to avoid confusion at the bowling alley. We will be starting at 9:30 p. m. sharp, so make arrangements to be in the banquet hall of the bowling alleys at 8:30 p. m. We will have 60 couples (120 people) on the entire 24 alleys.

Police News

Harold Kellogg, 599 Ogden in Lisle was arrested by Woodridge Police on Jan. 29 at 8:15 p. m. by Officers Renna and Porter for driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor and improper passing. The case is set for Feb. 27 in Wheaton. Also arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol was Albert W. Kemp, 218 Main in Lemont, who was also charged with speeding and improper passing when arrested on Jan. 29 at 11:40 p. m. This case is also set for Feb. 27 in Wheaton.

Other police activity in the month of February includes a barricade broken in front of Surety model homes; a call for an escort to the hospital; a lost license plate; an accident report on Feb. 12 entailing property damage between 2 cars handled for the County at 75th st., and Maplecrest Lake C. C.; a missing car; boys throwing snowballs at cars; a dog bite; children playing in a vacant house; forgery on a resident wherein he complained that a check received by a certain company had not been issued by him although his name appeared thereon; a fire call and 2 calls to the Lisle Fire Alarm Office which activated the siren system although there was no reported fire in Woodridge. Police during this period also checked into 2 cat and 5 dog complaints, assisted a resident who was locked out of her home; checked a report of water running in a home under construction; picked up a Rex Jet wagon found on the street; checked a suspicious person complaint and 2 complaints of persons ringing doorbells and disappearing before the door was answered; directed traffic until the area was cleared and fire trucks had left when the village snow truck caught on fire on the 12th and investigated 3 vandalism complaints, 2 of which were to vacant houses.

Tattle Tales

By Marian Cotey

Well, St. Valentine's day is over for another year and the husbands and fathers of our favorite village are pulling out their hair again. Either they spent their extra money they were saving for golf clubs and fishing rods on mom or the kids valentines or they came home empty handed. In either case they just don't seem to appreciate those "show your love and affection" days as the ladies do! Cheer up, Fellas, it is still five weeks till Easter and eleven weeks till Mothers Day!

Coffee and cake were served at the home of Betty Lancaster of 7824 Catalpa when the neighborhood ladies attended a Stanley demonstration there last Thurs. After the mops and brooms and detergents were out of the way, the gals sat down to chat about the finer things in life (and in the Stanley book) namely lipsticks, creams and perfumed bath oils.

Congratulations to John and Virginia Schweiger, Jr. of 3030 Jonquil Lane on the birth of Lora Ann on Jan. 29. The new addition weighed in at McNeil Memorial at 7 lbs even. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Mearns of Hesperia, Calif. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Schweiger of Willow Springs. The Schweigers have two other children, Michael 7-1/2 and Lynn, 3.

Mary Gerard Reinhart entered this troubled world at Elmhurst hospital on Jan. 31, weighing 4 lbs. 12 ozs. Richard and Marilyn Reinhart, her parents, informed her that she has two sisters and a brother at home which is 7619 Walnut. Waiting to welcome her are Peggy, Denise, and Richard Jr. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cavanaugh of Woodside, N. Y.

Happy Birthday to 1 yr. old Georgie Beaver of 7827 Woodridge on Feb. 26. There will be a party at home on March 1.

Courtesy Contagious

Courteous driving can have only one effect - safe driving, Joel A. Kagann, Chief of Police in Woodridge, said today. "A courteous driver is conscious of traffic rules and practices them in his daily driving to make him a safe driver", Kagann observed. Courtesy on this highway, if practiced by drivers, can be contagious and will involve all drivers eventually. When a person is behind the wheel of his auto, he must become accustomed to conveying each expression of courtesy with his auto that he would at a social gathering, he said. "When approaching an intersection, grant the right-of-way to the person on your right. If someone appears to be taking advantage of you, let him proceed first. Above all, hold your temper and remain polite."

Kagann also suggested that drivers be courteous to pedestrians and always allow them the right-of-way and particularly in crosswalks.

Plan Commission Set Meeting Night

The first official meeting of the new plan commission met Feb. 13. They announced that the regular meetings of the commission will be held on the second Thursday of the month at 8 p. m. at the village hall.

Tom Church was reelected chairman and Charles Cronin, Secretary. Robert Waters is in charge of park development, Charles Cronin, area development, and John Siple Ordinance review.

Prince Of Peace

Dr. Hagen Staack is again over the NBC-TV Network in a series of Bible lectures during February, March, and April. The program, FRONTIERS OF FAITH, is produced jointly by the National Council of Churches' Broadcasting and Film Commission and the Public Affairs Department of NBC.

Dr. Staack is lecturing on "Living Personalities of the Old Testament." Photographs, maps, reproductions of famous paintings and statues accompany his lectures. Dr. Staack will speak on "Ruth, The Foreigner" next Sunday, Feb. 23 at 12:30 p.m. on Channel 5.

Modern Protestantism has "largely neglected" the Old Testament, according to Dr. Staack. "It is time to take the book off the shelf, undust it, bring it alive, and show that it is really relevant to our day," he said commenting on his series.

Originally trained in Germany as a geologist, Dr. Staack teaches a graduate course in geology at Temple University in Philadelphia, in addition to his duties as professor and head of the religion department at Muhlenberg College in Pennsylvania.

St. Scholastica

Each Wednesday evening at 7:45, Bible Devotions and Benedictions are held at the Convent Chapel as part of the Lenten program. On Sunday evenings at 8 p.m. in the lower classroom talks are given on Christian Living. Parishoners are urged to avail themselves of these opportunities for renewal during this penitential season.

The women of the Parish will receive Holy Communion together at the 8 a.m. Mass on Sun. Feb. 23. The next regular meeting of the Women's Society will be on Tues., Feb. 25 at 8 p.m. in the lower classroom.

Important changes in the Liturgy of the Church became effective last Sunday. While not wide-sweeping, they are still of importance and will enable great participation in the Mass and the Sacraments by the laity. Commissions have been set up in the Diocese for Sacred Music, Sacred Art, and Sacred Liturgy. As details are worked out further changes will be introduced.

Trinity Lutheran

Trinity Lutheran Church, Highway #53 just south of Lisle, announces Wednesday evening Lenten services beginning on Ash Wednesday Feb. 12 at 7:30 p.m. These services which are designed to teach the meaning of Christ's suffering and death, will be held each Wednesday evening through March 18. Pastor Ehlers will deliver a series of sermons on the Lords Prayer, taking one petition each week. Lenten hymns will be sung and the passion history will be read. These services will last about 45 minutes. Following each service, Pastor Ehlers will lead a group discussion on the basic teachings of Christianity and the Lutheran Church. Those wishing to remain for these discussions may do so, they are not a part of the service. For more information call WO 9-6210.
