

WAA Hoopsters At Warrenville Tonight

The W. A. A. sponsored high school age basketball team will meet the Warrenville team Feb. 27 at 9:30 p.m. at the Warrenville Community Center. Plans will be announced for a possible rematch at Woodridge School with either Warrenville or St. Joans.

Treasurer Voted $50 Salary

Village treasurer, Steve Goldberg was voted a salary of $50. per month effective Feb. 1. Trustees James Kinser, David Callahan, Marvin Wiggins, Walter Hansen and Ed Redmond voted for the salary over the objections of Trustee Leon Werch, chairman of the finance committee, and Mayor William Roberts. Mayor Roberts said he thought there were many others who had put in more time and should at least be considered at the same time as Goldberg.

Trustee Werch questioned whether there was money which could be released from other budgets for paying Goldberg.

The general concensus of opinion, of the five favoring the $50 salary for Goldberg, was that they were through with "package deals", that nothing was being accomplished because everything depended on everything else. Trustee Kinser said they had talked to other appointed officials and were considering the building Commissioner and inspectors for salaries, but were waiting for completion of the "inspection program."

I-FC Hears Addison Council Head

The 2nd meeting of the Woodridge Inter-fraternal Council was highlighted by the appearance of Don Spencer, president of the Addison Area Community Council who spoke on the growing need for councils in suburban areas. According to Spencer, these councils stand in readiness to give assistance in local matters too large or complex to be handled by any one organization in the village. The next meeting of the Woodridge Inter-fraternal Council, to which all organizations are invited to send representatives, will be held at the village hall on March 18 at 8 p.m. at which time preliminary by-laws will be presented for discussion.

Village Clerk Faye Hoffman advised that the village had been contacted with regard to establishing a program for distribution of trivalent oral polio vaccine. She indicated that it was felt that the Council could take over the correlation of various aspects of the program and introduced Mrs. Hummer of the Du Page County Health Dept. who explained the need for volunteers to enable Woodridge to participate in the program sponsored by the DU Page County Medical Society.

Fr. John Kloepfer has offered the use of St. Scholastica School as the distribution point, the Woodridge Woman's Club has agreed to handle registration, Chief

What Happen?

Thru Wind And Rain...

Through rain and hail and snow and sleet, The U. S. Mail . . . can't be beat.

Unless it gets lost as did last Thursday's W. N. R. The whereabouts of the entire mailing of the Feb. 20 issue is as yet undetermined. Although, the post office is attempting to trace it. Last reports have it headed for Chicago.

There was only one course of action open, and that was to order another press run and hand-deliver it. H.S. Board Considers Future Course

The Downers Grove District 99 board of education held a special meeting last Thursday to hear the public on what course would be the best for the future of the district. The concensus was one of compromise, partial cut-backs and some deficit financing. Nothing definite has been decided.

School Superintendent Glenn Pickrell, who was attending the annual American Association of School Administrators conference at Atlantic City, N. J., was unavailable for comment.

399 votes defeated the board's second request for 21¢ per $100. Woodridge was one of the four precincts favoring the increase with a vote of 159-121.

Scout Cookie Sale Begins Feb. 29

One of the harbingers of spring in Du Page County is our Girl Scout Cookie Sale. This year almost 9,000 Junior, Cadette, and Senior Girl Scouts, in their pert green uniforms, will begin ringing neighborhood doorbells on February 29.

From the enthusiastic young Junior Girl Scout in her first adventure into salesmanship through the earnest Senior Scout who has derived many benefits from the efforts of former cookie sales, these girls will be carrying their share of the responsibilities for helping to make camping possible for every Girl Scout in the county.

Community support of their untiring efforts often means the difference between an opportunity realized and one missed. In most Cadette, Junior, and Senior troops in the county, at least part of the money for a camping trip is being raised through cookie sales. Each troop receives a portion of the cookie money to enable its girls to participate in a camp experience. Cookie sales not only provide some of the financing needed but help teach the girls the acceptance of the responsibility to work for and earn the added pleasures that camping offers.

Nancy O'Connell, Mrs. Gerry Woody and Nick Lung.

Because of the WNR being lost by the post office with the resultant financial loss to the WNR, the postmaster gave special permission to use the mailboxes for the delivery. Ordinarily, postal regulations prohibit the use of the boxes except for mail.

(Ed. Note) Although we were swamped with phone calls concerning the whereabouts of the WNR last week, the interest and concern shown by those who called is very much appreciated.

Sewer Connections Discussed By Board

"The homeowner will pay either way" was the opinion expressed by Trustee Marvin Wiggins. Wiggins was reporting on his trip to Wheaton to discuss the drain tile connections with the county engineers. Attorney James McClure accompanied him.

If, said Wiggins, there are drain tiles connected to the sanitary sewers, the individual homeowner will be responsible for making the corrections. If the corrections aren't made, we'll pay for it in higher rates, he explained.

Wiggins said further that it would require a lot of digging or a lot of money to correct such a situation.

Wayne Bryant, Supt. of the Woodridge Sewer and Water Co., told the WNR that tests are going to be made this spring to determine where the overage (at the sewer plant across Rt. 53) is coming from. At the present time, he said, there is no overage to speak of because the ground is frozen. He added that tests might show that one of the main sewer drains is leaking.

He felt it was a little premature for anyone to be concerned until the tests are made and the cause of the overage is determined.

WAA Dance Tickets On Sale Mar. 7

Don't forget! March 14 is the date - 8:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. the time - and Naperville Country Club, 2 miles West of Rt. 53 on Maple Ave. the place - The event, of course, the 4th annual St. Patrick's Day dance sponsored by the Woodridge Athletic Association. Music for the evening will be provided by the Johnny Monti Orchestra, well known to many villagers from their appearances at Mike Ditka's Willowbrook Lanes, and will be complimented by a half hour of comedy routine.

Tickets at $1 per person go on sale March 7 and 8 with proceeds going into the operating fund of the W. A. A.

At the direction of the village board, the engineering firm of George White and Associates is to act as consultant on a special project for the village. This project is to include review and inspection of the building code (BOCA) and the building and zoning ordinances.

James Kinser, chairman of the building and zoning committee said the board would like to halt violations but that they feel they need the advice of an engineer to do this. When asked for specifics by Trustee Leon Werch, Kinser gave as an example 8" floor joices with studs on 24" centers. Kinser said he felt the board should have an engineer's interpretation of whether this conforms to BOCA. Trustee Wiggins said that if some of the items being considered conform to the BOCA code than BOCA would have to be re-written.

Other Board Action

The board has directed a letter to the county commissioner of roads regarding the condition of James ave.

The Woodridge Plan Commission was directed to consider an alternate site for a village hall. Lot 21 at 75th place and Woodridge drv. is the location that has been under consideration.

TAX BITE OR MOXQUITO BITES

The county is presently considering a mosquito abatement program. If present plans continue, the issue will be presented to the voters on the April 14 ballot. John Clarke of the Clarke Outdoor Spraying Co. spoke at the Feb. 19 village meeting offering a program to the village that he estimates to be considerably less costly than the levy being considered by the county, .25¢ per $1000 assessed valuation. He outlined Woodridge's mosquito problem commenting that the majority of the problem comes from southwesterly winds from Will County. Laughter dissolved the discussion later when it was pointed out that, ideally for Woodridge, Will County should put through a county-wide mosquito abatement program.

The mosquito problem rated discussion that time of the year not only because of the proposed county program but because this type of expenditure should be reflected in the annual appropriation ordinance due in April.

TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

It is interesting to note that the law-suits, chaotic village board meetings and other equally ridiculous harassments that have pervaded the Village of Woodridge in recent months have been instigated and/or conducted by an invidious group of people whose actions do not, in my opinion, coincide with actions expected from citizens loyal to the community.

I often have wondered, and perhaps others have done the same, if it only appears that the members of this group are not residing in Woodridge by choice, and consequently, have loyalty ties that would not allow them to conduct themselves in a manner that would cause their fellow man to state, "they are truly responsible citizens of our community."

If it is true that the group's loyalty belongs to some external group, I can understand the past events. If their interests and loyalty is with the community and it's citizenry - I cannot.

It seems to me that it is time for the people of Woodridge who really call Woodridge their home to find out if they have a "cancer" or not.

I believe that since there are symptoms that might logically lead one to believe an illness exists, it would be best to seek a "cure".

Attention Athletes!

Attention men who are athletically inclined or sports minded or just plain tired of sitting around the house watching TV. St. Scholastica's Mens Club is planning a terrific sports program this summer. Men of Woodridge, the St. Scholastica Men's Club is the GO GO group, says Bill Miller, publicity chairman, who said further that the chairmen of different programs of the Men's Club are planning several summer activities, such as baseball games at Cubs and Sox parks, also golf outings, an annual picnic, plus the spring dance which is coming up in a couple of months.

The coming of warm spring weather will bring out the spike shoes for softball. The Club will be looking for new talent since they lost a couple of ballplayers from last year's champion team, plus many more eventful things are to be planned with your cooperation and your ideas on different programs. Commented Miller, "What do you say fellow Woodridge-ites, lets get acquainted at the next Men's Club meeting and work this new programs out together." You will meet our president, Paul Quinn, vice-president, George Kujawa, secretary, Kenny Brundage, treasurer, Bob Slezak. Also, you will meet a member who is planning a lot of these outings John "stop the Bus" O'Connor. I am sure John would appreciate any comments or help you might be able to give him. So lets see and hear from you at the next Men's Club meeting which will be the second Wednesday of the month, March 11. For further information call Phil Zuccaro at WO 8-2765.

Streets With Patriotic Tone

Woodridge, north will have a patriotic tone, with streets in the first unit of the 1, 850-home Winston Hills area named after some of the country's greatest military leaders.

Street names selected include Marshall, Dean, Arnold, Bradley, Clark, Halsey, Stillwell, Wainwright, and Patton Drives, according to Joshua A. Muss, vice-president in charge of Winston-Muss Chicago area operations.

Selection of these names follows a pattern established in part of Winston Park Northwest, Palatine, where streets are named for the seven original astronauts.

Muss said that some 12,000 persons have visited Winston Hills since five model homes went on display Feb. 1. The community offers the mid-level Adams, split-level Bennington and Concord, and ranch-style Dearborn and Essex models, ranging in price from $18,500 to $24,350.

Forecasters Goofed Says NI-Gas

Almost all amateur weather prognosticators--those who go by pheasant tracks, fish habits, bear skins and woolly-bear caterpillars--generally have failed so far in their predictions for the 1963-64 winter.

On the other hand, all could claim 100 percent accuracy if they would settle for just any one month.

The fish in Lake Michigan dived deeper last fall, foretelling a frigid winter, said one bearded authority. The season started with the warmest October in the weather bureau's 92 years of record-keeping.

Some people observed that furbearing animals had less fur than normal last fall. These prognosticators interpreted this as a sign the winter would be warm. December was the coldest December on record.

November ran hot and cold, but averaged warmer than normal. This was good for the pelt predictors, bad for the fish forecasters.

This January (1964) was the warmest since 1944. Contrast this to last January and the 23rd in particular. January 23, 1963, had a high of 5 degrees below zero, a low of 18 degrees below, and an average of minus 15 degrees.

Balmy breezes blew this January 23. The high was 56 degrees, low 39 degrees, and average, 45 degrees. Unfortunately, no one checked on the density of fur or depth of fish either day in order to forecast the weather next January 23.

Last fall, pheasants made wide tracks. That indicated lots of snow this winter. So far, snowfall has totalled ten inches this season, compared to 26 inches by this time last winter. So much for pheasant tracks.

Migrating south wasn't quite the solution to Illinois weather this winter. Dallas, Texas, for example, experienced the same kind of confused weather.

Their October also was the warmest on record, with December the coldest. January in Dallas really was mixed up. The average temperature was below normal, but the high temperature of 77 degrees broke all records, as did a low of 11 degrees. The city had a record snowfall in one day that brought total snowfall for the winter up to that in the Chicago area.

U. S. Weather Bureau records show the winter in Illinois through the end of January has been warmer than normal and much warmer than last year. As a result, Northern Illinois Gas Company reports that gas heat bills have been about ten percent lower this year than for the same period last year.

Despite the warmer weather, however, NI-Gas has distributed more gas this season than last, largely due to more customers, more uses for natural gas and more conversions to gas heat.

Although this heating season has been a crazy, mixed-up one, NI-Gas observes that Illinois is still the best place to live. The state has few weather extremes as other states do.

The average annual temperature at Barrow, Alaska, is only 10 degrees above zero. It got down to 70 degrees below zero in 1954 at Rogers Pass, Montana, and up to 134 degrees in the shade at Death Valley, California, in 1913. Key West, Florida, has the highest average annual temperature, 77.7 degrees. Louisiana is the wettest state. Nevada the driest.

Ranier Park in Washington gets about 575 inches of snow every year. Nebraska can claim the largest hailstones recorded in the U. S., 1-1/2 pounds. And these states, too, have their share of weather predictions based on fur, fowl and fish!

IT'S ELEMENTARY Woodridge

M. J. Clark

We had a basketball game here on Thursday, Feb. 13, with Lace School -- and lost -- 31-26. Don't despair, my friend, Woodridge will still push on!

We eighth-graders had high school placement exams on the 13th, and they took up most of the morning, much to the joy of some of the kids!

Mrs. Garner's room had an interesting mobile for Valentine's Day, which consisted of paper hearts with appropriate designs, strung to coat hangers and hung from the ceiling.

Miss Nyberg's room has an interesting bird study project going on. The fifth graders have put up bird pictures, and are studying different bird species, and other such as feeding and migratory habits, coloring, etc.

Mrs. Jury's second grade is working on a bulletin board project, in which they are collecting and illustrating the main events during the terms of three presidents, Washington, Lincoln and Kennedy.

Mrs. Avery's first grade is doing a flag project. They have cut out and colored small American flags.

In Mrs. Miley's first grade, the kids have small cards bearing the title of a book they have read pasted to ribbons. When each child has read ten books, thus having ten cards, he may take home his ribbon.

All the rooms had Valentine's Day parties which they enjoyed immensely. That

James Provo Dies Heart Attack Victim

The death of James W. Provo, 2933 Everglade, Sunday, Feb. 23, brought a pall over many areas of the village. Offers $42,000 To Pupils

St. Procopius college has adopted an extensive scholarship and student aid program, according to an announcement by the Rev. Daniel W. Kucera, O.S.B., president. The new program, involving an annual outlay of $42,000, is the most ambitious aid program ever established by the college. Father Kucera stated that the college's board of directors was concerned, in this age of rising educational costs, in attracting and assisting qualified students particularly interested in the personalized approach characteristic of the small private college. Altogether, some 132 scholarships will be available, with a select number being reserved for those of high scholastic attainment and the rest available for students doing satisfactory work and demonstrating need. The program is divided into the following categories:

The Procopian excellence scholarships, 12 in number, carry a stipend up to full tuition and are renewable. The Procopian achievement scholarships, 40 in number, carry a stipend up to $400 and are renewable. The Procopian recognition scholarships, 80 in number, carry a stipend of $200. In addition to the 132 scholarships mentioned above, the college offers a number of $200 tuition scholarships that have been made available by various trust funds and organizations. Supplementary to this extensive program, the National Defense Student Loan, the United Student Aid fund assistantships made available to the student body at the college.

Newcomers to Woodridge include:

Clem and Shirley Jandeska of 7637 Larchwood Land and their five children; Mrs. Viola Faulhaber, Janes Rd., Clarence and Sue Patz, Janes Rd., Bill and Joanne Braun and their 2 year old daughter Kathy, who also live on Janes Rd.

I hope you enjoy your new homes and your life in the community.

Police Officer Timko is home recuperating from head lacerations and a back injury suffered in an accident Feb. 12 on Rte. 53 south of Lake st. His car spun out of control on wet pavement and hit a tree.

Also suffering from an injury is Mrs. Barbara Lentz, 7624 Woodridge. A stumble on a ramp at a shopping center resulted in a broken ankle. Barbara is known by many Woodridge-ites because of her work on the library committee of which she is chairman.

"Behind The Badge"

First off a correction is in order. In the photograph entitled "Sharpshooters?", there is an error in names. The first Officer on the left is Gerald Timko, who was awarded the "1st Place Tyro" trophy and not George Zima as stated. Apologies to Officer Timko.

Tuesday, January 28, was the start of the "Three-Town Match Assn" shooting season for 1964. The Woodridge Police Dept. Team is entered in this event but got off to a bad start by losing it's first match to the Lisle Police Dept. by a score of 900-711.

Presently the team consists of Sgt. Szczepaniak, Officer Timko, Novello, Kleven, and Officer Renna as "Alternate".

High "Aggregate" score and high "Rapid Fire" stage of 204-1x and 64-1x respectively were shot by Officer Timko. High "Slow Fire" stage of 83 was shot by Officer Renna and high "Timed Fire" stage of 79-1x being shot by Officer Novello.

Totals were as follows:

- Gerald Timko - - - - - 204-1x
- James Novello - - - - - 176-2x
- Jerome Szczepaniak - - - 174-2x
- Richard Klevan - - - - - 157-
- Team Total - - - - - 711-5x
- Edward Renna (Alternate Shooter) 195-1x

---ABOUT OUR CHURCHES---

Methodist

The Rev. John Siple will deliver a series of Lenten sermons beginning March 1 through March 22. On March 1 the sermon will be "Jesus Concerning The Poor."

The choir is preparing special music for Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday. Rehearsal is each Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Trondsens, 2932 - 76th st.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet March 4 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Pope, 2630 Forest Glen.

Mrs. Gen Bailey is nursery mother for March 1 and 8.

Prince Of Peace

Installed on the Church Council of Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, Woodridge, at the Worship Service on Sunday, Feb. 23, at the Woodridge School were Messrs. Nick Lung, Richard Munsterman, Victor Oldenburg, Roger Thoren, and Fred Vallarta. Mr. Munsterman will serve a one year term and the others will serve for three years.

Recently, chairmen were appointed for the various committees of the Church Council. Serving for one year as chairman is Mr. Victor Oldenburg, Finance; Mr. Fred Vallarta, Stewardship; Mr. Nick Lung, Evangelism; Mr. Wayne Steward, Property; Mrs. Ruth Lung, Social Ministry; Mr. Walter Henk, Worship and Music; Mr. Earle Brown, Sr., Christian Education.

Holy Communion will be celebrated on Sun., March 1, 9:30 a.m. at the Woodridge School. The Junior Choir will sing.

The Christian Education Committee meets at the Lutheran Parsonage, 2735 75th St., on Mon., March 2, 8 p.m.

The fourth in a series of Children's Midweek Services will be held on Wed., March 4, 3:45 p.m. at the Lutheran Parsonage. Pastor John E. Swanson, who is speaking on the general topic "Who Are These Workmen at the Cross?", will give a meditation on the theme, "He Feeds the Vinegar." These meditations are designed for children so they can understand who the men were who participated in the crucifixion of Jesus Christ.

That same evening at the Midweek Vesper Service for adults, Pastor Swanson will speak on "An Army of Victorious Victims," a subtopic of the main theme, "The Militant Ministry."

The Cherub Choir rehearses after the Children's Service, and the Senior Choir rehearses after the Adult Service. The choirs are preparing for Palm Sunday, the Good Friday Tenebrae Service, and Easter.

Village Baptist

The church is having a special meeting on Feb. 29 at 7:30 p.m. sponsored by the Ambassadors for Christ of Chicago. This active inter-church group will bring with them a good program of special music and a film will be shown, called "Two Brothers" a Ken Anderson production. Our own Jack Collins will lead the song service. All are welcome.

March 1 will be Mission Sunday at church both morning and evening. Mr. James Barker, who is a brother of Mrs. Carolyn Wiggins of Woodridge, will be the missionary speaker. He has been working in Venezuela and is under New Tribes Mission of Calif. Mrs. Barker will also be speaking to the Youth Fellowship at 6 p.m. Mr. Barker will show pictures of his missionary work at the 7 p.m. evening service.

Rev. Donald F. Roop will deliver a series of Lenten sermons on the book of Matthew, both 11 a.m. and 7 p.m., from March 8 through March 22, entitled "Seven Steps to Easter in the Life of Christ."

Deacons will meet at 4 p.m. on Sun., March 1 and the Building Committee is busy studying bids, and hope to let the contract within the next two weeks.

"Minor Masterpieces"

While conducting our usual search for fresh, new WNR features, we stumbled on an idea which should have been obvious - our local schools are teeming with undiscovered talent - and most of it eager to be published!

Much of the credit for this column must go to Mrs. Marcilla Michel, 4th grade teacher at Woodridge school, who cheerfully (and bravely) volunteered to be our talent scout. We also have a spy or two working for us at St. Scholastica, so we're expecting many fine contributions from that quarter as well.

All in all, we're hoping to delight you often with wonderful samples of art work, poetry and prose by the younger generation of Woodridge.

To launch the new column, we present the following poems written especially for this month of Valentine's and president's birthdays by children of the 4th grade at Woodridge school:

VALENTINE HEARTS

Valentines Day is the time
When everyone gives each other hearts -
People of all ages
Want to show their love
On Valentines Day

by: Debbie Rojic

HONEST ABE

They called him Honest Abe
He was true and loyal and When it came to children,
Them, he inclined to spoil.

He studied law in Springfield
His humor was so rare,
And when he took a case
The people rushed to be there.

WINTER WONDERLAND

As I woke up, I looked out the corner of a frosted silvery pane to my delight, it had snowed! A magnificent white carpet rolled over everywhere. The old and ragged, torndown scarecrow, at which I used to throw rocks, is now a milk-white ghost, spookily fluttering in the wind. Frozen water dripping from the roof makes icicles, dazzling jewels such as diamonds, rubies and saffires.
The once bright-red barn is now thinly white-washed. It is like a dreamland.
But soon it will all melt. Then everything will be back to normal again.
