The Passover : — Its' Meaning

by Shifra Werch

On Fri. night, the 27th of March, the Jewish holiday, Passover, starts. This is the celebration of the freeing of the Jews from bondage in Egypt.

During this holiday, no bread or bread products are used. Only matzos, the unleavened bread, is eaten, in memory of the bread that was baked so hurriedly by the fleeing Jews, that it had no time to rise. A different set of dishes and special foods that are inspected, checked and kept separate, are also used.

For days before the holiday, the house is full of confusion and commotion, while it is scrubbed from stem to stern. Then the day finally arrives.

This holiday begins in the evening, as

ROBERT MURPHY

Robert Murphy, who is now serving on the board in the position formerly held by Ned Hill, has been active on school district 68 advisory councils and was co-chairman of the enrollment studies committee.

Murphy has been active in the community as a village trustee and on the staff of the WNR. He was appointed village trustee in November, 1961, and served in that capacity until the election last April.

Murphy, who is 41 years old, has lived in Woodridge since September, 1960, and he and his wife Ellie have three youngsters, Kurt, Sally and Cammy.

21 Option Dropped

At the regular village meeting last Thursday, the trustees, with the exception of Trustee Leon Werch, voted to drop the option on lot 21, the W. A. A. baseball field on Woodridge dr. and 75th pl. The reason was the possibility of obtaining more land for less money in a more desirable location, said Trustee Marvin Wiggins.

The area being considered is the north-east corner of Janes and 75th st.

Trustee Leon Werch said he felt that the option should be held in case of future need.

The board voted to pay police clerk, Frances Furio, $25 per month beginning May 1, 1964.

Rot Wants Clean Competition

"If I'm going to have competition, I'd like good clean competition," commented John Rot of the John Rot Garbage Disposal Service last Thurs. at the village board meeting. He was there to discuss

Kagann Outlines Need For 2nd Fulltime Man

by Ellie Murphy

In a special interview with the WNR, Police Chief Joel Kagann outlined some of the problems which underlie his recommendation that the village hire a second full-time policeman. "The department is still operating with virtually the same size staff it had in 1962," said Kagann, "but there are now more than twice as many village residents needing protection."

While the population has doubled, the number of calls handled (that is, complaints from citizens which were investigated by police) has actually tripled: in 1962 there were 209; in 1963 this figure grew to 674. The 7,733 miles patrolled by police in 1962 were quadrupled in 1963 to 28,817.

A look at the records for the first two months of 1964 shows there is no easing of the situation. With 150 calls handled in January and February, normally slow months, the number of calls this year will probably reach at least 900, an increase of 1/3 over 1963's all-time re-

Attempt Made Here On Dancer's Life

An attempt on the life of a 24 year old Woodridge woman was made here last week as she returned home from her job as a dancer at a Cicero, Illinois, night club.

Approximately eight shots were fired at her as she pulled into the driveway of her residence at 6 a. m. on Mar. 18. Several bullets penetrated the windows of the car and others hit the left rear door. She was unhurt, except for splinters of glass that struck her face. First aid was administered to her at the Hinsdale hospital. Later, investigation revealed that one of the bullets had penetrated the left sleeve of her coat and was found lodged in the lining.

Later in the day, Andrew J. Spath of suburban River Grove was arrested on a charge of attempted murder. He surrendered at the DuPage county sheriff's office at 4:30 p. m.

The woman said that her assailant had made threats in the past to kill her if she didn't leave her husband and come to live with him.

Detectives Ed Arndt and John Trask, under the direction of Chief Joel Kagann, conducted the investigation for the Woodridge police department. After obtaining a warrant, Arndt and Trask searched Spath's car and recovered evidence which may link him to the scene of the crime.

Spath was released on $5,000 bond. The case is set for trial in Wheaton on Mar. 30.

Free Eye Exam

The Lions Club of Downers Grove will sponsor, for the second year, a free, S. O. S. (save our sight) vision screening.

Examinations will be available on Sat., Apr. 4, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the Downers Grove Moose hall, 1030 Warren ave. Everyone, from 3 to 100 years old, is invited to participate.

EASTER GREETINGS

from THE WOODRIDGE PASTORS

HAVE YOU HEARD?

by Pastor John E. Swanson

"Alice, have you heard?" Pam bubbled with excitement as she ran into Alice's home looking happy, shocked, surprised, and peaceful all at one time.

"Have I heard what?" drawled Alice after her final sip of coffee before putting the cup into the dish water.

"Jesus Christ is risen from the dead! He is alive!" Pam shouted as though telling the whole community.

"Come now, Pam." Offering her a chair and with a sympathetic mellowness in her voice Alice said, "Sit down. This

"THE AWAKENING"

by Father John Kloepfer

This is the day that the Lord has made; let us be glad and rejoice in it!

What a glorious spectacle we witness each year as nature awakens from her winter slumbers! What transformation in field and forest as the pall of ice and snow is blown aside by the warm winds of spring and buds appear on tree and bush. Nature is coming to life again. But we must not linger here, for nature is but a holy symbol. It is a picture-book given by God to His children in which they may see His beauty and His love; it is a book which tells of another world which now at

"EASTER 1964 - A LIVING MESSAGE FOR A DYING WORLD"

by Rev. Donald F. Roop

The central fact of the Christian faith is the Cross, but without the empty tomb, the Cross would be only failure. The Resurrection proves Christ to be what he claimed to be. The unique Divine Son of God.

Here, then, are the three important facts of the life of Christ. His birth, His Cross, and His resurrection. Christ was born of a virgin. "Behold a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son," Isaiah 7:14. By His Cross, Jesus made atone-

"A REMINDER"

J. L. Siple, Pastor

As the little band of broken, frightened men huddled together in the upper room waiting for the temple officers to take them off to prison, they meditated upon their past experiences with Christ. In view of all that happened in that last week they felt their days were over. All that work availed nothing. Their master penniless and dead upon a cross. The cheering crowds of Palm Sunday turned out to be a jeering mob on Friday. What went wrong? There was no thought of how they deserted Him at the last, but

Editorial

The facts speak for themselves--unless another full-time police officer is added soon, Woodridge will find itself without adequate police protection.

Since coming here in June of 1962, Kagann has shown that he is a competent and efficient chief. As our only full-time paid official, he has had to spend many of his off-duty hours answering police calls.

Our village board has always been faced with the difficult task of how to allocate its limited funds to provide the services it is required to perform.

TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

The Illinois statutes require that each school board "provide for the revenue necessary to maintain schools" in the school district.

Borrowed funds do not constitute revenue, and continued deficit financing by the high school board--whether the deficit each year is $140,000 or $326,000--would place the school district on a collision course with bankruptcy.

Nevertheless, I believe that a large majority of the taxpayers of the school district are willing to give financial support to a high quality school system, and I believe the definition of quality must be hammered out of the anvil of public opinion.

The numerous comments regarding extra-curricular activities indicate that this entire area should be critically reviewed. To the extent possible, I believe these activities should be made self-supporting, and if this is not possible, I believe that expensive extra-curricular programs should be discontinued.

I believe it likely that savings from such cuts, even if significant, would be far less than the amount needed to balance the budget. If this should prove to be the case, the board would then be obligated by the Illinois statutes to again ask the voters to approve an increase in the educational tax rate.

At the time of that referendum, further cuts should be possible only by sharp reduction of staff, double shifts, or other extreme measures which are obviously destructive. Prior to such a vote, less important issues should be resolved so that the question will clearly be whether or not the high quality of the schools is to be destroyed or maintained.

I believe this approach is fair to the "confirmed" No voter, who I should think would not expect the school board to destroy prematurely something that is valued so highly by so many.

In a letter next week, I intend to outline my views, as a candidate for the district 99 school board, with respect to the operation of the two high schools.

Cordially,

John Hanson

Dear Editor:

In view of the many complaints that teen-agers have in this day, I thought I would pass this letter on to your readers. I quote:

"Always we hear the plaintive cry of the teen-agers: WHAT CAN WE DO? WHERE CAN WE GO? The answer is.... GO HOME.

"Hang the storm windows. Paint the woodwork. Rake the leaves. Mow the lawn. Shovel the walk. Wash the car. Learn to cook. Scrub some floors. Repair the sink. Build a boat. Get a job.

"Help the minister, priest or rabbi, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army. Visit the sick. Assist the poor. Study your lessons. And then when you are through--and not too tired--read a book.

"Your parents do not owe you entertainment. Your village does not owe you recreation facilities. The world does NOT owe you a living. You owe the world something. You owe it your time and energy and your talents so that no one will be at war or in poverty, or sick or lonely again.

"In plain simple words: GROW UP. Quit being a cry-baby. Get out of your dream world. Develop a backbone, not a wishbone. And start acting like a man or a lady.

"I'm a parent. I'm tired of nursing, protecting, helping, appealing, begging, excusing, tolerating, denying myself needed comforts for every whim and fancy, just because your selfish ego, instead of common sense, dominates your personality, and thinking, and requests."

At the present time the police department has only one full-time officer (Chief Kagann), four paid, part-time men, and five volunteer reserves. This means, says Kagann, we are falling far below the FBI-recommended minimum of one full-time officer for each 800 people in addition to part-time and reserve officers.

Are police being called out on matters of relative unimportance? "Not necessarily," said Kagann. "Thirteen of last year's complaints involved major crimes - burglary, larceny and stolen automobiles." Last week a case of attempted murder was added to this list.

In addition to time spent patrolling and answering emergency calls, a heavy burden of paper work falls on the department, much of which is being done without cost to the Woodridge taxpayer. The police clerk, Mrs. Frances Furio, for example, has never received a salary, but has worked 20 to 25 hours a week for the past year and a half.

"We can't go on depending upon public-spirited volunteers," said Kagann. "The amount of work is increasing too rapidly to expect people to continue doing it for nothing. The services of another paid, full-time officer has become a necessity. The department must add to its personnel as the population increases in order to give Woodridge residents the protection they have the right to expect."

Notary Public

Police Clerk Frances Furio is now a Notary Public. She is usually on duty at the village hall, 2909 Forest Glen, but can also be contacted at her home, 2915 Forest Glen.

do all Jewish holidays, with a long ceremonial dinner called a seder. Each member and guest (it is customary to invite friends, also people not so fortunate as yourself to this meal), follows the very symbolic stages of the ceremony in a small book called a Haggadah.

As I said before, the seder is full of symbols, such as the four cups of wine everyone must drink, representing the four promises God made to free the Israelites and the cup of Elijah. The Jewish faith teaches that the prophet, Elijah, will bring peace to the earth, so every Passover seder we have an extra cup of wine for him, and at a special time in the service, prescribed in the Haggadah, the door of the house is opened to welcome him.

Other symbols found on the seder plate itself are the roasted egg, standing for the sacrifices made by the Jews; the maror or bitter herbs, symbolizing the bitter life of the Jews in bondage; and the karpas or greens, standing for the undernourishment of the enslaved Jews. These greens are dipped in salt water to symbolize the tears shed.

Still other symbols are the shankbone, in remembrance of the sacrificial Pesah lamb; and the charoset, a sweet, sticky mixture of seven different foods such as apples, nuts and wine, that represent the mortar made by the Jews in slavery. It is sweet in remembrance of God's kindness.

During the seder, three special pieces of matzos is used. One half of the middle piece is broken off to be used later as the afikomen, or desert, and hidden in the pillow the head of the house is leaning on. The children of the house try to take this, for later on, the grown-ups will pay a high price for its return so that the seder can be finished.

We Jews in America have another seder on the second day of the eight days of Passover to make sure that we are having it at the same time as the Jews in Israel.

Even with the serious lessons taught during Passover, there is much laughter, singing and general gaiety and every member of the family, young and old, look forward to its yearly coming.

Parents To Blame

Why Teens Smoke

Why do teenagers take up cigarette smoking? Why do some youngsters begin smoking even before they reach the teenage group?

This has been a matter of concern to the American Cancer Society ever since cigarette smoking was established as a major cause of the great increase in deaths from lung cancer, according to Ralph Wagoner, chairman of the Woodridge Cancer Crusade.

The society has learned from studies and interviews some of the answers to the "Why's"!

One study of 11,060 boys and 10,920 girls, all teenage students, showed:

1. The percentage of smokers is highest among children of families in which both parents smoke cigarettes; lowest in families in which neither parent smoked, and intermediate in families in which only one parent smoked cigarettes.

2. Smoking behavior of boys tends to conform more closely to that of the father, while smoking behavior of girls follows more closely that of the mother.

3. The percentage of smokers among children from families in which one or both parents continue to smoke is significantly higher than the percentage in which one or both parents have given up smoking.

Some random answers given by teenagers for taking up cigarette smoking are:

1. "All my friends are smoking and all the best athletes are smoking and it was definitely for reasons of social pressure that I thought it was attractive to smoke."

2. "There is tremendous pressure on teenagers to smoke. There are so many influences in the environment that smoking is a nice habit---a mature habit."

3. "It isn't valid to argue against smoking when your parents smoke, when they tell you "don't smoke", and then light up a cigarette."

With these facts---and the fact that 75% of all lung cancer deaths could be prevented if people do not smoke---to build on, the society, in 1960, launched a teenage smoking program. The program---with appropriate literature, film strips, teaching guides and student conferences---was geared to reach all secondary school students in the country with the facts about lung cancer and cigarette smoking---and to discourage teenagers from taking up smoking and to encourage those who had already begun to smoke to stop smoking.

The American Cancer Society felt that it was a good idea for teenagers to take a long hard look at the facts and think them over very carefully.

About half of the nation's secondary schools in the country have been involved in the program so far. Approximately 3,000 students in the Downers Grove high school have been exposed to this program in their health education classes.

Do you know why or how Easter eggs are colored? Ask a second grader from Miss Rathje's class.

1. The Funny Easter Egg

One Easter morning the Easter bunny, a big rabbit, gave all the children a big egg, a little egg, a medium size egg too. But the Easter bunny said to himself that the eggs were not colored. So he started to paint the eggs. When he got done, the eggs were perfect. Then he delivered the eggs. The next morning the children looked under the bed. Then the children were sad. The Easter bunny forgot to give them the eggs. The next day the children were happy because the Easter bunny came back. Then the Easter bunny said good-by. The End.

by Susan Gellatly

2. The Funny Easter Egg

One day there was some children. They were so excited because Easter was the next day. Finally Easter came and all the children gobbled the candy up. Except one boy he wanted to save his. All at once, pow, one of the eggs popped open. It was Peter Cottontail. What a surprise. They lived ever after. The End.

by Robert G.

3. The Funny Easter Egg

Once in a little town call Easter Egg town. And there was a street called Egg street. And there was a house. And Mr. Easter Bunny lived in the little house. And every Easter the bunny would go from house to house. But this was a different Easter.

He found an egg that was yellow with orange spots. Then he came to a house that was yellow with orange spots. So he walked up the path and walked in the house. All he saw was things that were yellow with orange spots. He went up some steps.

There he found a room. He opened the door. There he saw a little girl and a little boy. Then he looked in another room and saw a mother and a father. So he put the egg down and left and that was the end they saw of him. The End.

by Pamala Ann Praser

4. The Funny Easter Egg

One day close to Easter Peter Cottontail was walking by the road. And he saw this egg and it was so tiny. And then he picked up the egg. And when he picked it up, it grew bigger and bigger and bigger. And he dropped it and it grew smaller and smaller and smaller. Until it made a hole big enough so he can see through and he saw a castle with dinasorse all around it and queen saying help! help! help! and it was beautiful. And still it was unbelievable. And then he took it home. At first he thought it was black magic. And he tried to think what it was. At last he thought of the name of it. It was the enchanted egg. And he thought he would like to paint it! And he painted all pretty colors and sent it to his cousin. The End.

"A REMINDER"

by Rev. J. L. Siple

rather how He had deserted them. Suddenly, He appeared amongst them, saying, "Peace be unto you." No scorn for their desertion. No lecture on their lack of faith; but with outstretched hands He showed His scars and in a moment they were changed men. It's strange the effect the evidence of those scars had on them.

We foolishly gather medals and parchment diplomas and written testimonials to give as evidence of our service to mankind, but on judgement day these will be worthless. If you can bare your heart before your Judge and show the hidden scars, which every man who serves God will bear, you will hear those eagerly sought after words of commendation, "Well done thou good and faithful servant."

Easter is an annual reminder that the scars and not medals indicate your value as a Christian.

"THE AWAKENING"

Easter is likewise celebrating resurrection, the world of supernatural life within us.

The perspective changes, and with nature as a backdrop we behold the great redemptive work of Christ. A mighty battle is in progress; life and death, light and darkness are contending for survival. Christ triumphs! The Son of God incarnate has finished His redemptive work; He has triumphed over the prince of this world; by rising from the dead He has authenticated His victory and, as booty, claims redeemed mankind.

There is still another resurrection proper to Easter, that which takes place in the Church. Just as spring produces new life in the realm of nature, Easter effects spiritual renewal in the Church. Easter is our common birthday as children of God.

May the three-fold resurrection of Easter resound like a mighty refrain, like a thrice-chanted alleluia in full crescendo - springtime has made its appearance in the land, alleluia! The Lord has completed His redeeming work, alleluia! Our souls have risen anew, alleluia!

A blessed and joyous Easter to all in the village of Woodridge.

religion is getting to you. You'll soon need a psychiatrist if you keep this up."

In an attempt to bring Pam back to reality with an appeal to logic Alice continued, "According to your Church, the resurrection happened over 1900 years ago. This is 1964 and not 33 or whatever year it was."

In her excitement Pam fidgeted until she could get a word in edge-wise and said, "But Alice, I just realized what the resurrection meant!"

(Commentary: For Pam this is the experience of the day of resurrection - the reality of her personal encounter with the Risen Lord in 1964.)

EASTER 1964 - A LIVING MESSAGE

By Rev. Donald F. Roop

ment for my sin. "Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness." 1 Peter 2:24. And by His resurrection Jesus made my own resurrection unto life forever beyond the grave possible. "And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain." 1 Corinthians 15:14.

Without these three facts, we have nothing but a system of ethics with Christ as the great teacher. Do you have a living faith, or a dead religion in 1964?

Philosophy today says, man is only a higher animal. In other words, they die like dogs. The practical effect of this type of thinking is seen in the student violence and trouble in our school systems today. If there is no God, and no life beyond the grave, men soon begin to live like dogs. Philosophy and unbelief are taking the Bible away from the American people, both in our schools, and in our homes and communities.

Philosophy tells us about heaven: there is no gold there; hell: there is no fire there; Christ: there is no God there, only man; grave: there is no resurrection there.

The empty tomb is heaven's victory proclamation. Hope for the sinner, and triumph for the saint. The fact of the empty tomb is enough to bring every honest soul to his knees before the death conquering Christ. "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." John 3:18

IT'S ELEMENTARY

by Susan Poslusny

As one of your own said, we have another basketball game to add to our line of defeats. The game that I'm talking about is (of course) the one with our dear beloved sister school, Woodridge. I'm afraid we really disgraced ourselves with a score of 34-17. And joyously we announce that this is the end of the tournament -- for us.

As you probably know very well, the Curtis Circulation Company's magazine drive ended last week. Although we didn't sustain the record of previous years, we did come up with a final amount of $458.01. The high room was the seventh grade with a total of $180.10. And we are very proud that Kathy Groat with $41.10 and Randy Ramquist with $33.65 received top honors by being top girl and boy salesmen. Congratulations, you two!

I guess it's about time the outside world knew of this year's decision on the eighth grade class colors. After much deliberation (naturally) we have decided on the colors of lavender and white.

Before I leave for my own Easter vacation, I would like to wish all of you a Happy Easter from all of us!

Tattle Tales

by Ellie Murphy

Get wells to all the people in the village with the mumps.

Glad to see Clarence Oakes, 7630 Deerfield, back on his feet after his bout with the mumps.

Isn't spring wonderful, germs and all. Congratulations to:

Alfred and Patricia Vincencio, 7629 Deerfield, on the birth of their son, Anthony Patrick, on Mar. 1.

At home to welcome their new brother are: Freddy 11, Ricky 9, Michelle 5, Mike 4, and Diane 2.

It seems the Volpe family, 7634 Deerfield have had their share of mumps.

Mrs. Volpe and the children have each taken their turns. As if that isn't enough, now they are starting in with the measles.

Shifra Werch, who reached the ripe old age of 13 on Mar. 20, celebrated her Bas Mitzvah by taking 13 guests (one for each year) to dinner at Willoway Manor.

Enjoying the celebration were her family, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Werch and sister Masha, and ten friends. Congratulations, Shifra.

In answering questions from the board, Rot explained that the garbage is dumped in West Chicago in a county-controlled landfill program. The garbage must be in closed trucks, and each day the garbage is covered with earth.

Apr. 2 was announced for the first reading of the proposed ordinance.

Later, during the meeting, Rot offered the use of his pick-up truck to deliver a safe the village is planning to purchase.

Well folks, it looks like the Beatles have invaded our fair village, and the calendar claims they are out of season. Several ten and twelve year olds have been caught by their parents avoiding the barbershop until the hair gets to a length where they can take the slicked down hair and comb it forward into something resembling those darlings of the teen set who shall be nameless. Never mind, parents, this too shall pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dopp of 7822 Jonquil will have their families at their home on Easter Sunday for a dinner.

Congratulations are in order for Owen and Mary Finnegan of 7848 Catalpa.

This week they announced the engagement of their son, Owen to Miss Josephine Majchrzak of Chicago. The happy couple are planning the nuptials for Sept. 12.

Happy birthday to Peggy Purcell of 7852 Sprucewood who will be 7 years old on Mar. 22.

Our sympathy goes to Mr. and Mrs. William Smale whose little boy, Greg, is back in Community hospital in LaGrange.

The first report of a robin in Woodridge was made by Mrs. Hani Ross. Hope the snowstorm didn't scare off the rest of them.

Village Business

The village board, except Mayor Roberts and Trustee Leon Werch, met last Saturday morning with the public works committee of the county board of supervisors. Lisle Township Supervisor Patrick Riedy is the chairman of this committee. Village Trustee Marvin Wiggins reported that "the committee assured full cooperation to the board on various phases of the complex sewage disposal situation." Both the committee and the village board are interested in any solution not to the detriment of Woodridge citizens, he concluded.

EASTER EGG BREAD

(May be shaped into a crown or Easter baskets or rabbits)

Soften: 2 pkgs. active dry yeast in 1/2 cup warm water (110° F to 115° F).

If using compressed yeast, soften 2 cakes in 1/2 cup lukewarm water (80° F to 85° F).

Let yeast stand 5 to 10 minutes.

Meanwhile, pour into a large bowl 1/2 cup warm water.

Blend in 1 1/2 cups sifted flour.

Stir in softened yeast and add to flour-water mixture, mixing well. Beat until very smooth. Cover bowl with waxed paper and towel and let stand for 1 1/2 to 2 hours.

Cream until shortening is softened:

- 3/4 c. shortening
- 2 T. lemon juice
- 1 T. grated lemon peel

Add gradually, creaming until fluffy after each addition, a mixture of:

- 1 cup sugar
- 1 tsp. salt

Beat until thick and piled softly:

- 2 eggs
- 1 egg white

Add beaten eggs in thirds to sugar mixture, beating thoroughly after each addition. Add yeast mixture, mixing well.

Measure 4 1/2 to 4 3/4 cups of flour. Add about 1/2 the flour to yeast mixture and beat until very smooth. Mix in enough remaining flour to make a soft dough. Knead on a lightly floured surface. Select a large bowl so dough can double in size. Shape dough into a smooth ball and place in greased bowl. Turn dough to bring greased surface on top. Cover bowl with wax paper and towel and let dough rise until doubled (about 1 1/2 to 2 hours). Punch down with fist. Divide dough into two equal balls. Let stand for 10 min.

Roll out each ball into a long roll about 36 in. long and 1 to 1 1/2 in. thick.

Using the two long pieces of dough, form a loosely braided ring, leaving spaces for five colored eggs. Place on prepared baking sheet. Lightly butter 15 1/2 x 12 in. baking sheet. Place uncooked colored eggs into spaces of braid. Cover loosely with towel. Set dough aside in a warm place until doubled.

Bake at 350° F 10 min.

Brush egg with a mixture of:

- 1 egg yolk
- 1 Tbs. of milk

Sprinkle with tiny multi-colored candies.

Bake 40 to 45 min. or more, until bread is golden brown. (Eggs will be hard cooked).

P.S. Place uncooked eggs in dye, dip them, dry and place in braid, eggs will be hard cooked when bread is baked.

Yah, Yah, Yah!

"Bedbugs"

Hit Woodridge

The Woodridge school auditorium rocked to the best of the "Bedbugs" quartet on Mar. 14 as 7th and 8th grade girls entertained their audience with a comic satire of the famous Beatles. It was all part of a "play day" which the Woodridge girls had planned for the enjoyment of their guests, the 7th and 8th grade girls of Goodrich school.

After everyone had let off a little steam in a few games of volleyball, basketball and ping pong, the Woodridge girls took to the stage where Bedbugs, Barbara Oleski, Susan Miller, LaMae Smith and Ginger Garr, brought down the house. Shifra Werch did the narrating for this and the following skit, a spoof on physical fitness tests, with Helga Seuling, JoAnne Pfaff, Donna Dreveny, Sue Muchowski and Linda Goluch doing the spoofing.

Shifra, who had a big hand in planning all this festivity, said the girls had a great old time and, by the end of the afternoon, were more than ready to sit down and enjoy Mrs. Nancy Ehlschlaeger's delicious refreshments.

Erlenborn Brings Campaigns Here

John N. Erlenborn, Republican candidate for U.S. representative from the 14th congressional district, spoke to a group of Woodridge women at an afternoon coffee in the home of Mrs. Nancy O'Connell Mar. 18.

Erlenborn explained the major points of his conservative platform and summarized his personal qualifications for the position. "Without mentioning any names," he said - (there are six Republicans and one Democratic candidate in the primary race for U.S. representative) - "I would like to emphasize that I am the only candidate who has had the technical training and legislative experience necessary for the job."

Erlenborn, a former assistant state's attorney, has served eight years in the Illinois general assembly. He is chairman of the House Governmental Economy Committee and co-chairman of the Illinois Economy Bloc. He was also co-sponsor of the Illinois Crime Commission bill and authored and sponsored the anti-pinball gambling bills.

Prince of Peace Conducts LWR Clothing Appeal

The spring appeal for clothing for the Lutheran World Relief will be conducted by Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, Woodridge, beginning Easter day through Sun., Apr. 12. This clothing is shipped to many foreign lands. Blankets are an important item this year as well as all types of clothing and shoes.

Three tours are being planned for the young people during the spring vacation, Wednesday through Friday, April 1 - 3. Children must sign up at the Lutheran parsonage due to the limited number in each group.

On Sunday, Apr. 5, Mr. James Frerichs of Augustana college, Rock Island, Illinois, will be the preacher at the 9:30 a.m. Communion service and at the new 11:00 a.m. service.

During the last two shooting sessions with the Three-Town Match Association, I can only say that the team is consistent. The Feb. 25th shoot found the Woodridge team on the losing side of a duel with the Oak Brook #1 team by the scores of 728-706. On Mar. 3rd the team picked up a few more points, but still not enough to beat the Oak Brook #2 team. The scores of that shoot were 755-744.

Team members of the Feb. shoot consisted of the following officers and scores: G. Timko - 214, J. Novello - 175, J. Szczepaniak - 146-1x, and E. Renna - 171-1x. Alternate shooter was R. Kleven - 195-1x.

There were a couple changes for the March shoot with the following line-up and scores: G. Timko - 198, K. Porter - 203-3x, R. Kleven - 209-1x, and J. Trask - 134. Alternate shooter was J. Novello with 155-1x.

High scores in the various stages are:

February
G. Timko	214	High "Aggregate"
K. Porter	87-2x	High "Slow" Fire
G. Timko	79	High "Timed" Fire
G. Timko	59	High "Rapid" Fire
March
R. Kleven	209-1x
R. Kleven	88-1x
K. Porter	58-1x
R. Kleven
K. Porter	64 (tie)

From the looks of things, Officers Timko and Porter are running away with all the "High" honors were it not for Officer Porter who is giving them both a bit of competition.

The next session scheduled for April 7th will find the Woodridge team shooting against the "first place" team; namely, Downers Grove #1. Here's wishing our officers the best of luck.
