- from the Book of Common Prayer.

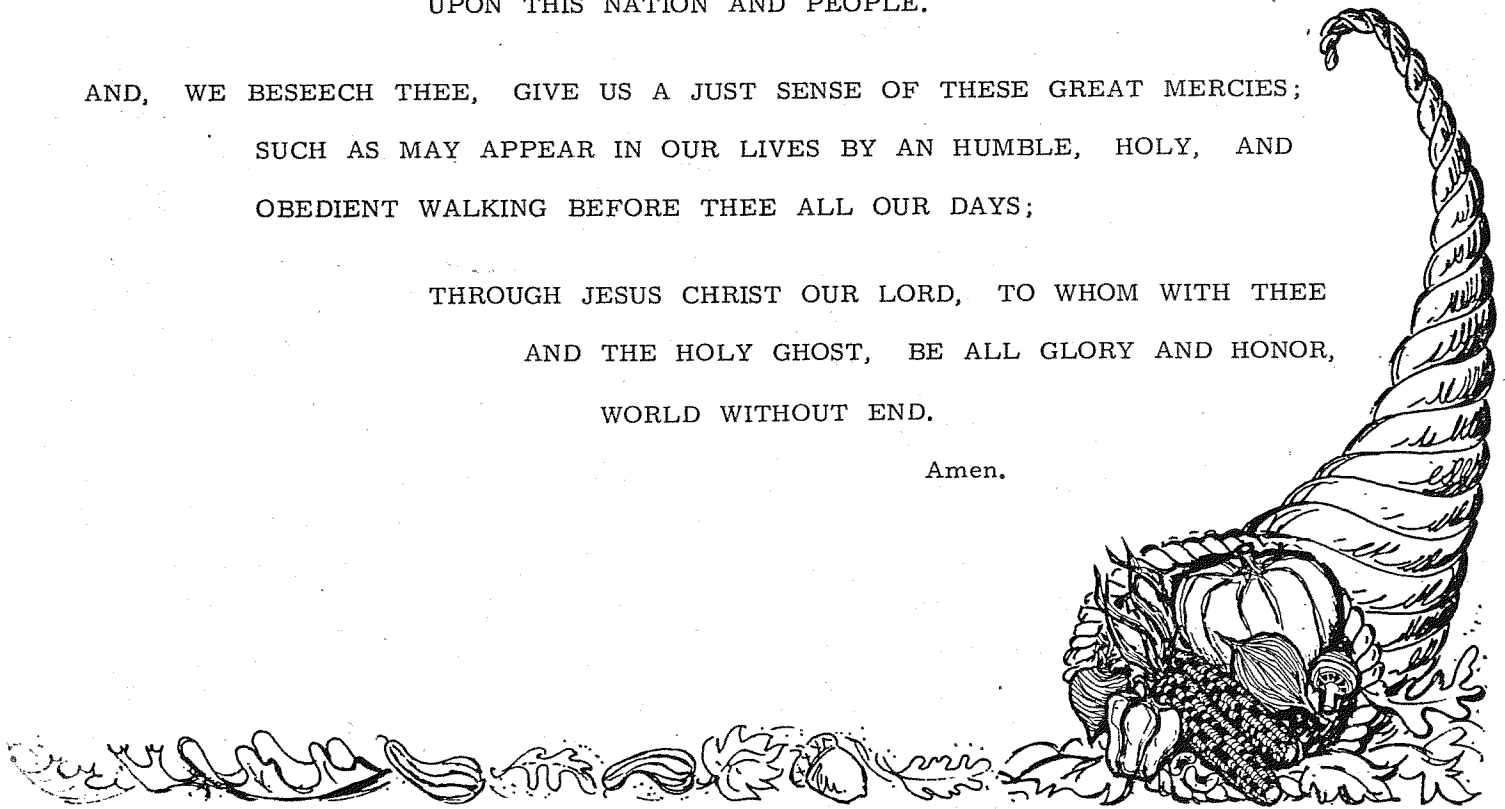

MOST GRACIOUS GOD, BY WHOSE KNOWLEDGE THE DEPTHS ARE BROKEN UP,

On November 14, 33 students from Woodridge and Goodrich Schools participated in the all-district music festival of District 1. They were, Jean Hansen, Joyce Hansen, Debby Yates, Jan Dahlberg, Dawn Nigro, Bill Kettell, Bill Borschaw, Bob Whitney, Danny Schnoeder, Ray Smeeth, Lynda Ehlers, Chuck Bill, Lindsay Kowarsch, Barbara Anderson, Jan Boldwing, Bob Little, Ken Burns, Rick Swanson, Larry Manges, Terry Skreens, Marsha Werch, Marsha Hodges, Claudia Hodges, Elsie Roop, Harriet Barber, Jill Jesse, Jo Ann Pfaff, Mary Vandeleur, Ginger Garr, Mike Aufman and myself.

We started out for Pierce Chapel at Wheaton College, where rehearsals were held, at 7:30 in the morning, sleepy but excited. After getting situated we practiced (and practiced!), sectionally, together and at Edman Chapel where the concert was to be held.

Then we downed a hurried, and much needed, lunch and had a final practice before the concert.

At 2:50 we all went to Edman Chapel and took our seats. Before our turn came up we were privileged enough to enjoy the very fine performances of the district orchestra and band.

At 4:45 the program was over and we collected our things and headed home.

In the audience were the familiar faces of the Tousignants, the Werches, the Hodges, the Roops, the Pfaffs, the Hansens, the Dahlbergs, the Kettells and the Skreenses.

Speaking for the group, I would like to thank the parents that provided transportation and Mrs. Mason, our fine music teacher, for this great experience and opportunity.

Editor
Woodridge News

Dear Keetz:

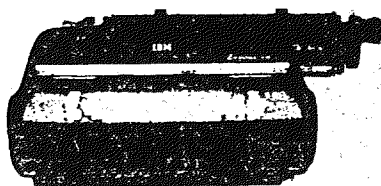

I note in the Nov. 13 issue, removal of my name from the credits of the Woodridge News, as well it should have been, I guess, since I explained to you that under the new restrictions being imposed upon the "Point of View" column, I felt the writer could and would no longer be free to express her opinion on Woodridge events or related topics -- which was the basic premise of the column, together with the idea that the writers would ostensibly be reflecting the views of their respective political parties (i.e., the Citizens Action Party and the Woodridge Independent Party). However, as a result of our last phone conversation, I was under the impression that you would submit my last article (the third of three, which you refused to publish) to your attorney for an opinion, even though, of course, there was absolutely nothing libelous about the content, but which was not printed because my interpretation of a certain event did not agree with yours. I fully expected to hear from you and have not as of this date.

Though you claim you have not edited the "Point of View" columns submitted to you, as a matter of fact, you exercised the ultimate in editorial privilege -- that of not printing in entirety. I freely admit that the first of my unprinted columns was exceptionally controversial in nature and it was by mutual consent that it was not published; the second, you said, represented the second appearance in my column of a given "controversial" topic and you felt the newspaper would be treading on unsafe ground by publishing "a series of articles" of such a nature. Despite the fact that I had already spent 3 evenings writing that column, to say nothing of the hours spent in research, I did at the 11th hour write and submit to you a substitute column of a completely innocuous nature. The third article has already been men-

Kenneth Burns, Alan Carter, Michael Hartfield, Sherry Redfield and Thomas Roberts, having completed over one year of intensive training in the Christian Faith, will be confirmed.

All the children will be given copies of an Advent Family Devotional Book, specially prepared by the Mary Unit of the Church women.

Grahams of Downers Grove and the Orley Scotts of Oak Lawn are the grandparents.

Last Saturday evening many of the Woodridge residents attended the dance sponsored by the St. Scholastica Mens Club. Everyone, including my husband and I, enjoyed the evening of dancing, refreshments and prizes. Several people were lucky and walked home with an extra package in the form of a turkey, which undoubtedly will grace the table on Thanksgiving Day. It seems everyone we talked to had a good time and they are looking forward to the next dance.

After the dance, Emily and Tom of Downers Grove had several callers for a breakfast of bacon and eggs, toast and coffee. Needless to say, the party-goers returned home a little weary after a delightful evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Quinn of Michigan were recent house guests of Richard and Phyllis Slater of Forest Glen Park. Phyllis' parents are enroute to Florida for the winter.

Florence Mc Carthy, 7651 Walnut, was surprised last week by a very well organized party arranged by her husband, Pat. After taking his wife out to dinner, Pat and Flo returned to a houseful of people waiting to help celebrate her birthday. Many happy returns, Flo.

Several of the ladies in the Highlands enjoyed a get-together-coffee recently, given by Marge Hodges of Catalpa. Moving into a new community and with the cold weather on its way, it seems a coffee is a good way to get acquainted.

Georgina "Gigi" Dunn, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dunn, 6319 Arnold Drive in Winston Hills, was christened at St. Joan of Arc Church on November 22nd. God parents are Veronica Fitzgerald and George Mc Carthy. Mr. Dunn is vice president of Crane Carton Company.

DOROTHY ZUEHLSDORFF

Well, Marshall Drive has taken its turn on the sick list, it seems. Paul Champion has been suffering with a heavy cold, Jacqueline Hunnicutt has been grounded for a week with a stomach disorder and yours truly is having a tough fight with the old "flu bug." This leaves about 10 more houses to be heard from, but don't worry, you will all get your chance.

Saw Jean Johnson walking up the street the other day, looking like an ad from Vogue magazine. She was wearing attractive black slim pants with a short jacket and the most becoming white furry hat; I remember thinking at the time that the only thing that was missing to make the outfit complete was a pair of ski's.

Jean and Norm Johnson came to Woodridge from Forrest View, Illinois. They have two sons, Kurt, 16, attending Downers Grove North High School, who not only is an Eagle Scout, but won the God and Country award. Bob, 12, is in the 7th grade at Goodrich School and had his tonsils removed Nov. 23rd at La Grange Memorial Hospital.

It seems that the Johnson family is very active wherever they live: Norm has been with Commonwealth Edison, in their accounting dept. for 26 years. In Forrest View he was Assistant Scout Master and vice president of the Little League. His latest project is treasurer for the Winston Hills Homeowners Assn. Jean teaches Sunday School at Lisle's Faith Methodist Church, was PTA president at Home School in Stickney, and president of the Women's Auxiliary for 2 years. Here in Woodridge she has taken on the job of Hospitality Chairman for the Winston Hills Social Club.

The Winston Hills Social Club is busy planning their Christmas party, to be held at Goodrich School on December 11th. This will be a family affair and sure to please the children, as well as their par-

Dedicate Baptist Church

A special ceremony dedicating the new church building was held at Village Baptist Church on Sunday, November 22.

The program included a piano prelude by Mrs. Marvin Wiggins; Invocation by Rev. Vernon Lyons, pastor, Ashburn Baptist Church; Greetings by Rev. Ernest Loving of Lisle Bible Church; Prayer of Dedication by Dr. Henry Lovik, CBA of Ill.; Dedication sermon by Rev. Samuel B. Scales, CBA of Ill.; Benediction by Dr. W. H. Sinclair of First Baptist Church of Downers Grove.

Choral music was provided by choirs of Village Baptist Church and First Baptist Church of D.G. Pastor Roop officially received the keys from Chairman of the Board, Carl Sarlo.

Rev. and Mrs. Donald Roop of Village Baptist Church will attend the annual meeting of the Conservative Baptist Assn. of Greater Chicago at the Donald Smith Memorial Baptist Church in Oak Lawn on November 28. Some of the church leaders will be attending part of these sessions.

Two very important topics under discussion at the 2 p.m. workshops will be, "The New Testament Church and Integration Pressures" and "How A New Testament Church May Survive Under Communism."

Nov. 29th will find Pastor Roop preaching from Deut. 32. The 11 a.m. sermon will be "The Christian Home" and the 7 p.m. question will be, "Is Man Very Important After All?"

All the teens of the church are invited to a Mystery Progressive Dinner on Nov. 28th, beginning at 7 p.m. at the home of Mr. Jerry Phillips.

High Individual bowler in a 3-game series were Pat Dean, with 528, Delores Zuccaro, 500 and Lolly Bossany, 495.

Turkey winners were Evelyn Arnouil, 85 pins over average, Mary Jane Sabatino, 49 pins over, Joanne Leith, 30 pins over, Gerry Woody, 48 pins over, Bernice Jantzen, 63 pins and Barbara Bankert, 65 pins over.

If any women in Woodridge would like to become a future member of the bowling league, they may call Helga Scudder, president, WO 8-5887, or Dorothy Provo, secretary, at WO 9-0810 and they will be put on the waiting list.

WOMAN'S CLUB

"Operation Sweater", sponsored by the Mental Health Department of the 11th District - Illinois Federation of Woman's Clubs, has collected 1,300 sweaters toward their goal of 2,300 for women patients at the Elgin State Mental Hospital.

If you can spare one or more sweaters, cardigans preferred, please call Mrs. Arthur Thuerk at WO 8-7181 and the Woodridge Woman's Club will arrange to pick them up.

Sweaters donated should be in good condition. They are to be given as Christmas gifts to the women at Elgin who will have so little to brighten the Holiday Season for them.

COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN

The Council of Catholic Women of St. Scholastica will have a short business meeting on Tuesday, December 1st at 8 p.m.

The Addison Choraleers will present "Sounds of Christmas," directed by Mrs. Shirley Rupp. This group was first organized two years ago last June and have been together since. They have presented three concerts, one each September since 1962 and have sung to large audiences each time.

Since the Choraleers are a non-profit organization, money from ticket sales has been used to buy their music and equipment, to pay their accompanist, Mrs. Olga Jordan of Elmhurst, and the rest has been given to charity.

The program sounds like a delightful one, and Mrs. Pat McCarthy, Council president, urges all to attend. Yuletide refreshments will be served.

ents. Santa Claus has promised to appear and give presents to all the children, as well as candy canes, cookies, etc. The highlight of the evening will be several cartoons, topped off with every one singing Christmas carols.

Before I crawl back into my sick bed, I would like to say in closing, that with all the beautiful and sentimental things that are both printed and said at this time of year, the Winston Hills Social Club prayer merits recognition with the rest and I am sure it speaks for all of us.

That I am a person of strong opinions as concerns the Village of Woodridge and that I have not been apprehensive about expressing those opinions must, I assume, have been known to you before you approached me to write the "Point of View" column. Yet now you say you feel you "made a mistake in allowing the writer(s) editorial privilege". Since the authors of the columns were expressing "their" opinions and you did, indeed, divorce yourself from those opinions with the printed statement reading, "The views expressed in the "Point of View" columns are those of the writers and not the Editor or Publisher," I maintain that never were we given "editorial privilege".

Certain reports have come to you, you told me, that I have "an ax to grind"; that I "blindly" reflect the views of my party; that I wrote about past history in which no one was interested; all or any of which may or may not be true—though I vehemently deny the first two charges — (that the latter was important to the understanding of current Woodridge events was, of course, my point of view.) My opinions also may have been completely erroneous, impractical, irrelevant and any other undesirable adjective imaginable — since no human being is infallible, there is nothing to say that I "had to be right" (though one can hope he is) — nevertheless, I was expressing my opinion, no one else's, and that is what I was asked to do.

My goals, as they were avowed in the third of my unprinted columns, are an informed public and good government, yet you said I could not use the column "to get any one out of office". I subsequently explained to you that I felt an "informed public" will almost necessarily take care of ousting any undesirable public officials.

I truly enjoyed writing the "Point of View" column — I felt it was an excellent service as well as a real opportunity for responsible expression — but when one is forced to remain innocuous and in controversial when events in Woodridge are really basically important and controversial, then I believe there is no room for compromise and no point in writing a column that does not reflect these basics in its purpose.

Very truly yours,

Mrs. James W. Kinser
7658 Deerfield

Editor's Note:

It is with mixed feelings and regret that we have accepted Mrs. Kinser's decision to give up her part in our column "Point of View". Ramona brought to her readers a deep conviction, sincerity and respect for the printed word which was expressed in a beauty of style applauded by all. It is in recognition of this that we have reprinted here her letter in its entirety.

At a recent staff meeting it was suggested that a current topic be assigned to the columnists for "Point of View". In past weeks as indicated by this letter, attorneys have been consulted for the column. In an endeavor to eliminate this necessity we have advised the columnists that we will in the future edit accordingly. It is within these areas that there have been changes in the policy of "Point of View".

SCIENCE CLUB

At the October 31st meeting of the Woodridge Science Club members made many more prints and enlargements.

Jim Ryan made enlargements of the cave trip and other negatives he brought. Kevin Bullock, Ed Prochazka, Jr., Dave Krueger and Frank Mabrey also brought negatives to work on.

About 8:30 Mr. Schavey and one of the club members served refreshments. Half a gallon of cider, two quarts of soda, 12 donuts and a bowl of popcorn later more pictures were developed, the majority of which were very good.

Mr. Russ Schavey showed some prints he had developed a couple of years ago, giving club members an opportunity to compare their work with that of a more experienced developer.

At the next meeting members will develop film exposed earlier.

Mothers Club

The November 17th Woodridge Mothers Club program featured Mrs. Sally Girard of Lisle, who demonstrated how to decorate cookies and cakes. She also showed the mothers how to mold and decorate Christmas tree ornaments. After her demonstration the mothers were able to purchase her molds and decorating kits.

The mothers of Mrs. Avery's first grade class were out in force and won for her classroom the monthly $3.00 prize for best attendance. So, moms, you can help your child's class win this award by attending these meetings.

The Mothers Club membership drive was held Sept. 15th thru Oct. 20th. The room with the highest percentage of mothers joining during this period would be awarded a $5.00 prize. The Mothers Club was happy to announce that Miss Peters' 8th grade class won with 25% mothers that had joined during the drive.

As of Nov. 17th the membership totaled 194. Anyone wishing information about this organization may call Mrs. Dot Zid, 964-1406.

The movie "Snow Queen" will be shown in Woodridge School gym at 2 p.m. on December 5th. This Hans Christian Anderson story is in technicolor and is an animated musical, narrated by Art Linkletter, Sandra Dee, Tony Kirk and Patty McCormick. Any child is welcome to attend.
