

Community Information and Display Policy

The Woodridge Public Library provides limited community bulletin board and pamphlet display space to serve the needs of the Library and the Woodridge community. The Library will have first priority to the use of all bulletin board and pamphlet areas for the purpose of promoting Library services, programs, and activities.

LIMITS OF USE

1. The community bulletin board and pamphlet display area is intended to provide information to the Library's patrons about events or services of a cultural, educational, or community service nature. As such the bulletin board and display area is for the distribution of library information, information pertaining to government programs and non-commercial community events only. Community events occurring within Woodridge or immediately adjoining the boundaries of Woodridge will be given priority.
2. No items may be displayed without the approval of designated library staff, who will maintain and post all notices, flyers, and pamphlets.
3. Once Library information is posted, and if there is room, examples of acceptable materials for posting on the bulletin board and pamphlet display areas include, but are not limited to: special non-profit events and activities, and activities and services available through municipal, state, and federal offices.
4. Items to be considered for posting should be received two weeks prior to posting and will be posted no more than four weeks. Items that have been on display longer than four weeks or past the date of the event will be removed.
5. Materials for posting must conform to Federal, State and Local laws including election laws.

The following types of items will not be displayed:

1. Any advertisement pertaining to the selling of products or services, such as, but not limited to: cosmetics, autos, used furniture, day care, lawn care, house cleaning, tutoring, etc.
2. Advertisements for personal or commercial solicitation, fundraising, recruitment, or proselytizing. Promotions of fundraising by Woodridge area non-profit organizations may be permitted.
3. Items that advertise commercial events, garage sale type or other sale event signs.
4. Materials containing information that advocate or promote a partisan position on any issue.

Library, government or educational institution sponsored table displays or information sessions are permitted at the Library's discretion.

The placement and display of any materials on tables or bookshelves at the Library, without authorization, will be removed immediately and discarded.

The use of the Library's posting areas does not imply Library staff or the Board of Trustees endorsement of a group or organization, its policies or beliefs, product, service, activity, or event displayed in the posted item.

The Library does not assume responsibility for display materials that are damaged or stolen.

Failure to comply with the Community Information and Display Policy may result in a loss of public posting privileges.

Library staff shall develop such rules and procedures as are necessary to ensure compliance with the Community Information and Display Policy.

Approved by the Woodridge Public Library Board of Trustees on 4/18/18
